NAVY CHIEFTAIN TELLS OF ORDER MANNING GUNS

Poland Joins London in War Alliance.

LONDON, April 4.—(AP)—A great urore was created in official circles onight by the ramatic statement of Earl tanhope, first ord of the admiralty, that nti-aircraft guns f the British avy had been nanned "so as o be ready for nything."

Earl Stanhope. [A. P. Wirephoto.]

The declaration hich Stanhope nade at Portsmouth brought a uick denial from rime Minister Chamberlain's esidence that any such order had een issued. It also brought a equest from the admiralty in Lon- on that the press suppress the peech of the first lord of the ad- iralty.

Stanhope's statement followed a y of diplomatic activity in which oland was understood to have joined reat Britain in a military alliance. Stanhope spoke aboard the aircraft rrier Royal Ark at Portsmouth dur- g a naval function.

Stanhope's Statement.

"Shortly before I left the admi- lty it became necessary to give rders to man anti-aircraft guns of e fleet so as to be ready for any- ing that might happen," he said. Long before the guests came aboard is ship sixteen anti-aircraft guns uld have given a warm welcome any one who happened to come is way."

He said the absence of some officers om the function was due to the fact ey had been called on duty.

An admiralty spokesman in London enied any anti-aircraft order had een issued and said many officers ere absent on Easter leave.

"The fleet is always ready and no tra precautions have been taken night," the spokesman said.

Papers Withdraw Stories.

Three papers, the Daily Mail, the ily Express, and the Daily Sketch, inted Stanhope's speech despite the miralty's request that it be with- ld. The Daily Mail and the Daily xpress later withdrew their stories.

Britain's defense preparations were ken a step further when Poland ansformed Chamberlain's pledge to ck Polish independence with Brit- n's armed might into an alliance. land was reported to have agreed to sist any German aggression against gland.

British quarters indicated that For- gn Minister Josef Beck of Poland de this preliminary promise to scount Halifax, British foreign sec- tary.

Poland Demands Big Price.

Col. Beck, who has based his for- gn policy on maintaining friend- ip with Germany, soviet Russia, and her neighbors, was understood to be king a big price before extending pledge of help to states other an Britain possibly threatened by zi expansion. He would like a n for rearmament and provision British colonial territory as a home Polish Jews.

The extension of Britain's uni- eral pledges, designed to cement land into a European front against ther German expansion, was the in item of discussion at a confer- ce of Chamberlain, Halifax, and ck.

Study Four Possibilities.

our possibilities were understood be under study in connection with land's rôle in Britain's European alt Hitler" plan in which her itary power might come into the estion. They were:

—A direct German attack on tain—This was understood to have n settled by Beck's latest pledge.

—Aggression against Britain out- Europe.

—A German attack on the Nether- ds, Belgium, or Switzerland.

Quincy, Mass., April 4.—[Special.]—Four navy flyers were killed today when two airplanes collided in flight and plunged to earth. They were engaged in aerial maneuvers over a shipyard here where the navy's newest aircraft carrier—the 20 million dollar Wasp—was being launched. Both planes crashed through the roofs of houses in nearby East Braintree and set them on fire.

Navy authorities identified the dead as Lieutenant Commander Waldo H. Brown, socially prominent naval architect and reserve flyer; Ellsworth Benson, aviation cadet; Walter Kirk, aviation chief carpenter's mate; and John Ausiello, aviation chief machinist's mate. Brown and Benson were the pilots of the two planes that locked wings while flying in formation with four others.

Collide as Formation Changes.

The naval reserve squadron, from the Squantum base at Boston airport, had been flying over the Wasp at 2,000 feet. The squadron changed formation preparatory to a dive in line over the shipyard, when the biplane scout bombers of Brown and Benson collided.

Several civilian flyers in the air at the time described the accident. Wes Williams, one of the commercial pilots, said that the planes of Brown and Benson were Nos. 2 and 3 in the six ship formation.

Baby Narrowly Escapes.

"They were going through a maneuver in which they rolled over on their backs and then dived down," said Williams. "The left wing of the No. 3 plane struck the right wing of the No. 2 plane. The No. 2 ship was torn to pieces and dropped straight down. No. 3 ship staggered, partially righted itself, and then shot down."

In one of the houses struck by the plane an elderly man narrowly missed death, and in the other a baby had an equally narrow escape when the roof over his crib was torn away. All the occupants of the houses, however, made their way to safety.

ADOPT NEW METHOD FOR TRANSMISSION OF PICTURES BY CABLE

New York, April 4.—(AP)—A new method of transmitting photographs by cable across the Atlantic ocean was inaugurated today by Western Union, which sent a picture of the airliner Yankee Clipper after its arrival in Southampton, England.

FACULTY AWAY; STUDENTS KEEP SCHOOL GOING

Excelsior Springs, Mo., April 4.—(AP)—Students conducted classes at Excelsior Springs High school and maintained their own discipline today. Regular teachers stayed home or spent the day fishing. The student-teachers were appointed by a board of education elected from the student body. The idea for the day was the student council's. Officials approved it.

SIX VOTES KEEP ONLY WISCONSIN DRY CITY DRY

Richland Center, Wis., April 4.—(AP)—A final recount tonight showed that Richland Center, Wisconsin's only dry city, had voted to remain that way, 955 to 949. The issue put up to the voters was whether the city should license taverns to permit sale of beer.

Here's Why Doctor Had No Vacation in 49 Years

Eldon, Ia., April 4.—[Special.]—Dr. S. H. Sawyer this week began his fiftieth year as a practicing physician here. He came to Eldon in 1890 and has never taken a vacation. He has delivered 5,000 babies here. He served as head of the volunteer fire department, has been a bank president for 25 years, a school board member three terms, and Rock Island railroad physician for 49 years.

Bold Prowler Airily Eludes His Pursuers

Somewhere a door could be heard softly opening. Mrs. Richard Burke looked at her husband. He looked at her.

"Some one's in the house," she said. It was late in the afternoon.

He slipped out of the living room into the dining room. He was heading for the kitchen when the bathroom door latch clicked. Hurrying thither, he tried the door. It did not yield.

"Come out with your hands up or I'll shoot!" Burke called. There was no response.

Stands Guard with Chair.

Mrs. Burke hurried to his side with a chair. "You stand guard," she said. "I'll get the police."

Burke put the chair over his shoulder, ready to bring it down on the prowler's head if the door opened. Mrs. Burke ran to the home of a neighbor and called police to the Burke apartment at 3135 Montrose avenue.

Policemen George Hillock, Carter Foss, and Henry Laue arrived in a squad car. Two more policemen from the Albany Park station followed in the patrol wagon. They found fifteen neighbors helping Burke stand guard. The wagon men took posts at the front and back doors.

Police Advance Grimly.

Hillock, Foss, and Laue advanced on the bathroom with guns drawn.

"We'll give you one chance to come out," they shouted.

But there was no answer.

With a crowbar the door was pried open. In pushed the policemen.

The prowler was not to be seen; yet investigation convinced the policemen Burke had reason to have fears.

The prowler, they said, was the wind. It blew the kitchen door open. And then, when Burke was searching the house, it blew the bathroom door shut. When the bathroom door slammed it released the spring lock, locking the door.

MAYOR TELLS OF HIS GREATER CHICAGO PLANS

Gives His Thanks for Vote of Confidence.

BY PERCY WOOD.

Seven million dollars' worth of new homes for Chicagoans.

Recreation centers for children who do not live near the parks.

An immense convention hall on Navy pier to attract still more conventions to the city.

Settlement of the traction problem, with justice for all—particularly the car riders.

These were some of the objectives Mayor Kelly discussed last night as he looked forward to four more years as Chicago's chief executive. He spoke in the midst of the jubilation at Democratic headquarters in the Morrison hotel. Every important leader of the Nash-Kelly organization and many ward and precinct workers milled around him.

G. O. P. Gains Temper Victory.

However, the celebration fell far short of the scenes of hectic excitement that characterized headquarters on primary night last Feb. 28 when State's Attorney Courtney met a resounding 288,000 vote defeat.

Wild joy was the motif that night; but last night the situation called only for modest smiles. The demonstration over the ticket's victory was tempered by thoughts of the big Republican gains and the effect they might have on the 1940 presidential election.

The mayor seemed happier than any one else. He pointed out that he, for one, had forecast the election results accurately.

"I'm one man who didn't think this would be a cinch," he told the assembled workers. "I thank you for all that you've done."

Glories in 'Vote of Confidence.'

In a formal statement over the radio and before the newsreel cameras, the mayor said he regarded his victory as a vote of confidence.

"This expression of confidence warms my heart, especially because of the record vote cast today," he said. "My one desire in this hour of victory is to be worthy of that confidence during the next four years. I am grateful for this all-Chicago tribute to my administration and I shall go right on being an all-Chicago mayor.

"The election is now behind us. The future of Chicago is in front of us. Chicago has kept its stride during this campaign. We are free from any bitterness or rancor that might have created ill-feeling and delayed the coöperation that is now needed to push Chicago forward."

The mayor said he has a number of definite plans for Chicago's betterment and several others that are, as yet, unelaborated ideas.

Predicts Building Boom.

He is greatly elated because he sees a major building boom materializing in the form of $7,000,000 worth of new homes which, he said, will be constructed in Chicago this year. This means more than a stimulant to business, he added.

"When a man builds a house," the mayor said, "it means he has his chest out and his shoulders back. He's going to stick. He's taking root in his community, and he is proud of it. These new homes will be a great thing for our morale."

Money must be found for more recreational centers in Chicago, the mayor said.

"In some sections, there is no place at all for children to play, because they are too far from the parks and the beaches," he explained. "It may be possible to do a great deal by using school yards in this respect.

Seeks a Future for Youth.

"When the body develops, the mind develops. One of our biggest problems is to show our younger generation that it has a future. We want to make them feel they stand for something fine, and not that they must outsmart some one all the time. Outguessers are not the ones who are successful. Young people must have confidence in their country and be wary of all 'isms.'"

The mayor is enthusiastic over his plan to make the Navy pier a great convention center.

"Perhaps with some very small tax we could develop the pier into the greatest convention and exhibition hall in the country," he said. "It has a fine location. The main thing it needs is another floor. Chicago had 801 conventions last year. They

Losers Rejoice at Upswing, Pin Hopes on 1940

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

Great rejoicing characterized Republican headquarters last night as the election returns rolled in. Party leaders put one interpretation on the figures. The size of the vote rolled up for Dwight H. Green for mayor, they said, indicates that 1940 is to be a Republican year in state and nation.

The La Salle hotel had an air of celebration. There were smiles and backslapping, indicating the satisfaction with the figures. Leaders maintained the vote shows the New Deal machine is driving on the rocks.

Sends Telegram to Mayor.

Candidate Green himself spoke of the effect of the day's poll on 1940's presidential election. After sending a telegram of congratulation to Mayor Kelly, wishing him a successful administration, Green said:

"I am grateful to the 637,000 citizens who supported my candidacy today.

"With all the regimentation of their pay rollers, the most lavish campaign fund in history, and the intimidation, coercion, and regimentation of people in the ranks of the WPA and those on relief, the Democratic party of this city was able to garner only 56 per cent of the votes.

"This assures victory in the state of Illinois for the Republican party in 1940.

"While victory was not ours today, I will continue to represent and fight for those people who placed their confidence in me. I want to thank all of the loyal workers."

Call It Popular Uprising.

A radio microphone was set up in headquarters and from time to time party men took to the air. Their analysis of the day at the polls was that the Green vote had come from a popular uprising rather than from activities of a party committee.

They declared the New Deal proved a heavy load for Mayor Kelly to carry. Activities of the communist party in urging members to work for the defeat of Green was held to have added to the Republican vote. Unpopularity of the Chicago Democratic machine was said by speakers to have been a great aid in building up the Green vote.

As to 1940, the political statisticians dug into the records to show the party is climbing back in voting strength in Chicago.

Gain Over '32 and '36.

Green yesterday got 43.7 per cent of the vote cast for the two main candidates. In 1932, when Roosevelt was elected for the first time, Hoover got 549,451 votes in Chicago, or 41 per cent of the total. Landon in 1936, running for president with county and congressional tickets, got 543,755 votes in Chicago, or 34 per cent of the total vote.

Last November Richard J. Lyons, Republican nominee for United States senator against Scott W. Lucas, got 569,116 votes in Chicago, or 41 per cent of the vote cast for the two men.

Landon in 1936 carried two wards,

DWIGHT GREEN LOSES BY ONLY 183,000 VOTES

1,478,637 Ballots Set New Record.

BY PARKE BROWN.

Mayor Kelly was reëlected yesterday by a margin of 183,410 votes. Complete unofficial returns placed his total vote at 820,517. The total of his Republican opponent, Dwight H. Green, was 637,107.

The Green vote astounded even the most optimistic Republican forecasters. It was larger than any Republican candidate for any office had received in Chicago in the last ten years. It was more than three times his primary vote of 212,011.

Mayor Breaks 1935 Record.

Mayor Kelly's vote was just about what candid Democratic leaders expected. It exceeded his primary vote of 604,190 by more than 216,000. It was 21,000 above his 1935 total of 799,060, the size of which attracted national attention and was an all time record for Chicago mayoral candidates until yesterday.

Green's great showing was possible because of the immense turnout of voters. Perfect weather did its part. A total of 1,478,637 voters went to the polls. The total of those who voted for the mayoral candidates alone was 1,457,624, which is a new record.

The previous record for a Chicago municipal election was the 1,164,492 cast in 1931. The biggest vote ever cast in the city was the 1,706,634 in the national and state election of 1936.

Green Sets G. O. P. Mark.

Green's total was the highest ever given a Republican candidate for mayor in this city. The previous high was 515,716, which was cast for the successful Republican nominee in 1915.

Mayor Kelly carried into office with him his two running mates. They were Ludwig D. Schreiber, who now becomes city clerk, and Thomas S. Gordon, who won the city treasurership. The Republican nominees for these two places were John William Chapman, for clerk, and Clement A. Nance, for treasurer.

Complete unofficial returns on city clerk stood: Schreiber, 813,575; Chapman, 587,529. The complete vote on city treasurer was: Gordon, 824,972; Nance, 583,960.

Some explanation for Green's trebling his primary vote was afforded in a conclusion that between 100,000 and 150,000 Republicans who supported State's Attorney Courtney in the primary on Feb. 28 swung back to their own party. Courtney received 317,054 votes. Mayor Kelly's increase yesterday over his primary vote did not account for more than two-thirds of that number.

Interest Lacking in Primary.

An additional theory widely accepted was that the quarter of a million voters who neglected the primary but voted yesterday were Republicans who were not interested in the relatively uncontested battle for the party's nomination five weeks ago.

The almost complete figures indicated that another phase of the Green surprise was the number of wards he carried. On Monday some Democrats were betting he would not carry more than eight wards. The returns showed he carried fifteen wards, nearly all of which were on the lake front and in the far western residential section.

One analysis of the result was that in the river wards, in the densely populated sections and in the districts with heavy foreign born populations the intensive house to house work of the well financed and disciplined Democratic organization was even more than normally effective.

Fail in Residential Wards.

The same sort of tactics, however, proved unsuccessful in the residential wards. In these wards the organization's 30,000 public employés were much less effective as vote getters than in the river wards. Mayor Kelly's silent treatment of Green also had some effect in those wards, it was believed.

The Democratic organization again carried the colored wards on the south side but not by the large margins its leaders expected. The Democrats also carried all the wards in and around the stockyards district. It lost the south shore wards from the 6th to the 9th inclusive, as it did the 17th and the 19th, which includes Beverly Hills.

On the west side the first fifteen wards in the 20th to the 35th the Democratic vote was at its strongest. In Ald. J. M. Arvey's ward, the 24th, where the refusal of Orthodox Jews to vote because of Passover was expected to cut down the vote, Kelly nevertheless received 22,364 votes to Green's 1,118.

Green took the 36th, 37th [Austin], 38th, 39th, and 41st wards in the far northwestern section of the city. The 41st was a banner ward for the Republicans, giving him 6,562 more votes than Kelly.

On the north side Kelly swept the 42d ward, frequently referred to as the Gold Coast; its neighbor, the 43d; the 44th; the 46th, which lies in old Lake View, and the 48th, in the Wilson avenue neighborhood.

Green, however, was stronger than the Democratic organization in the 47th, which includes Ravenswood; the 49th, including Edgewater and Rogers Park, and the 50th, which apparently was the banner ward of the entire city for the Republicans. In that ward Green received 20,190 to Kelly's 12,970.

Third Candidate on Ballot.

Another peculiarity of the election was that there was a third candidate for mayor on the ballot about whom the public as a whole knew absolutely nothing. He was Arthur P. Reilly and he had running mates for the office of clerk and treasurer. They were Stanley R. Pulaski and Oscar B. Tallacksen. All three ran under the label of "Third Party." Their votes were insignificant, but they complicated calculations of total votes cast, percentages, and similar analyses.

The inauguration ceremonies for Mayor Kelly, Clerk Elect Schreiber, Treasurer Elect Gordon, and the sixteen winners in the aldermanic runoff elections will be held in the city council chamber next Wednesday. It will be the third time that Mayor Kelly has taken the oath of office as chief executive of the city. In 1933 he was elected by the city council for two years to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mayor Cermak. In 1935 he was elected by popular vote for his first four year term.

With the addition of the next four years to the six he already has served Mayor Kelly will be the first man to occupy the chair as mayor of Chicago for ten consecutive years. His party also can celebrate that it will be the first time in the history of Chicago that any political party has held possession of the city hall for an unbroken period of twelve years.

GUNMAN GETS $50 AT STORE.

Herbert Harris, 2742 Logan boulevard, owner of a men's store at 3610 Irving Park road, was robbed of $50 last night, by a gunman who ordered Harris and a clerk into a rear room, then fled.

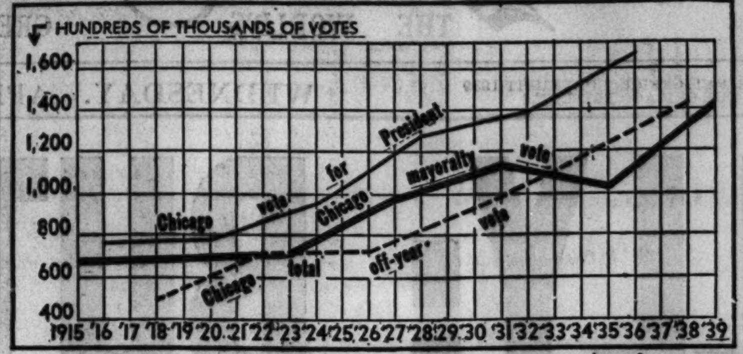
$255,248 IS VOTED FOR EVANSTON TOWNSHIP RELIEF

Voters of Evanston township gathered in a town meeting yesterday and approved a relief appropriation of $255,248 and estimated township expenses of $5,063. Only twenty-four attended. A three mill tax for relief is expected to produce $148,434 and the Illinois Emergency relief commission will, it is anticipated, contribute $93,000. Back tax collections are expected to provide the rest.

The Oak Park township board approved a budget of $176,810 to finance an expected 400 relief cases during 1939. Supervisor Harry L. Judd said the township would raise $130,584, and depend on the state for the remainder. The budget was $45,000 more than that for 1938.

At the Lyons township meeting the relief budget was set at $74,821, practically the same as last year. Assessor Charles M. Webb said there is sufficient money in the treasury to take care of expenses other than relief.

Vote Shows Chicago's Election Interest



A steady increase in the number of Chicagoans voting for mayor, for President, and in the off years elections has been noticed by statisticians. The graph shows how the Chicago vote has increased over the years, not only in national but also in local matters. According to statisticians, this increase in civic minded interest has been greater than the normal growth of population would explain.

TRIBUNE PHONE GIRLS GIVE 15,000 DATA ON ELECTION

Between 12,000 and 15,000 telephone calls went through THE TRIBUNE'S switchboards last night. Four additional operators were on duty, making a total of twelve to handle the flood of information seekers.

Miss Anne Garrow, chief operator, said there seemed to be more interest than in almost any previous city election, but that the majority of calls were in connection with the aldermanic contests.

Calls on the mayoralty results came from as far away as Louisville, Ky., and Rochester, Minn.

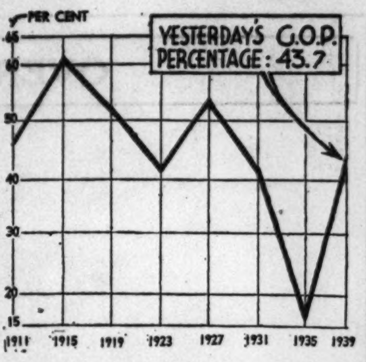
42D WARD TEAM FIRST TO REPORT AT BOARD OFFICE

The 62d precinct of the near north side 42d ward was first to report officially yesterday at election board headquarters in the city hall. Puffing clerks and judges were checked in at 5:48 o'clock, just 48 minutes after the polls closed.

Official Canvass of City Votes to Begin Tomorrow

Canvass of the votes cast in yesterday's election will be begun at 8:30 o'clock tomorrow morning, County Judge Edmund K. Jarecki announced last night. Fifty canvassing teams are expected to expedite the official count so that the proclamation of the votes may be issued by afternoon.

G. O. P. Vote Soars



The graph indicates percentage of the combined Democratic-Republican vote for mayor which was polled by the Republican candidate in elections since 1915. The comparisons show how the Republicans made a remarkable recovery yesterday after slumping in 1935.

Alton Giant Has Trouble Getting in a Voting Booth

Alton, Ill., April 4. — (AP) — The world's tallest man — 8-foot-8¼-inch Robert Wadlow, who was 21 years old Feb. 22—had trouble fitting himself into a voting booth today. The young giant, casting his first ballot in Alton's city election, stooped and got his head and shoulders into the booth. Then he squeezed in and stood up, towering above the booth with his head near the ceiling. He marked the ballot against the wall.

NINE ALDERMEN ARE DEFEATED IN RUNOFF ELECTION

Democrats Hold 44 Seats in New Council.

BY WILLIAM STRAND.

John S. Boyle. Wins council seat.

Chicago's city council for the next four years will consist of forty-four Democrats and six Republicans. Sixteen of these won their seats in runoff elections yesterday. The runoffs were required only in those sixteen wards in which no candidate received a majority in the February aldermanic election.

All told, thirty-four sitting aldermen now stand reëlected—thirty-one in the February election and three who were returned to office yesterday. Fourteen were defeated—five in February and nine in the runoffs. The two remaining of the fifty seats in the council were vacated by death. One of these vacancies was filled in February, and one yesterday.

Sixteen New Aldermen.

Thus there will be sixteen new faces in the council when it convenes for its inaugural meeting one week from today.

Thirty-nine of the Democrats are members of the regular party organization. The other five supported State's Attorney Courtney's unsuccessful attempt to win the nomination for mayor.

The G. O. P. minority membership in the council was reduced by one from the total of four years ago. The Republicans lost three seats and gained only two new ones. The vacancy caused by the death of Ald. B. A. Cronson [4th], who was a Republican, was filled by another Republican, Attorney Abraham H. Cohen.

Most surprising of the upsets yesterday was the defeat of Ald. Terence F. Moran [16th], a veteran of more than twenty years in the council. He lost to Assistant State's Attorney John S. Boyle, a Courtney candidate, whose victory was credited largely to support by the ward's regular G. O. P. organization.

Healy Defeated in 6th.

Ald. John F. Healy [6th] was another casualty. He was ousted by his arch foe, Patrick Sheridan Smith, veteran G. O. P. leader and former city clerk.

Another Republican triumph was registered in the 8th ward, where Ald. Michael Mulcahy, regular Democrat, was defeated by Attorney Roy E. Olin. The G. O. P. has shown increasing strength in this ward in recent elections.

The other two seats, beside that in the 16th ward, won by Courtney Democratic candidates, were in the 33d and 36th wards. In the 33d Ald. Z. H. Kadow was defeated by Vincent S. Zwiefka, personal clerk for County Judge Jarecki. Ald. G. W. Robinson in the 36th was ousted by Richard M. Walsh, who had the backing of State Representative Benjamin S. Adamowski, a close ally of Courtney. Mayor Kelly's administration was about the only issue in this battle.

Quirk Beats Massen in 48th.

Ald. John A. Massen [48th] was the lone Republican alderman ousted yesterday. He was badly beaten by Robert C. Quirk, a park district engineer, supported by the regular Democratic organization.

Three Democratic aldermen, who bolted the regular organization in the first election, were liquidated by the city hall machine yesterday. They are Ald. James J. Cusack [5th], replaced by Prof. Paul H. Douglas of the University of Chicago; Ald. Harry E. Perry [18th], defeated by Bernard J. O'Hallaren, and Ald. Albert F. Schulz [47th], who was ousted by Frank O. Hilburn. All the winners in these races were regular Democrats.

G. O. P. Loses Colored District.

In the 2d and 3d wards, making up most of Chicago's Negro section, the G. O. P. surrendered control to the Democrats. Earl B. Dickerson in the 2d nosed out former State Senator William E. King. In the 3d Deputy Coroner Benjamin Grant beat former Congressman Oscar De Priest, G. O. P. stalwart of other years, by a big margin.

The 26th ward seat went to a regular Democrat, Alexander J. Sobota, director of the Polish National alliance. He won handily from Anton Pociask, the Courtney candidate.

A caucus of the new council has been called for this afternoon to select the five members of the committee on committees. This group and its alternates are expected to leave for an unannounced destination tomorrow night for the purpose of choosing new committees. It will report to the council at the inaugural meeting.

VOLIVA FORCES BEATEN AGAIN IN ZION ELECTION

9 Suburbs Pick Officials in Quiet Voting.

Voters of Zion administered another defeat yesterday to the political forces headed by Wilbur Glenn Voliva, overseer of the Christian Catholic church who once dominated elections there. He has lost consistently since he was beaten in the 1933 school elections.

The voters reëlected Mayor Richard F. Hire, who polled 1,819 votes to 1,291 for Voliva's man, William J. Bull. They also returned to office Commissioners G. Oscar McDowell, Conrad Brune, William Farrar and Charles W. Warren. The Voliva candidates, James D. Bird, Lester R. Baughman, Edward L. Wright and Herbert A. Ruesch, were far behind.

Alex Ford Wilson was elected police magistrate over the Voliva aspirant, Edward J. Bromstead. Wilson succeeds Stephen J. Drury, who is retiring.

Eight Other Suburbs Vote.

Eight other Chicago suburbs chose new officials in quiet elections yesterday. They are Evanston, Glencoe, Niles Center, Winnetka, Berwyn, Cicero and River Forest in Cook county and Aurora in Kane county.

Evanston voters chose Marshall I. McMahon from a field of six candidates for justice of the peace to succeed Samuel Harrison, who died last Jan. 16. McMahon polled 2,657 votes to 1,821 for his nearest rival, Francis R. Fitzsimmons.

Two incumbent Evanston aldermen were beaten in close contests. Ald. Anthony J. Kramer [4th] was unseated by William MacSteven, 895 to 735. Ald. Eddy S. Brandt [6th] was defeated by Elmer E. Nilles, 1,341 to 1,297. In the 5th ward Ald. Edwin B. Jourdain, colored, ran far ahead of his two white opponents. In the 8th ward Ald. Frank L. Campbell snowed under E. Bartlette Fisher. Ald. Ward T. Houston [1st], Henry H. Platt Jr. [2d], Alan E. Ashcraft Jr. [3d], and John J. Corcoran [7th] were reëlected without opposition.

Pavek Keeps Berwyn Job.

Berwyn reëlected Police Magistrate Frank Pavek over Laddie T. Pelnar, 11,390 to 9,480. Voters also retired one of five aldermen who sought reëlection. Ald. Oscar Muelhausen [6th] lost to Frank E. Dunning, 2,282 to 1,936.

Other council winners were Eber J. Hubbard Jr. [1st], Ald. Joseph F. Hosna [2d], Ald. Irving Toman [3d], Joseph Lukes [4th], Ald. Edward F. Alexa [5th], and Ald. Victor R. Spina [7th]. The incumbents in the 1st and 4th wards did not seek reëlection.

Randa Wins in Cicero.

In Cicero Gustav O. Randa was reelected village trustee. He beat Charles Stasny, 13,181 to 11,731. Stanley W. Hines and George Sassetti defeated Frank M. Budzynski and Edward Statkus for places as library trustees.

In Aurora Police Magistrate Lambert Ochsenschlager, Ald. William Green [1st], and Ald. Bernard Kartheiser [7th] were reëlected. New aldermen chosen were Seth Flanders [2d], Henry Gabrielson [3d], Stolp Fraser [4th], Arnold Fidler [5th], and Peter Kolf [6th].

Elect Park Commissioners.

Commissioners of park districts in several suburbs were elected as follows:

Niles Center—Robert Duguid, Walter Kutz. Park Ridge—Frank H. Rehder [for six years], Henry G. Hartmann [to fill two year vacancy]. La Grange—Royal S. Munger, Walter Templeton. Oak Park—Clarence A. Willard. Clyde [Cicero]—Edward Stejskal. Berwyn—Noah J. Abram.

Memorial [Bellwood, Hillside, and Berkeley]—John H. Fippinger, Philip H. Korrell. Hawthorne—Frank Harenza, Henry Forys. River Forest—Stanley D. Whitford, Carl Schaus. Calumet Memorial [Calumet City]—Frank Raczkowski, Frank J. Magdziasz. Des Plaines—Ferdinand B. Arndt, Gus A. Stellmack.

In the Des Plaines election Arndt and Stellmack were write-in candidates. They nosed out the only candidate whose name appeared on the ballot, Eugene W. Landry, incumbent.

DIES ON HER 69TH BIRTHDAY.

Holland, Mich., April 4.—[Special.]—Mrs. Margaret Towner, living fifteen miles east of here, died today on her sixty-ninth birthday. She was the widow of C. N. Towner, and was well known in church and lodge circles in this part of Michigan.

HORNER WIRES KELLY HIS CONGRATULATIONS; 'BEST WISHES': GREEN

Three telegrams held the attention of politicians in the wake of Mayor Kelly's victory. One was to the mayor from Gov. Henry Horner—his first public utterance since illness took him to Miami Beach, Fla., after last November's election.

"My heartiest congratulations on your victory," said the governor's message, "and my earnest wishes for a successful and progressive administration in the four years to come."

Last reports from Gov. Horner's aids stated he will return to Illinois about April 15.

Dwight H. Green, Kelly's opponent, wired him as follows: "I congratulate you on your reëlection, and wish you a successful administration."

The mayor promptly replied: "Please accept my sincere appreciation for your gracious wire of congratulations. Now let's get together for the best interests of Chicago's welfare."

Roosevelt Is Silent.

Warm Springs, Ga., April 4.—[Special.] — President Roosevelt's headquarters tonight received in silence news of Mayor Kelly's reëlection. Efforts to get official comment at the little White House were unsuccessful. And the reason for this silence was learned unofficially. It was indicated that the New Dealers regard the big Republican vote in Chicago as an omen that Illinois will be lost by the Democrats in next year's presidential election. Downstate Illinois went back to the G. O. P. last November.

HALT WPA WORK FOR VOTE; MUST MAKE UP TIME

Nearly all the 106,000 WPA workers in Chicago had the entire day off yesterday to vote. But they will have to make up the time later if they are to be paid for the day. Had they reported for work, they would have been entitled, under the law, to two hours off, with pay, to cast their ballots.

All projects sponsored by the city, the Park district, the sanitary district, and forest preserve district within Chicago were declared inoperative for election day.

ELECTION PROVES AS ORDERLY AS A SUNDAY SCHOOL

Election commissioners, special deputies hired to preserve the peace and honesty of the election, policemen, party representatives, and watchers employed by the Chicago Bar association sat in idleness yesterday afternoon in the quarters of the election board. They waited in vain for summonses to polling places to help maintain the sanctity of the ballot.

A staf of employés sat at telephones to help any one whose vote was endangered by registration errors. A clerk was assigned to each ward—fifty clerks for fifty wards. They did not answer 100 calls during the day.

The calls answered by police and representatives of County Judge Jarecki had to do with reports of chain voting or paying of money for votes. None of the complaints was substantiated by investigation.

Two Mayoral Candidates and Wives Early Voters

The Republican and Democratic nominees for mayor were early voters yesterday. Dwight H. Green and Mrs. Green appeared at the polling place at 532 Roscoe street—in the 32d precinct of the 46th ward—at 8:30 a. m. to cast their votes. Mayor Kelly and Mrs. Kelly voted at 10 a. m. in the polling place at 1035 East 47th street, in the 24th precinct of the 4th ward.

G. O. P. REJOICES AT UPSWING, PINS HOPES ON 1940

New Deal Is on the Rocks, Republicans Say.

Those comparisons were with votes cast in general elections where ordinarily vastly more interest is displayed than in a mayoral contest. To compare Green's poll yesterday with that for Republican candidates for mayor in the last eight years shows a similar upswing for the G. O. P. In 1931 the Republican candidate got 41.6 per cent of the votes, and was beaten by the late Anton J. Cermak. In 1935, Emil Wetten, Republican nominee defeated by Mayor Kelly, got only 17.3 per cent of the total vote cast for three candidates.

"It's Grand," Says Goodspeed.

"This is grand," beamed C. B. Goodspeed, treasurer of the Republican national committee. "It means the New Deal is on the rocks, that the Republicans will carry Illinois in 1940 and a Republican president will be elected. This election proves that the great cities with tremendous Democratic machines are not invulnerable.

"Last year large areas of rural America turned against the New Deal in the election. This election shows the machines themselves are now crumbling. It was a marvelous showing when you consider that we had hardly any money."

Called a Moral Victory.

"This is a moral victory, a triumph inside a defeat," said County Chairman Moore. "It was a revolt by the people against a machine. Last fall Lyons lost Chicago by 255,000 to Lucas, today Green loses by only 183,000 to Mayor Kelly himself. We spent about $33,000 for the primary and $33,000 for the election outside of manning the polls. The Democrats spent about 5 million dollars for primaries and election.

"This huge Republican vote in Chicago definitly insures victory for Illinois in 1940 and dooms the New Deal nationally. With hardly sufficient funds to conduct a campaign against thousands of Democratic pay rollers and millions of dollars, the half million majority which the Kelly-Nash machine promised President Roosevelt and Mr. Farley has dwindled.

Sees People Disillusioned.

"The people who have been jobless and on relief for six years have been disillusioned by New Deal promises, and both employers and employés refuse to carry further the burden of confiscatory taxation. They demand a change."

Richard Lyons, in one of the radio talks, said disillusionment was behind the Green vote.

"The vote in Chicago was much closer than the Democrats were claiming," he said. "The reason is the people are fed up on the New Deal. They showed that on the farms and the smaller cities last year; today they showed it in the city, in the rapidly diminishing Democratic margin."

Wayland Brooks, Republican nominee for governor in 1936, pointed to the fact that in the senatorship contest last November Lyons carried downstate by 108,193, the Cook county towns by 51,496, a total outside Chicago of 159,689. Lucas' Chicago majority of 255,277 made him winner by 95,588.

"Today's results," said Brooks, "mean one thing: the Democratic machine is foundering; 1940 will be a Republican year in Illinois and the United States."

EASY ON TRIGGER, PARK AVE. BOY GOES A-SNIPING

New York, April 4.—[Special.]—Rifle shots from a window of the eleven story apartment building at 383 Park avenue threw the neighborhood into an uproar this evening. One of the bullets grazed the cheek of the building superintendent as he looked out of a window to see what the shooting was about. Another shot nicked a policeman's ear. A number of tenants fled from the building.

Policemen made a cautious reconnaissance and discovered that the sniper was firing from a ninth floor apartment occupied by the family of Dr. Marvin Jones. The doctor was amazed when the police called and explained their mission. Then his son, Robert, 8 years old, explained he had been firing a .22 caliber rifle out the window to see how it fired.

HITCH-HIKER KILLED BY TRUCK.

Bloomington, Ill., April 4.—[Special.]—Herman Young, 50 years old, hitch-hiking to the home of his father in Lincoln, was killed early today when struck by a truck on U. S. route 66 between Springfield and Lincoln. A heavy fog was blamed for the accident.

PHILOSOPHY A LA TAXI

By CALEB

THE hour was late, and to the trio of tired theatergoers inside, the car's smooth, leisurely voyage through traffic was beguilingly restful. From the taxi's radio drifted lulling waltz-music, and from the heater flowed waves of welcome comfort. . . . "The ladies like your driving," called out the man in the rear seat, "and the reason is, they say you don't drive as if you were going to a fire."

"Thank you," acknowledged the man at the wheel. "I'm glad they're pleased. You see, the way I figure it, folks grab a cab during the day mostly because they want to arrive somewhere soon. Keep an appointment, get back to the office on time—that sort of thing. At such times they want to go fast, and that's all right with me.

"But late at night—well, that's different. Folks are tired; they've had a hard day working, mebbe, or been to a long show; they want to travel easy and relax. They want to enjoy their ride . . . not be scared to death by fast driving." He pulled noiselessly up to a red light, then slid into low and wheeled gently ahead again. "So," he continued, "I consider the circumstances and study to give 'em what they like. . . . Are you people warm enough? I can give you more heat if you want it."

"Very comfortable, thanks," said the man behind—and the ladies added some complimentary words of their own. . . . "You know what?" said the taxi driver. "I make more dough and enjoy my work better, because I've analyzed this carrying the public job. Simplest way I've found is just to put yourself in your passengers' place. You'd be surprised how that gives you the low-down on what to do and what not to do. . . . You might almost call a guy like me a philosopher," he chuckled.

"Anyhow, the way I dope it," he continued, edging over at the hornblast of a fast-stepping sedan, "either you do a thing well, or you don't do it well. I've been driving long enough to drive well—so why shouldn't I do it that way? No matter whether a guy's a Big Shot in business, or just drives a cab, like me, I got no time for him if he can't give a job the best there is in him."

As the car slowed to its destination, he hopped out quickly, helped the man to alight, then guided the ladies carefully across hummocky snow to the smooth walk, and presented his meter-check. "Hope I'll see you again some time," he waved cheerily, "and thank you, mister." His cab disappeared in the darkness. "There goes a business philosopher, all right," murmured the man who had ridden behind. "And there's a lot that most of us could learn from him."

JUBILANT MAYOR TELLS PLANS FOR GREATER CHICAGO

brought more than 900,000 people to the city. These visitors liked our people and they liked our police. Every one was thoughtful of them and they'd like to come back."

Prospects for a settlement of the traction problem are good, the mayor believes, "for now all of the interests are talking as a unified body."

Pledges Fair Traction Pact.

"Whatever is proposed finally, I won't be for anything that is unreasonable," he said. "And one thing I will be for is pensions for the employés."

The mayor may go to Springfield later this month to talk to the legislature about his $100,000,000 superhighway plan—which may include elevated highways—and the relief problem. Action to continue or reduce the state's monthly relief contribution of $3,900,000 must be taken before May 1.

Kelly hopes no reduction will be made.

The mayor does not plan to make any changes in his cabinet with the possible exception of the department of health, of which Dr. Robert A. Black is now acting president.

"I used my friendship with Dr. Black to get him to fill in," the mayor said, "and he did it at a great personal sacrifice. He may feel he cannot continue to make that sacrifice

Praises Cabinet Members.

"But where could you get better men than Commissioner of Public Works Hewitt, Controler Upham, Commissioner of Police Allman, Fire Marshal Corrigan, or Corporation Counsel Hodes? I want all of them to stay, if they will."

Removal of the tracks from the Chicago airport—now bisected by the Chicago and Western Indiana railroad—is progressing rapidly through condemnation proceedings, the mayor said, and he feels that this problem soon will be settled.

"We have a great park system and we're going to develop it further," he continued. "The Municipal Tuberculosis sanitarium has a smaller waiting list than it ever has had. One thing we need is more libraries and more books; we need them for the kids.

Sees Better Times Ahead.

"Chicago set the pace for the entire country when it ran the world's fair a second year. The whole country was in a slump but we started it coming back. We can do that again.

"The foundations that have been laid for the progress of our neighborhoods, the stimulation of our enterprises, and the rounding out of our social advancement are on solid ground.

"The structure of Chicago's civic life for today and tomorrow will be built with the same faith and devotion that is bringing this daring young city closer to its destiny as the first city of America. I think we're in for better times."

DRYS BEATEN IN MOST LOCAL OPTION TESTS TO BAR LIQUOR SALES

Drys lost most of their local option contests to bar the sale of liquor yesterday.

Their greatest setback was in the 5th ward, where they lost 1,329 to 1,468 in the territory embracing the 4th, 5th, 6th, 22d, 23d, 89th, and 116th precincts and part of the 7th. In the same ward the drys lost 434 to 485 in the 33d and 40th precincts and parts of the 32d and 118th.

The drys won 193 to 89 in part of the 22d precinct of the 6th ward. In the 37th ward they won the 12th precinct, 239 to 139, but lost in an area composed of part of the 21st, 22d, and 82d precincts by a vote of 223 to 248. They also lost in another area composed of part of the 22d and 82d precincts by 212 to 256. Precincts were divided in the voting because the law required local option petitions to be filed in accordance with the precinct boundaries of 1932.

CONNORS LEADS IN EAST ST. LOUIS EARLY RETURNS

East St. Louis, Ill., April 4.—(AP)—Unofficial returns from 65 of 86 precincts in today's nonpartisan mayoral election gave John T. Connors, finance commissioner, 14,625 votes to 11,716 for John M. Karns, St. Clair county public administrator. Connors is backed by Daniel McGlynn, county Republican leader, and Karns by John J. Hallihan, Democratic leader and director of registration and education for Gov. Henry Horner.

Danville Renames Meyer.

Danville, Ill., April 4.—Mayor F. P. Meyer of Danville was reëlected, defeating John L. Supple. Two commissioners, George Freeman and Frank Coburn, were reëlected. John Lavezzi and Elmer Brown won the two other commissionerships.

MICHIGAN G. O. P. HAILS VICTORY AS NEW VOTE TREND

Detroit, Mich., April 4.—(AP)—Republican leaders, hailing a broad victory in Michigan's spring election, surveyed tonight the possibility the vote trend it revealed might lift the state out of its "doubtful" classification.

G. O. P. majorities in yesterday's races for minor state offices mounted close to the 125,000 mark in an indicated total vote of slightly under 700,000.

Dr. Eugene B. Elliott, reëlected state superintendent of public instruction, received close to 60 per cent of the total vote. In the spring election two years ago, Elliott won the office with less than 51 per cent of the total.

Gov. Luren D. Dickinson, who last week asked the voters to elect Republicans as a means of expressing confidence in his administration, termed the result very satisfactory.

ILLINOIS G. O. P. MOVES TO FILL HARDING'S POST

The Republican state committee will meet in a few weeks to consider the nomination of a successor to the late George F. Harding as Republican national committeeman, it was announced yesterday by A. K. Stiles, state chairman.

Mr. Stiles said there has been no mention of names among the state committeemen, and that so far serious consideration has not been given any one. The committee, under the rules of the national committee, nominates a candidate for a vacant place, and the national committee confirms or rejects the nomination.

Several were reported yesterday among the politicians as being more or less active candidates for the succession. Among them were Frank L. Smith of Dwight, former national committeeman; Justus L. Johnson of Aurora, former state chairman; Hill Blackett, Omer Custer of Galesburg, former state treasurer, and C. Wayland Brooks, nominee for governor in 1936. C. B. Goodspeed, treasurer of the national committee, told his friends he would not seek the place. So did Gen. Charles G. Dawes, former vice president.

COMEDIAN BENNY IS FINED $10,000 FOR SMUGGLING

Year and a Day Prison Sentence Suspended.

New York, April 4.—(AP)—With a murmured apology—"I am ashamed"—Jack Benny, the usually suave and irrepressible comedian, pleaded guilty today to a technical charge of jewel smuggling, and was fined $10,000 and put on probation under a suspended sentence of a year and a day.

Jack Benny.

Specifically, he admitted through counsel, that in his behalf Albert N. Chaperau, a pseudo-diplomat of shadowy background, had surreptitiously brought into the United States from France two diamond studded gold clips and a diamond studded gold bracelet worth altogether about $2,131. Duty on the jewelry, which was intended as a gift for Benny's wife and radio partner, Mary Livingstone, would have been about $700.

Denounced by Court.

As he stood uncertainly before the bench—smoothing his gray hair, fingering his wine-colored necktie—to ask the mercy of the court, he was substantially exonerated by Federal Judge Vincent Leibell of real criminal intent, but was denounced coldly and impersonally, nevertheless.

"Sometimes," Judge Leibell told the actor, "men who are prominent in pictures and radio are just easy marks for smart people. But you should have been smart enough not to fall in with such a plan.

"You have undoubtedly made a fortune and shouldn't have fallen in with a scheme to defraud the United States government and the country in which you acquired your prominence and your wealth.

"It was small stuff.

Blame Put on Chaperau.

"If I thought you really planned to do so and it was your suggestion, I would take a different view of the case." [Benny's counsel had said that it was Chaperau who had suggested that he could bring in the jewelry duty free as a nonresident supposedly carrying personal effects.]

"Every shrewd person seeks out those who are prominent and you are in a position today you perhaps thought you would never occupy. It is a bitter end to a stupid play."

After a moment the judge added: "You must feel very much ashamed of yourself standing here today. It is a very poor return from you to your government and to the people who have made so much of you."

Then Benny lowered his eyes and responded: "I am ashamed."

Under the order of the court he must report biweekly to the federal probation officer in the Los Angeles district.

Smuggler Awaits Sentence.

Chaperau, his codefendant, has pleaded guilty and awaits sentence. He has been pictured by the government as having made a business of slipping foreign articles past the customs in behalf of prominent acquaintances.

Two of these acquaintances—George Burns of the radio teams of Burns and Gracie Allen and Mrs. Elma N. Lauer, wife of a state Supreme court justice—likewise have pleaded guilty. Burns received a suspended sentence and was fined $8,000; Mrs. Lauer has not been sentenced.

After he left the courtroom Benny said that in dealing with Chaperau he had understood there was to be a legitimate saving in the amount of duty which would have to be paid.

"I regret most deeply," he said, "that through a stupid mistake on my part I have offended against the laws of the United States. I claim no credit for never having violated any laws before; I am appreciative of my opportunities and privileges as an American citizen."

Rosa Weber, the pro-Nazi housemaid who tipped the government off to the smuggling plot because she didn't like the way her employers talked about Adolf Hitler, will get $3,500 of Benny's fine. She may easily get a total of $10,000 from the fines of Burns, Chaperau, and Mrs. Lauer, who was her employer.

CITY HALL BESIEGED BY 19,000 OFFICIALS WITH VOTE RETURNS

Streets around the city hall were jammed with hurrying men and women at 7 o'clock last night. Almost 19,000 judges and clerks had gathered to bring in election returns and equipment and to claim wages for their day's work at the polls.

The precinct officials were admitted to the building in groups of 100 by the 150 policemen assigned to maintain order. Within an hour and a half most of the workers had been paid and had departed.

HUNDREDS LOSE CLOTHES IN $25,000 FIRE AT CLEANERS

Fire in a Highwood cleaning establishment yesterday ruined about $25,000 worth of Easter standbys which had just been cleaned and were about to be sent out to their owners. The blaze was in the Ermine Cleaners, Inc., 445 Waukegan avenue, in the suburb. It broke out suddenly and from an unknown cause in the shipping room. Fireproof walls kept it from spreading to the cleaning room and to the garage. Several hundred garments were destroyed, most of them men's suits. Otto Fisher, owner, and 52 employés were in the place at the time. The fire was first observed in some 500 suit bags hanging from a rack. The shop is next door to the police and fire building.

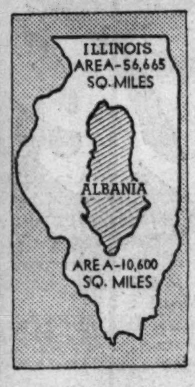
ITALY MOBILIZES TROOPS TO FIGHT 'ENCIRCLEMENT'

Rome Strengthens War Pact with Albania.

ROME, April 4.—(AP)—Military and diplomatic moves to guard Italy's maritime back door were under way tonight. They were explained by Fascists as a precaution against alleged French-British attempts to "encircle" Italy and Germany.



Size of Albania [shaded portion] and Illinois compared.

Italians concentrated attention on the Adriatic sea and the eastern Mediterranean—of vital interest to Italy in time of trouble—with these developments:

1. The Italian government radio station at Bari announced negotiations were being conducted to strengthen Albania's military alliance with Italy. This pact already requires each country to place all its military, financial and other resources at the disposal of the other in case either ally is menaced with war.

Reports Revolt Against King.

2. Diplomatic circles heard privately that Premier Mussolini had explained to Britain that some Italian troops had been sent to Albania to quell a movement against King Zog. This movement was said to have been suppressed.

3. Authoritative sources confirmed reports of Italian troop concentrations around Brindisi, on the Adriatic coast opposite Albania. They said the troops were intended to reinforce Italian garrisons in the Dodecanese Islands, facing Turkey, and perhaps in Libya, African colony, during the present tension in Europe.

Regiment Goes to Rhodes.

Fascists said one regiment already had gone to Rhodes, in the Dodecanese group.

The report of Italian troop movements to Albania lacked confirmation in official circles, but some usually well informed Italians considered that it might be true.

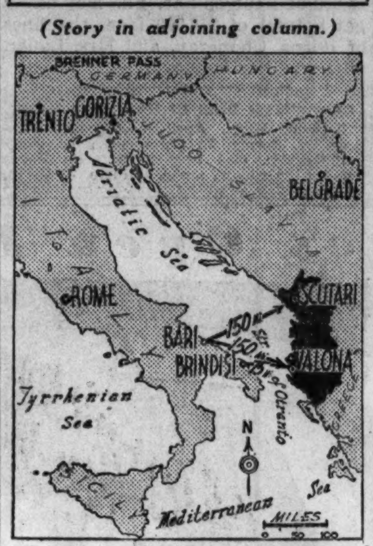
They indicated that an Italian guardianship over Albania was desirable because Zog was reported to be in ill health from malaria and to have political enemies in Albania who might try to unseat him at any time.

Diplomats, meanwhile, thought Italian troops might be sent to Albania in case Jugo-Slavia, to the north of that country and across the Adriatic from Italy, showed a tendency to join attempts to "encircle" the Rome-Berlin powers. They heard reports that 20,000 or more troops were at Bari and Brindisi, across the Strait of Otranto from Albania, with troopships standing by.

Negotiations with Albania were considered by Italians as not violating the 1938 British-Italian agreement for maintenance of the present status in the Mediterranean, since Albania already is a virtual protectorate of Italy.

Italian Troops Move

(Story in adjoining column.)



Italy yesterday concentrated troops at Brindisi on the Adriatic coast opposite Albania, which is indicated in black. Diplomatic circles heard Italy already had sent troops to Albania to quell a movement against King Zog. A government radio station at Bari said Italy and Albania were strengthening their military alliance.

BUSTER DARLING, DOG CATCHER, IS NOW ON COUNCIL

Springfield, Ill., April 4.—[Special.]—Percy [Buster] Darling, who was fired as Springfield's dog catcher because he gave stray dogs to kids, was elected to the city council in the city election here today. Campaigning as "the kid's candidate," Darling ran fourth among the eight candidates, of whom four were elected.

In recent years Darling has held such jobs as policeman, bouncer in a night club, poolroom attendant, and dog catcher. His new job will pay him $5,200 a year. Habitually wearing a striped sweater, Darling campaigned from back door to back door, promising that if elected city commissioner he would "clean up the alleys" if he had to do it himself.

Mayor John W. Kapp of Springfield was reëlected for a third term in today's election over Paul L. Weidenbacher, present Sangamon county recorder. The vote was: Kapp, 19,662; Weidenbacher, 15,951.

LEBRUN ASSURED OF RE-ELECTION TO PRESIDENCY

PARIS, April 4.—(AP)—Premier Daladier tonight whipped parliament into line and virtually assured the reëlection of President Albert Lebrun tomorrow.

BRITISH, POLISH TALKS TO DECIDE NAZIS' NEXT STEP

Say Poland Can't Survive as Ally of England.

BY SIGRID SCHULTZ.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, April 4.—All eyes of official Germany today were turned toward London. The Nazis were awaiting the outcome of the conversations between Poland's foreign minister, Col. Josef Beck, and the British government. Then the Nazis will decide on their next step.

Though the Nazis insist that all reports about possible German action against Poland are unfounded, it is declared that if Poland "signs an agreement with England she makes herself a satellite of Great Britain and partner in the encirclement of Germany and therefore need not expect to survive.

"Reichsfuehrer Hitler made it very clear in his speech after the launching of the battleship Admiral Von Tirpitz on Saturday that he would not stand for encirclement of any kind."

Want Highway in Corridor.

Official Nazi circles are more cautious. They emphasize that there is no need to fear war. They intimate there still remains a possibility for a compromise between Germany and Poland which would give Germany the west to east autombile road it wants carved through the Polish corridor to Danzig.

The same circles which for two years asserted the British have given Germany a free hand in eastern and southeastern Europe wink when they speak of Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain's "anti-Nazi policy."

They say the British premier thundered to quiet British public opinion which was aroused by Hitler's sudden conquest of non-German lands, but that in reality he is willing to let Hitler do as he pleases on the European continent.

The explanation the Nazis offer for this alleged secret understanding between them and Chamberlain is that "Chamberlain and his group are Fascists at heart and they fear that if they risk a war, their rich class will be swept aside and lose its upper hand."

Cite "Clumsy" Diplomacy.

The Nazi groups which believe this to be true see a confirmation of the view in the extraordinary clumsiness displayed by London in the handling of the negotiations with Rumania and to a certain extent with Poland and other small states.

By shouting so loudly that they were ready to protect Rumania and other European states from German aggression, Downing street aroused the resentment of these countries.

"The English are trying to compel the small European states to come out and openly defy Germany by joining the encirclement ring. If the English really meant to do practical work about helping safeguard our independence they would not shout so much about it but do concrete work and devise practical schemes to free us from the necessity of trading on a big scale with Germany," is the opinion expressed by almost all politicians and diplomats of smaller European states in Berlin at present.

Invited to Birthday Party.

Nazi Germany is showering the Scandinavian countries and southeastern Europe, as well as the Irish, French, Dutch, Swiss, and Belgians who are suspected of being susceptible to Nazi propaganda, with invitations to attend the ceremonies in honor of Hitler's fiftieth birthday on April 20.

His birthday ceremony will be the biggest celebration of its kind ever held in Germany. The statesmen of the small European nations are given to understand that if they send big delegations to Berlin for Hitler's birthday "Germany will know that they have not been lured into the British encirclement ring."

GERMAN PUBLIC DEBT RISES $4,000,000,000 IN ONE YEAR'S TIME

BERLIN, April 4.—(AP)—An increase of nearly $4,000,000,000 in the German public debt during one year was disclosed today in official statistics. The figures put the reich's total indebtedness at $11,243,920,000 at the end of January, 1939.

The figures also showed that the government owes German creditors $9,400,000,000. The balance—$1,843,920,000—comprises foreign debts. These include the Young and Dawes reparations loans, and accumulated funds deposited with the Reichsbank of those amounts which have fallen due, but which could not be transferred because of the lack of foreign exchange.

Guided by Adolf Hitler's dictum, "export or die," the government will set aside up to $200,000,000 in its 1939 budget for "promotion of German foreign trade."

Lindbergh Flies Channel from France to England

TURKS ASK PART OF SYRIA; FRENCH SEND A WARSHIP

Paris Gets Price of Aid in 'Stop Hitler' Drive.

PARIS, April 4.—(AP)—France to-ight disclosed she was reënforcing er defenses in the Sanjak [district] f Alexandretta, Syra, after Turkey nformed her of a desire to annex the 0,000 square mile area "as quickly s possible."

Officials said that "as a precaution-ry measure" France would send a ruiser to Alexandretta harbor, stra-egically situated in the eastern Med-terranean, to reënforce the garrison which now is kept at 1,500 men.

The disclosure followed assurances y the Turkish ambassador that Tur-key would not seize the Sanjak by orce.

Call Problem Delicate.

French sources described the prob-em as "delicate." It was understood he Turks had suggested that France hould abandon the Sanjak to them n exchange for guarantees to allow rench and British warships to pass rough the Turkish controled Dar-anelles from the Mediterranean into he Black sea in event of war.

Alexandretta is a part of the league of nations Syrian mandate to France. By a French-Turkish friendship treaty of last July 4 an equal number of Turkish and French troops were to be stationed in the district.

French Withdraw Troops.

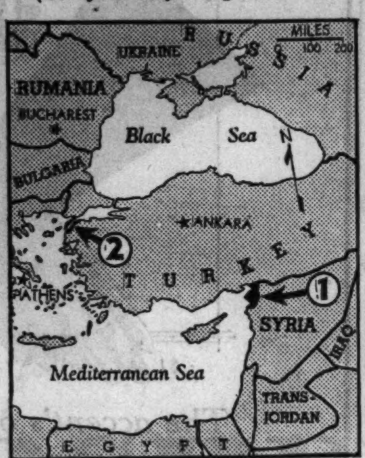
However, last October France withdrew almost all of her troops and the Sanjak was left almost exclusively in the hands of Turkish officials and Turkish troops.

Today Turkey was reported demanding annexation of Alexandretta as the price for supporting the British and French-led "stop Hitler" bloc, and one report, published in the conservative newspaper Le Figaro, said a Turkish army of 60,000 already was at the Alexandretta frontier.

Such guarantees as Turkey was reported tonight to be offering would give Britain and France a potential lever to bring Rumania openly into the "stop Hitler" camp.

French-Turkish Deal?

(Story in adjoining column.)



Turkey yesterday was reported to have told France that for the right to occupy the district of Alexandretta (1) in Syria it would guarantee French and British warships passage through the strategic Dardanelles (2), which Turkey controls, in case of war.

Polish City Finds Nazi Boys Create Anti-Nazi 'Incidents'

CHORZOW, Poland, April 4.—(AP)—Police today declared they had got to the bottom of one of Poland's so-called anti-German incidents—the smashing of windows in a German high school for boys. The officers said they found several of the students themselves were responsible and that the boys told them the window smashing was suggested to them by a German resident.

HUNGARY HEEDS HITLER; SHIES AT BRITISH ALLIANCE

Fears She Would Be First to 'Burn Fingers.'

BY ALEX SMALL.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BUDAPEST, Hungary, April 4.—Hungary will refuse to be included in any "Stop Hitler" pact which the British may be engineering in accord with what the Hungarians call "Britain's age old policy of keeping continental Europe in chaos." The Hungarian ideal, THE TRIBUNE correspondent was informed today on the highest authority, is to remain neutral in any coming conflict.

The unwillingness to join the British is dictated by Hungary's geographical position. One passage in Reichsfuehrer Hitler's speech at the launching of the battleship Admiral Van Tirpitz in Wilhelmshaven last Saturday made a deep impression on the Hungarians. In that passage Hitler warned that small powers who undertake to pull British chestnuts out of the fire will burn their fingers.

Nazis in Dominating Position.

To Hungarians it is only too apparent that they would be the first to have their fingers burned. The Germans, with their protectorate over Slovakia, now command all the dominating mountain positions to the west and north of Hungary, and they can come pouring down into the open Hungarian plain.

Nothing which the new combination of western allies has done for Hungary or is likely to do for it disposes the Hungarians to make any sacrifice for them. On the contrary, the Hungarians realize that Hitler is responsible for them having recovered part of the territories which they lost as a consequence of the world war.

At the same time, the Hungarians foresee a day when they will be asked to put their agricultural resources entirely at the disposal of Germany and when Germany will want to use Hungary as a highway toward Rumania. In other words, they see themselves being proclaimed a protectorate, just as happened to Bohemia and Moravia.

Says Hungary Will Resist.

That is a fate, which THE TRIBUNE correspondent has been told by the highest official circles, the Hungarians are prepared to resist. They say they have no more desire to be victims of Germany's will to expansion than of Britain's will to keep the continent perpetually subservient to London.

Anxiety is growing acute here because of fear that Germany's next move will be toward Rumania—which means through Hungary. The Hungarians reason that Poland has little to offer the new German empire, except the industrial section of Silesia which adjoins Germany and which the Germans probably would seize in the first hours of a war. Otherwise, the broad sandy plain of Poland, not even rich in agricultural produce, has little to tempt a conqueror or make him want to risk a major military operation.

On the other hand, war—or even the approach of war—will make Rumania an indispensable acquisition for Germany. Its oil, grain, and metals will bring Germany as close to self-sufficiency as the Germans can hope to be. It will give them the possibility of defying any blockade and carrying on war for years—perhaps even until their enemies are tired out.

Hope to Remain Free.

On the way to Rumania, the Hungarians fear, the Germans will take Hungary's big surplus of grain. They already have the produce of former Czecho-Slovakia, including the forests.

The Hungarians' fear of Germany and their determination to resist imply not the slightest sympathy for the encircling coalition being formed in London. Instead, Hungarians say that they wish to coöperate with the Germans and even to help them. They hope the price for doing so will not be too high and that Germany will not attack their independence.

For the British and French only bitter words are heard in Hungary. The two big powers are accused of hypocrisy, of a ruthless will to domination and of a senile incapacity to comprehend new ideas.

The United States, which ordinarily is regarded in friendly fashion in Hungary, is coming in today for the same condemnation. In Budapest it is taken for granted that America will join in the "Jewish war" against Hitler and "a rational organization of the Danube basin."

Under Guard

DOROTHY LAMOUR.

New York, April 4.—[Special.]—Police revealed today that a twenty-four hour bodyguard has been assigned to Dorothy Lamour, screen actress now appearing in person at a movie theater here, because she received a threatening letter last night. The letter demanded $250 on pain of death and contained instructions as to where the money was to be paid. The letter was turned over to the crime laboratory for examination and two patrolmen were assigned to guard the actress.

BOY OF 3 RULES IRAQ; MOB KILLS BRITISH CONSUL

Thousands Mourn Death of King Ghazi.

BAGDAD, Iraq, April 4.—(AP)—A 3-year-old boy today became the king of Iraq and the youngest monarch in the world with the death of his father, King Ghazi I. of Iraq, in an automobile accident. Ghazi was 27 years old.

The succession was announced by the council of ministers as thousands of Arabs gathered before the royal Palace of Flowers and beat their breasts in mourning for the sportsman-monarch, who crashed his automobile into an electric light pole.

An estimated 50,000 mourners filed past King Ghazi's coffin in the royal court during the four hours it was on view to the public. The funeral is to be conducted tomorrow.

British Consul Slain.

During the frenzied mourning at Mosul, on the river Tigris 200 miles northwest of Bagdad, G. E. A. C. Monck-Mason, British consul, was killed by a mob which rushed on the consulate and burned it.

Monck-Mason was stoned to death when he attempted to pacify a mob which gathered outside the consulate under the delusion that the British were responsible for the king's death.

Military officials, rounding up leaders of the mob, blamed the crime on "riffraff" and said it was without political significance. Martial law was declared.

Provisional Regent Named.

The council of ministers appealed to "Almighty God" to preserve "his majesty, King Feisal the second," who will be 4 years old on May 2. He was named for his grandfather, "Feisal the Fearless," first king of Iraq. The council appointed the baby's uncle, Emir Abdul Ilah, provisional regent, which the widowed queen, Aliyah, said was according to Ghazi's wishes. The chamber of deputies on April 6 will elect a five-man regency council.

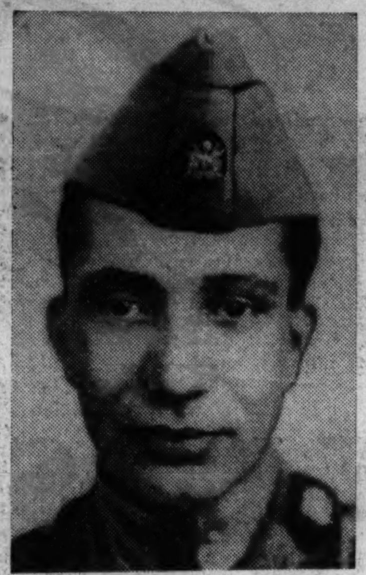
King Killed in Crash



King Ghazi of Iraq, who died yesterday in auto accident.

Lean and slightly built, Ghazi was passionately fond of motoring and flying. He drove racing cars on British speedways when he was 16 and too young to obtain a private driving license.

Mounted Throne in 1933.

Ghazi's reign began on Sept. 9, 1933, when his father died of heart disease at Berne, Switzerland. Ghazi married his cousin, daughter of the late King Ali of Hejaz, ten days later.

Ghazi never knew the man who helped make his father king — the famous British agent, Col. T. E. Lawrence [Lawrence of Arabia]—but he was an ardent admirer and died in fashion similar to that which killed his hero. Lawrence died after a motorcycle accident in an English country lane.

After the world war, when Iraq was freed from the Turks, Britain was given a mandate over Iraq. In 1927 Britain and Iraq signed a treaty recognizing Iraq's independence and in 1932 Iraq was admitted to the league of nations. Iraq controls the pipe line through which Britain receives much of her vital oil supply.

HOLLAND PLANS MORE WARSHIPS AS BAR TO JAPS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

THE HAGUE, the Netherlands, April 4.—The growing encirclement of European colonial possessions in the far east by Japan is causing much anxiety in the Netherlands. Plans have been worked out by the Dutch naval department to build four battleships of 26,000 tons each for defense of Netherlands India [the Dutch East Indies]. The new ships, in coöperation with the strong bomber squadrons and submarines, will be sufficient to protect the islands, naval experts say.

USE OIL LAMPS IN CAPITOL 1ST TIME IN YEARS

Washington, D. C., April 4.—[Special.]—The capitol building was lighted by oil lamps today, for the first time in over 50 years.

For half an hour the electric power supply failed. Representatives and senators were forced to climb stairs because the elevators were halted. They made their way through corridors lighted by old oil lamps that had been in disuse for many years.

Several hundred tourists were escorted through the building during the power failure. Many of the tourists expressed surprise that the capitol was lighted in the old fashioned way until guides explained the situation.

Announce Birth of Son to King Zog of Albania

LONDON, April 5 [Wednesday].—(AP)—A Reuters [British news agency] dispatch from Tirana said today the birth of a son to King Zog of Albania had been announced. King Zog and Queen Geraldine were married last April 21. Queen Geraldine's mother is the former countess, Mrs. Gladys Stewart Girault, an American now living in France.

Slovakia Signs Protocol Ceding Land to Hungary

BUDAPEST, Hungary, April 4.—(AP)—Hungary and Slovakia signed a protocol today fixing their new frontier. Hungary gets title to most of the Slovak territory which Hungarian troops occupied in frontier warfare between March 23 and 25 and some additional areas for a total of about 386 square miles.

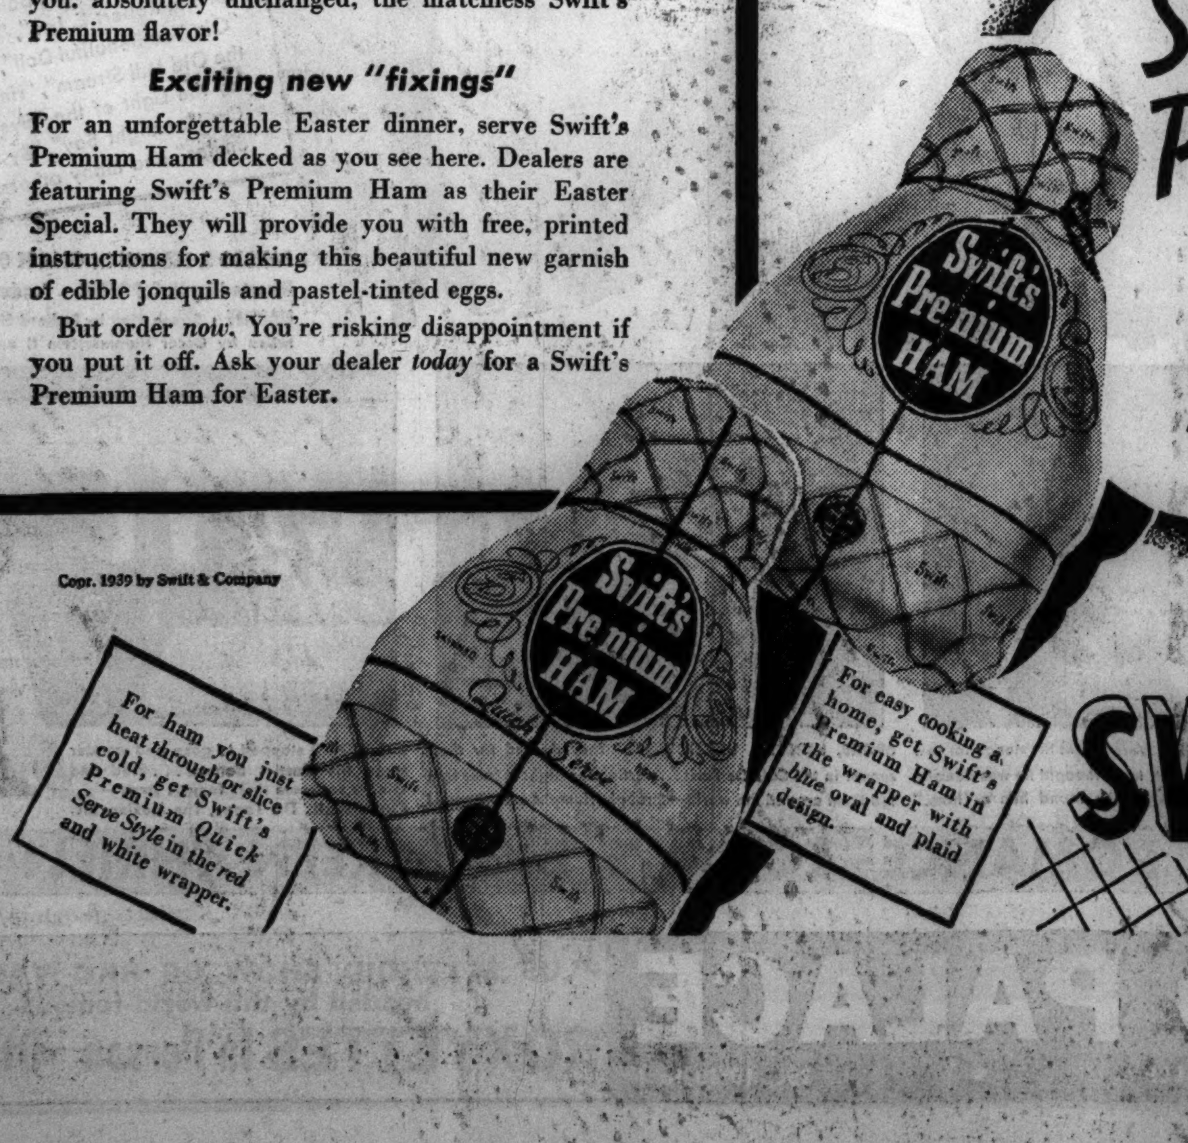
SWIFT'S PREMIUM HAM 2 WAYS!



For ham you just heat through or slice cold, get Swift's Premium Quick Serve Style in the red and white wrapper.

Clip these easy instructions for baking Swift's Premium Ham

Have ham at room temperature. (It's a good idea then to wrap it in glassine or heavy paper for cooking.) Bake, fat side up in open pan, in moderate (325° F.) oven—about 15 min. per lb. for hams weighing 12 lbs. or more; 18 min. for smaller hams; 22 min. for half hams. (Note how much shorter the cooking times are with this newly tender Swift's Premium Ham!) Remove skin, glaze surface, and brown as usual.

How to make the jonquils?

How to tint the edible eggs? Just ask your meat dealer! He has free, printed sheets with the easy instructions. (The jonquils are edible, too!)

DOUGLAS VOTED SENATE O. K. FOR SUPREME COURT

Confirmation Follows Attack by Frazier.

BY CHESLY MANLY.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 4.—[Special.]—The senate today confirmed the appointment of William O. Douglas, chairman of the Securities and Exchange commission, as an associate justice of the United States Supreme court. The vote was 62 to 4.

William O. Douglas.

Douglas, who is 40 years old, will take the place on the Supreme bench recently vacated by the retirement of Justice Louis D. Brandeis. He cannot do so, however, until April 17, when the court will reconvene after a two week recess.

Two Day Attack by Frazier.

The senate voted after hearing a two day attack on the young New Deal administrator and former Yale university law professor by Senator Lynn J. Frazier, radical Republican of North Dakota. Voting against confirmation were Frazier, his colleague, Senator Gerald P. Nye, another radical Republican; Senator Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. [R., Mass.], and Senator Clyde M. Reed [R., Kas.].

In his speech today Senator Frazier referred to articles in THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE concerning an SEC whitewash of L. A. Pettit, the assistant director of its public utilities division, after a hearing on charges of collusion with Victor Emanuel, chairman of the board of the Standard Gas and Electric corporation. Emanuel, who contributed $8,500 to President Roosevelt's campaign fund in 1932, obtained his chairmanship of the utility company through the influence of the SEC.

Four subordinates of Pettit made the charges against him, and after the SEC dropped the case two of them resigned and two were transferred.

Emanuel Sponsors Pettit.

The hearing disclosed also that Emanuel had sponsored Pettit for the SEC job.

"Of course, they would go to the public utilities to get a good man for the utility division, and Mr. Emanuel was kind enough to recommend his friend Pettit for the job," said Senator Frazier. "And Mr. Pettit apparently has made good for Mr. Emanuel. Mr. Emanuel, of course, deserved to be able to name the appointee, because he had contributed the paltry sum of $8,500 to Roosevelt's campaign in 1932. Yes, they want some more money for the campaign next year, and they are laying the foundations to get it."

Senator George W. Norris [Radical, Neb.] asked Frazier whether he had any other evidence to corroborate the statements in THE TRIBUNE articles. Frazier said he had not had time to investigate the matter, but it appeared on March 18 and had not been contradicted.

No Contradiction of Story.

"A charge made by THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE would not be even prima facie evidence of its truth," Norris said.

"In my opinion, the statement would not stand for that length of time unless there was more truth than fiction to it," Frazier replied.

The senate also confirmed today the nomination of Dean Wiley B. Rutledge of the University of Iowa law school to be an associate justice of the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia.

SENATE PASSES BILL TO TAX ALL PUBLIC SALARIES

Removes Federal and State Immunities.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 4.—[Special.]—Without a record vote, the senate today passed an administration measure subjecting the salaries of all federal officers and employés to state income taxes and the salaries of state and municipal officers and employés to federal income taxes.

The bill abolishes reciprocal intergovernmental tax immunity with respect to salaries in conformity with the Supreme court's momentous opinion in the O'Keefe case eight days ago.

A similar bill was passed by the house before the Supreme court decision. Both bills will be sent to conference.

Senator Pat Harrison [D., Miss.], chairman of the finance committee, told the senate that the house ways and means committee had agreed to consider, at an early date, legislation to remove the reciprocal tax immunity of income from federal, state, and municipal securities. On this understanding Senator Bennett C. Clark [D., Mo.] withheld an amendment to permit states to tax the income from federal bonds, and vice versa.

Security Issue Not Decided.

The Supreme court did not pass upon the right of the federal and state governments to tax income from each other's bonds, but many senators believe the principle is the same as in the case of salaries.

The bill passed today is necessary to prevent attempts to collect retroactive taxes on government salaries as a result of the Supreme court's opinion. It permits reciprocal taxation on all salaries received after Dec. 31, 1938.

An amendment by Senator Prentiss M. Brown [D., Mich.], manager of the bill, will subject the salaries of all federal judges to state as well as federal income taxes. A 1932 statute levied federal income taxes on the salaries of judges thereafter appointed. The constitution provides that the salaries of federal judges may not be diminished [or increased] during their continuance in office and the Supreme court held, in the case of Evans vs. Gore, 1919, that this prohibited the collection of income taxes on judge's salaries.

Amendment Is Accepted.

Senator Brown argued that the provision to tax the salaries of judges appointed prior to 1932, as well as those appointed since that time, would force the court to reëxamine its ruling in Evans vs. Gore. Senator Tom Connally [D., Tex.] said he did not agree with the Evans vs. Gore opinion and at his suggestion, Senator Brown accepted an amendment to permit state as well as the federal government to tax federal judges' salaries without regard to the time of their appointment.

500 JOIN REVOLT AGAINST INDIANA INCOME TAX LAW

Retailers to Defy Levy on Gross Receipts.

Lafayette, Ind., April 4.—[Special.]—Five hundred retail food dealers voted unanimously here today to join the growing revolt against the Indiana gross income tax law. They charged it is working the greatest hardship on business men ever imposed by taxation.

The action was taken at the closing session of the annual convention of the Indiana Retail Grocers and Meat Dealers' association. The three day meeting was held at Purdue university.

A general strike of Indiana grocers against collection of the tax was advocated by some delegates. This drastic move was not approved by the convention, supposedly because the legislative relief sought by such a demonstration could not be obtained until the state legislature meets two years hence.

Prepare to Finance Defense.

Instead, the delegates decided to turn their concerted efforts to defending any member of the association who becomes involved under the law and to undertake to raise a defense fund for that purpose.

Lewis Schmidt of Logansport, president of the association, was authorized to appoint a committee to confer with similar committees from any local association or group of members who have trouble over nonpayment of the gross income tax.

No other state has anything like the gross income tax law in effect here. The measure, passed by the McNutt-McHale-Townsend Democratic machine in the hey-day of its power, has been described by its opponents as "a club to beat the little business man to death."

The law provides that a 1 per cent tax must be paid on gross income of all individuals and firms. Every transaction is thus penalized. The retailer's exemption is only $3,000 on his annual intake. Many merchants have complained that they are pelled to pay a tax on doing busi at a loss.

Hardships Without Precedenc

It was brought out in the con tion discussion of the tax that average grocer makes about 3 cent on his investment. The 1 cent gross income tax would him to pay to the state one-thir his earnings.

South Bend's delegation to the vention led the rebellion against law. In South Bend and Mishaw about 200 retail food dealers alr are in open revolt against paying tax.

WHAT THE MAP SHOWS.

The products of the factory, farm and mine are worthless without transportation. The farmer's wheat, the miner's coal, the factory's washing machine, motor car, or household furniture, take on value only as they are transported toward the ultimate consumer. Civilization has always followed the trade routes. Great cities have arisen, thrived, and then vanished from the earth as the routes were originated, developed, and later changed to other localities.

The around the world trade route first passed between the Atlantic and the Pacific by way of Cape Horn. Then the trans-continental railways diverted it across the United States. Construction of the Panama canal is rapidly changing it again to the detriment of the great middle west. The Panama canal route is blighting industry, agriculture, and commerce in the heart of the country. That this is not an unsupported statement will be easily realized by a study of the map of the United States shown at the upper right hand corner of this page. No X-ray picture has ever shown the seat of a malady with greater clarity than does this map. It indicates that most of those railways which have gone broke or are in various stages of financial difficulty are located in the middle west, the very heart of the nation.

During the past fifty years our laws relating to transportation have passed from simple regulation of what in the beginning was a railroad monopoly to virtual governmental management and operation of railroads which are no longer monopolistic, as well as management and control of their competitors. This evolution is largely responsible for the state of affairs indicated on this map. The next step toward complete collapse of transportation agencies will be government ownership. We have a number of socialistic-minded men in the senate, who are ardent advocates of government ownership. One of them, Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana, jointly with Senator Harry S. Truman of Missouri, has drafted a bill which will do to the other forms of transportation by water, highway, pipeline, and air what government regulation and government management and control have already done to the railroads. True, they say air transport will be regulated "only for rate making purposes," but that is all that is necessary to put the air lines out of business.

Regulation has always resulted in increased levels of freight rates, which the public first pays, then refuses to pay. Atrophy ensues. In a system of private enterprise competition—the life of trade—always curbs the tendency to increase transportation costs. As a result, volume of trafic increases and prosperity ensues. The Wheeler-Truman bill would reverse this process. It would eliminate competition by giving absolute control of trafic to the burocrats in Washington. It will increase freight charges of all transportation agencies, with a resulting reduction in the volume of trafic and a general stagnation of commerce and business all along the line.

Every voter in the middle west should keep in mind that Senator Wheeler and others who share his radical trend of thought were the most bitter opponents of the one bill which would have given this section some relief from its commercial land locked isolation. In Senator Wheeler's explanation of his bill he stated that he and Senator Truman had used the recommendations of the President's committee of six as a basis in drafting it. The committee recommended the repeal of the so-called long and short haul clause of the fourth section of the Interstate Commerce act. The Pettengill bill in the last session of congress would have carried out this recommendation. It is signficant that Senator Wheeler, who so vigorously opposed its passage, eliminated its provisions from his and Senator Truman's bill.

The Pettengill bill is now dormant. It should be vigorously pushed to passage by every senator and representative whose state is criss-crossed by the lines of defunct railways shown on this map. It would give those railways a fighting chance at some of the business now being handled by the subsidized coastwise vessels and would be of great help in restoring the general prosperity of the middle west.

THOUGHT UNDER THE DICTATORSHIPS.

A novelty in the tactics of conquest, and by conquest we mean not only the seizure of other countries but also the internal conquests of the revolutionary dictatorships, is the control of education. The dictatorships evidently realize that the conquered must be ruled in mind as well as body. The bolshevik régime took charge of education as soon as its physical rule was established and no youth has escaped from the intensive propaganda in Marxism and the exclusion of knowledge of any other philosophy or any facts inconsistent with it. Not only the bodies of the ruled were under iron discipline but also the minds. Under Italian Fascism the same tactics have been adopted and the Nazi régime has followed the same course.

Even in our republic we have a régime which has shown this tendency. Under the NRA it tried to get control of the press by indirection. It has the air under regulation. It has projects for the control of education through subsidies and grants. Under pretense of fostering art and literature it is propagandizing in its own behalf. These activities have to be masked. We are still a free people, but the drive for government control is there.

Meanwhile in China this policy has been practiced, though little note has been taken of it in our country, preoccupied as we are with physical violence under all dictatorships. But the Chinese patriots realize the importance of this aspect of the Japanese invasion. One of the first acts of the Japanese when they took Manchuria in 1931 was to commandeer the Northeastern university at Mukden and turn it into a barracks. When they captured Tientsin they destroyed Nankai university. When they reached Peking the staf and many of the students of Peking and Tientsin had moved on to Yunnan. Schools and colleges have been a special objective of the Japanese.

This strategy in all the autocracies is understandable. It looks to the future. All the tyrannies have been raising up a generation indoctrinated with their ideas and shut off from any ideas or information which would challenge their power. They are wisely not satisfied to rest their survival on force alone. They fear popular thinking and free discussion, for they know it will in due time bring them down. It is perhaps the greatest of their crimes. Yet it will not prevail in the long run. The human race has come up from the primeval because thought, while it may be perverted or suppressed, is an undying flame. Russia, Italy, Germany may and will suffer grievously from the suppression of free thought, but they will not forever tolerate it. It is indeed one of the encouraging facts of the Chinese ordeal that education is going on and growing in spite of the conditions created by the Japanese invasion. The invader can destroy the buildings which have housed the universities but cannot destroy the Chinese mind and its will to be free.

MORE TROUBLE IN COAL.

The threat of a protracted shut-down in the Appalachian coal fields invites attention to some aspects of the industry which have not received the attention they deserve.

The average price of mine run bituminous coal in 1938, as reported by the United States bureau of labor statistics, was the highest in more than ten years. The price being what it was, less bituminous coal was sold than in any year since 1933, and not very much less than in 1933. Omitting 1933 and 1932, coal production last year was the smallest in a period long antedating the world war. It illustrates what has been repeatedly shown, that advances in price are bound to reduce demand by encouraging economies in use and substitutions.

The high price of coal last year did not enrich the coal operators. It is estimated that they lost 100 million dollars on the year's operations. The high price of coal did not make the coal miners prosperous, because they had fewer days of work than in a number of years. The railroads did not profit, and the reduction in the carrying of coal is one important reason for their financial distress. In fact the only element associated with coal operations which had a good year in 1938 was John L. Lewis, who continued to milk the industry to promote his political and labor union ambitions.

The situation last year would no doubt have been much worse if the national bituminous coal commission had kept in effect the minimum prices which were put into effect in December, 1937. Stimulated by the action of courts which had enjoined the commission and by criticism on every hand, the coal commission on Feb. 25, 1938, suspended its orders. The commission has not abandoned its function, however, and is expected to announce new minimum prices for the various producing districts at any time.

Meanwhile, the agreement between the coal operators and the miners has expired, and in the eastern district operations have ceased. The demands of the miners and the impending action by the national coal commission make it seem likely that a further advance in coal prices is imminent. These will no doubt drive coal consumers to other fuels and encourage a wider use of insulation.

Price fixing of this kind has been repeatedly tried with results as disastrous as the coal industry has experienced. Raising prices, whether it is done by the government or by private agreements, is not successful. The thing seems easy, but the results turn out badly. The adverse experience with a long list of commodities, including tin, sugar, tea, rubber, camphor, wheat, and hogs, has no effect in restraining fresh recourse to price fixing by determined men.

Editorial of the Day

[Montana Record-Herald.]

"For men a light cap, one that will cover the ears, so as to serve as a nightcap, will be desirable. In cold weather a woolen cap is best. If there is a draft face it; do not let it strike the back. Have the bed made with the head toward the engine; the dust will then be driven toward the foot, where it will do the least harm. But be sure to have sufficient bedclothes to keep warm."

This is a paragraph from the current issue of a railroad man's periodical, and is a quotation from an old journal which gave advice to passengers in those early days in railroading which witnessed the first experiments in the sleeping car idea.

The admonition to sleeping car travelers in those days also advised women to wear "a soft, loose knit woolen hood. Every adult should take from five to ten grains of quinine on going to bed. It will be well to rub the feet and hands and neck with a little vaseline at the same time."

Progress in transportation in America has gone far from the crude beginnings of the idea of speed and comfort in travel. In the first phase of American rail travel, the stagecoach raced the trains, frequently with the steam engines a poor second best. In these days of fast air travel, when one may have breakfast in Chicago, lunch in New York, transact business and arrive in Washington in time for dinner, the picture of olden days as described in this magazine is of more than academic interest; it is a reminder of the advantages which we hold altogether too lightly, not only of jumping through space but also of vastly increased speed and greatly improved comfort.

The once hazardous venture, bravely undertaken by bold and hardy persons, has become today a nonchalant step in seven league boots, making fairy stories come true.

The latest hobby in England is collecting cigaret pictures, according to dispatches from London; adults are seeking to place the pastime on a level with philately. Here is an instance of the wheel turning full circle in the field of magpie psychology, for the same thing flourished in the United States in the late 1880s and early 1890s. Over here, however, the hobby was largely juvenile.

We remember our cigaret picture days vividly, because the little cards were a source of vast enjoyment and served in the playing of many games. Incidentally, they were educational, for we learned from them the names of the nations of the earth, the uniforms of their soldiers, the appearance of their rulers and statesmen. We also became familiar with baseball players, actresses, jockies, and other creatures of the realm of romance.

The cards served as currency among boys; they could be traded for marbles and other necessities. They were freely used in games that amounted to gambling, such as calling heads or tails when one or more were flipped into the air from a thumbnail and permitted to fall to the ground. Our own favorite use of the pictures, however, was a war game with the soldiers, played alone at home with Napoleon [ourself] in command of the winning army.

Cigaret pictures seem to have dropped out of the American tobacco industry. This news from London, however, coupled with the evidence of a hobby mania in the land, might put the cards back into the packages at almost any minute. In the meantime, we will suggest to British culture that the tin tags on plugs of chewing tobacco also have possibilities as minor objets de vertu.

When Yodeling Was in Vogue.

The tune "Ti-pi-tin" can still be heard on the radio, but I wonder how many amateur "tune detectives" recognize its long ancestry, under various rhythms. It appeared ten years ago in the song "I Want to Be Happy" in "No, No, Nanette." Long before that it brightened up Chabrier's "España." There is a whiff of it in Strauss' "Vienna Woods." But my first acquaintance with it was in the '80s in Emmet's yodel, "Up the Mountain High." Where Emmet derived his delightful yodels I don't know.

There appear to be at least two types of yodel, the Tyrolean and the stage American. I prefer the latter as Emmet glorified it. He took the mountain yodel and made opera of it, gave it sweetness and pathos, for he had the voice of a prima donna.

"Fritz" Emmet was a roly-poly Irishman, playing the character of a fat, taffy-haired, sweet-natured German lad, whose heavenly yodeling was mostly over children. His popularity was immense and he played to full houses entranced with his florid echoings. In person he was a pleasant, democratic fellow, and his dressing room was wide open to any one, actor or stagehand, who could tell a story or offer an interesting argument.

Apparently she does not mind these walls
That keep a lot of April gladness out,
Nor does she stop to hear the coaxing calls
Of jay and thrush between her words about Percentage, syntax, battles fought. Somehow,
The things she says get badly mixed inside
My head with wonder of a blooming bough
And beautiful, tall hills where high winds ride.

Yet I believe, in springs long past, she knew:
How soft grass is to lie and dream upon,
The way that willows spread their trembling hue
Above the creek; for in her eyes a dawn
Of childlike, momentary rapture played
When on her desk first violets were laid.

Old Horses to Sell? See Mr. Wrigley.

The city's plan to dispose of seven superannuated horses is causing concern in some quarters, out of pity for the poor beasts. A good way out of this difficulty would be to approach Mr. Wrigley of the Cubs. Thus not only would these deserving creatures be assured of green pastures, but also the city would show a large profit. Mr. Wrigley pays well for broken down horses.

There have been popular songs a-plenty about the harvest moon, but none about the Easter moon, an equally important astronomical event. Perhaps the full moon that follows the vernal equinox and fixes the date of the religious festival is not famous for its brightness; but there never was more brilliant moonlight than that of last Monday night. TRACKING HEADACHE TO ITS LAIR.

WHEN a patient exclaims, "My head is splitting," the physician knows that he is facing a poser in diagnosis. The search for the cause may be long and arduous. That there is a "starter" somewhere—perhaps in a remote region—cannot be doubted, and if improvement is to come it must be identified and routed.

There are many adults who can say truthfully that they have never had a pain in this region, but most of us have encountered this episode occasionally and, as a rule, we can trace the condition to loss of sleep, improper food [or the lack of nutriment], or to too close confinement within doors.

In an effort to locate the "trigger" area we may progress from simple to more complex factors, and toxins—poisons generated somewhere within the organism—may be found to be responsible. Such a situation may arise along the digestive tract or from infection within the sinuses, the tonsils, or about the teeth.

Not long ago a medical colleague related his personal experience. Nearly sixty years of age, he observed that he sometimes suffered from a rather intense headache which began early in the morning and continued throughout the day. At times they proved not only annoying but well nigh incapacitating. An examination disclosed nothing wrong with the teeth, the sinuses, the digestive, or the urinary tracts. However, a low grade, chronic tonsilitis was present and it was possible to express a drop of pus from the glands on either side of the throat. He had been advising his patients to have their tonsils removed under like circumstances and could scarcely avoid obedience to the command "Go thou and do likewise." Since extirpation of the pus-laden structures he has had no further difficulty. There was just enough absorption to upset the nervous balance, with resulting distress.

It should not be necessary to reemphasize the significance of eye strain. I am sure, however, that this is a common culprit. In fact, in the presence of the symptom, one of the procedures of prime importance is a careful check of the eyes. The typical neuralgialike manifestations are felt about the orbits, through the temples, or at the back of the head. Carefully fitted spectacles may relieve many a bout.

If the nasal passages and sinuses are involved the pain is generally evident upon arising. It may be gone by noon, when the victim will remark that he feels fine. If the throbbing is accentuated by bending over or jarring the spine—as when sitting down suddenly—we may with fair certainty blame the sinuses. Here adequate drainage will be effective.

We must not forget the form which comes with disturbances of the circulation. Desirous of appearing neat, many a man will wear a collar which is a half size, at least, too small. This leads to congestion and brings on discomfort which may increase as the day advances. One may possess a sense of well-being in the morning, but within an hour or two after arrival at the office the trouble starts.

High blood pressure should always be thought of as playing a vital rôle. All too often—because this type of individual is inclined to sleeplessness—he may be dismissed with the suggestion that all his complaints can be accounted for on a neurotic basis. A careful examination, however, will rule out a functional affair.

Those who are victims of a neurosis may describe indefinite twinges usually starting in the back of the neck, mounting to the crown. In many cases some quieting drug or mild sedative will supply the remedy. Because physicians are inclined to pay so little attention to this seemingly minor symptom the man or woman may journey from one medical man to another until some one conscientiously starts the long needed "third degree."

The one who is attacked habitually is unfair to himself if he relies upon aspirin or some "pain killer." It is far wiser to find the primary focus and remove it.

EVEN BLOOD OF "BLUE BLOODS" IS RED.

Mrs. L. writes: A friend and I have a bet. I claim that there is some part of the human body where the blood is blue. She says it is always red. Who is right?

REPLY.

The blood is red, even in royal families. The greater the amount of oxygen present, the brighter the hue. As the oxygen is used up, however, the shade changes to blue or bluish. Look at the veins on the back of your hand. The tone never assumes the color of the sky but increases in duskiness as the carbon dioxide mounts.

BUNIONS.

C. T. writes: I have had a bunion for a long time. It is very red and painful. How can I relieve the discomfort?

REPLY.

The present redness and pain are probably due to accompanying infection. Hot packs, elevation of the leg, and rest are suggested. The chief cause of bunions is ill fitting footgear. As soon as the infection has been removed attempts should be made to remedy the condition and surgery may be indicated in well developed cases.

NOT IF UNINFECTED.

Miss A. J. writes: Can any harm result from covering pimples with cosmetics?

REPLY.

If infection is present, bacteria laden pus may be spread by the application of cosmetics. There is no objection, however, to covering blemishes which are sterile and which do not harbor tiny abscesses.

PULSE AND HEART BEAT.

R. writes: Is it possible for the rate of the pulse and the heart beat to differ?

REPLY.

Normally, no. In certain heart conditions there is a difference between the pulse beat and the contractions of the heart, as felt at the right and left wrists.

NOT CONTAGIOUS.

E. R. writes:
1. What is osteomyelitis?
2. Is it contagious?

REPLY.

1. A chronic inflammation and infection of the bone.
2. No.

DOES NO HARM.

C. F. writes: Do you believe in the old custom of taking sulphur and molasses in the spring?

REPLY.

It cannot do any harm. Why it is supposed to be beneficial in the spring only I do not know.

PUTTING THE YARDSTICK ON OXYGEN BOMBS.

Chicago, March 30.—The Chicago Tribune Press Service reported in your edition of March 24 on the subject of:

"Bombs able to raze cities"; "Sudden death at a quarter-mile"; "Detonation of gas tanks [storage holders] at 6,000 degrees F."; "Killing tidal wave of flame racing at seventeen miles per second over a one mile radius"; "Nothing known to abate this man-made-possible destruction of next war."

Such statements as those above alarm me! Being given to a slight inventive proclivity, I resolved to do something about the calamitous state of our national defense against liquid oxygen bombs. I offer herewith my invention to save us from vast destruction. In order that my invention may be by all readily understandable I shall digress a moment to examine a few properties of oxygen, gas holders, and explosions.

Since liquid oxygen boils at 297 degrees F. below zero and cannot exist in the liquid state at all at temperatures higher than 180 degrees F. below zero, I presume that the liquid would have to be transported quickly in steel thermos bottles. Four thousand pounds of liquid oxygen would be containable in a cylindrical vessel about ten feet around and eight feet long. Rather bulky to aim at a target—but possible.

The four thousand pounds of liquid oxygen would expand to about 47,000 cubic feet of gaseous oxygen at 60 degrees F. atmospheric pressure [not 80,000 cubic feet as reported]. Our modern gas storage holders have a capacity of about ten million cubic feet. The limits of inflammability of the mixture of gas holder contents with oxygen are such that a liquid oxygen bomb would have to be about ten times as large as the projected 4,000 pound bomb to be able of itself to support combustion [ignite], let alone explode the contents of the gas storage holder, and 325 times as large to burn [explode] all the gas in the holder.

If the entire contents of a modern Chicago gas holder were burned [exploded] with the necessary amount of oxygen, the resulting heat wave, if diffused equally through the air within a radius of one mile of the holder, would increase the temperature of all of the 308 billion cubic feet of encountered air by the sum total of 1½ degrees F. The maximum temperature immediately surrounding the holder might attain 5,500 degrees F. were there no dilution of the resultant products of combustion with air—very improbable.

Were all the energy resulting from the detonation of a full ten million cubic foot holder of gas in Chicago converted into mechanical energy [more than 30 per cent conversion improbable], it would provide enough force to raise 3½ billion tons of rock and dust a scant six inches off the ground. This estimated amount of rock and lava was scattered over some twenty-seven square miles when a volcanic explosion blew the top off of Mount Kobandi in Japan in 1888.

The volcanic explosion of Mount Pelee in 1902 which blew the top off of that peak sent two million tons of dust 200 miles southward to Barbados and buried the streets of a city of 30,000 inhabitants under six feet of lava and dust.

The above mentioned cataclysms were the result of nature's "bombs able to raze cities." Pelee did raze a sizable city—including the population. But though our man-talked-of cataclysms shrink into puny insignificance by comparison, both of these disasters of nature's creation were witnessed and reported by observers standing less than one mile away. There was no tidal wave of 6,000 degrees Fahrenheit racing at seventeen miles per second over the earth's surface. The hot toxic gases of Pelee did kill an estimated 40,000 people, but many of the scorched dead did not even have their clothes burned off.

A killing wave of seventeen miles per second? Light waves, radio waves, infrared heat waves, race about and even through us at a speed of 186,000 miles per second.

Gentlemen, my invention for protection of our cities from the vast devastation of liquid oxygen bombs dropped in gas tanks, etc., resides in a novel and effective device for removing the boloney from gas, oil, and gasoline storage tanks. The boloney is not a desirable addition to gas, oil, and gasoline, and gas and oil companies will doubtless be pleased to coöperate in lessening our hazard from liquid oxygen bombs by using my nonpatented boloney remover. Very truly yours,

SLADE LE BLOUNT GAMBLE.

P. S.—I deeply regret not having perfected this invention in time for Mr. Chamberlain to have availed himself of the use of the device at Munich.

PUBLIC SCHOOL MUSIC.

Chicago, March 31.—It is too bad that so many thousands could not get tickets to see the Chicago schools music festival last week at the International amphitheater.

Thirty-five hundred in the combined bands and orchestras was the largest instrumental group ever to play together in America. Hundreds of violins, dozens of sousaphones, and two dozen juggling drum majors. And a singing chorus from every high school in Chicago. It was astonishing how well they did difficult pieces. CARROLL E. BROWN.

THE ALIMONY CLUB.

Chicago, March 19.—The most foolish piece of legislation is the legal ability to jail any one for failure to pay alimony. A proper way, if the alimony is not paid and if the one liable for it is earning through business or employment, is to set aside legally the alimony from his earnings; but to put him in jail stops all earnings and accomplishes nothing for the one deserving to obtain the alimony. One would believe any lawyer would see that. OBSERVER.

JUST A SPOILSPORT!

Chicago, March 23.—Now that the politicians have their new administration building nearly completed at Soldiers' field, I am in favor of having the windows facing Soldiers' field painted black or heavily frosted, so they cannot watch the games played at Soldiers' field at football time in comfort. Let them all go out and freeze like all other human beings do at football games.

"A TAXPAYER."

HUTCHINS FOR PRESIDENT.

Cleveland, O., March 31.—In the event F. D. R. decides to pass up the coming presidential nomination, why not nominate Robert Maynard Hutchins, president of the University of Chicago, to this high office, on either the Republican or Democratic ticket?

CHARLES C. GOLDMAN.

MODERN MEDICINE SHOWS.

Chicago, March 24.—Way back in the old days the medicine shows used to play all the small towns and villages throughout the country. The vanlike wagon drawn by a team of horses was a traveling theater, which would stop in the village square or along the main street of the towns. The back of the wagon would be let down to represent the stage, and the yokels or "suckers" would gather around while a few acts of vaudeville were given, after which the Doc appeared and proceeded to prescribe and sell remedies which were guaranteed to cure anything from a toothache to a case of appendicitis.

Though today the old show wagon has disappeared, we still have the medicine show, but in a different form. I mean the radio, and instead of the old Doc with the plug hat and the long tail coat, we have the dapper radio announcers who take the place of the old Doc of yesteryear and prescribe for our aches and ailments. In place of the old time wagon show performers we have the hillbillies and the never were cowboys with the galvanized voices to entertain us with their antique songs and moss covered jokes. "SICKAN TIRED."

EFFICIENCY NOTE.

Chicago, March 26.—I would suggest the addition of the following to your [simplified spelling] list:

The use of "x" in place of "cks," as in slacks [slax] or clocks [clox], etc.

The letter "x" is probably the least used of all letters in our alphabet and on typewriters or typesetting machines the further use of this letter would decrease the wear and tear on the letters "c," "k," and "s." STANLEY R. WIRTH.

THE SWASTIKA IS AN INDIAN SIGN, TOO.

Chicago, March 31.—I was at a lecture Friday night in the assembly hall of the Indian Boundary fieldhouse. A lamp shade hanging in front of the platform attracted every one's attention. Among painted signs of Indians and arrows were painted two swastikas.

Is that teaching our youth Americanism? A. B. BRODY.

"STOP" MOVEMENT.

Chicago, March 31.—The only "stop" movement which America needs is a "stop interference in Europe" drive.

Test Your Facts

Below each of the following questions are listed three answers. Make your choice, turn to page 40 in the Want Ad section for the correct answers, and mark your score:

1. What is a scalene triangle?
[a] A triangle with unequal sides and angles. [b] A triangle with equal sides and angles. [c] A triangle with two sides equal.

2. When was rural free delivery postal service started in the United States?
[a] 1896. [b] 1880. [c] 1910.

3. What country is known as Hellas?
[a] Italy. [b] Greece. [c] Persia.

4. In what city will the American Legion hold its 1939 national convention?
[a] Los Angeles. [b] New York. [c] Chicago.

A self-addressed envelope will expedite handling.

CITIZENSHIP STATUS.

Chicago, March 29.—[Friend of the People.]—I wish you would answer the following:

1. Father is of European birth. He came to this country years ago. He is not a citizen and is married to an American born woman. Does mother lose her citizenship?

2. Their two boys, born in the United States, are now of age and married to American girls. Are these boys and their wives citizens and have they the right to vote, as their father has never become a citizen of this country? A. L.

1. If the marriage took place between March 2, 1907, and Sept. 22, 1922, the wife lost her citizenship by such marriage, under the laws then in effect.

2. All persons born in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States, under the fourteenth amendment to the constitution. Under the facts stated, it would appear that the two boys and their wives are citizens, unless they have taken some affirmative steps to expatriate themselves. It is understood that citizens are eligible to vote, if otherwise qualified.

FRED J. SCHLOTFELDT,
District Director of Immigration and Naturalization, Chicago District.

DERIVATIVE CITIZENSHIP.

Chicago, March 29.—[Friend of the People.]—If the stepfather became a citizen of the United States and his stepson was only 7 years old at that time, did the stepson become a citizen by act of congress? I came to this country in 1898. My stepfather came here long before I did [I believe it was in 1889].

P. T. P.

If the inquirer's mother was married to a citizen or if her husband was naturalized before Sept. 22, 1922, she became a citizen thereby, under the laws then in effect. If the inquirer was a minor at the time of such marriage or naturalization, he derived citizenship through the naturalization of his mother, if he was dwelling in the United States at that time.

FRED J. SCHLOTFELDT,
Naturalization, Chicago District.

HOLDS NOTE AGAINST ESTATE.

Chicago, March 30.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—1. If I hold a note against an estate in Minnesota, and that note has been allowed by the court, does the interest on the note continue to accumulate until the payment is made, or does the interest stop as soon as the court allows the bill?

2. If I wish to petition the court to sell the land belonging to the estate in order for me to receive the amount of my note, is it possible for me to do that without getting an attorney in Minnesota to represent me there and how should I go about it? V. E.

1. After the court order interest would accrue at a statutory rate rather than at the rate named in the note.

2. We suggest that you first exhaust the possibility of persuading the executor or the administrator to bring such proceedings. You might try asking the clerk of the court to bring pressure on him.

PACIFIC DEFENSE PROBLEM IN ONE WORD: DISTANCE

Far Stretches Also Make Attack Impractical.

BY WALTER TROHAN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 4.—[Special.]—In preparing American strategy against the possibility of a Pacific attack, the high commands of the army and navy found distance to be their greatest friend and also their greatest enemy.

The far stretches of the largest ocean make an attack from the only aggressive Asiatic power—Japan—unlikely. But the same distances would make it difficult for the United States to carry a war against Japan, or to defend the Philippine Islands.

On the Pacific coast the United States has but one first class naval base—the one at Seattle. In Puget Sound are adequate docking facilities for all classes of men of war and a complete repair station.

Yards Lack Facilities.

San Francisco is fortified, but its navy yard at Mare Island can accommodate no vessel larger than a heavy cruiser. At San Diego, headquarters of the fleet, the only facilities are floating docks for destroyers and submarines.

The Panama canal, as the lifeline of the American fleet, looms as importantly in the defense of the Pacific as it does in defending the Atlantic. Two thousand miles west of the southern California coast lies the nation's most extensive Pacific establishment—in the Hawaiian Islands.

These islands are vital, not so much because they present an impassable barrier—enemy ships could pass above or below the islands to reach our west coast—but because they constitute a base from which the American fleet and American planes can block any thrust at the American coast.

Insist Islands Impregnable.

Any effort to invade the United States in the Pacific, American strategists assert, could not be successful unless the Hawaiian navy base and army defenses were reduced. The army and navy are confident they easily could hold the islands against the Japanese.

However, it is felt the navy would be even more secure if it could get a string of bases from the Philippines to the Panama canal, and a second string from the Aleutian Islands down the American coast to the canal. It also needs numbers of auxiliary ships, which would assist in waging war at greater distances from bases.

With these chains of naval and air bases, the navy strategists feel they not only could hold off Japan but could carry the war to the Japanese islands.

Differ on Philippine Strategy.

Strategists are divided on the advisability of defending the Philippines. The school opposed to such defense says the islands are too far from the American continent, or even from the Hawaiian Islands, to permit a successful defense. They argue that Philippine defense would necessitate the demolition of defenses and naval and air bases on the Japanese mandated islands and the strategic ring of Japanese fortifications around the islands.

Japan, within the week, completed her ring about the islands by seizing the French claimed island of Spratly, to the south of the Philippines.

Even if the United States were able to defend the islands, opponents of Philippine defense argue, they would not be free of raids until Japan itself were conquered, island by island.

Hold Key to Pacific.

Proponents of Philippine defense argue that the United States cannot be successful in a war with Japan unless it holds on to the islands as a base from which to attack Japan proper. They insist the islands can be held with existing fortifications, properly strengthened.

In any war with Japan, regardless of whether the final strategy adopted would embrace the defense of the Philippines, the first move of the United States would be to harass Japanese shipping and cut off Japan from the essential raw materials which she lacks, such as oil, iron, coal and the like, experts say.

A few light cruisers acting independently, it is felt, would play havoc with the Japanese. Japan would have to divide its fleet in order to send vessels in search of the raiders, thus making their sea forces vulnerable, whatever naval strategy were adopted by Nippon.

If Japan could carry the Philippines, the Hawaiian Islands, all western bases and destroy the American navy, it still could not get a foothold on the American continent, army officials are confident.

Each year will find America better able to prevent the Japanese from getting a base anywhere in North America, from Alaska to the Panama Canal Zone. The army has plans for expansion which would enable it to send troops, ships, and weapons to Canada and Mexico in sufficient numbers to bar establishment of any base in those countries from which an invasion against the United States might be launched.

[This is the third of a series of articles on American military strategy and needs of the army and navy.]

Job Survey

[TRIBUNE Photos.]

The average college graduate may expect to find a job twice as quickly as a high school graduate and at twice the salary.

This was indicated yesterday when fifty-nine students from Grinnell [Ia.] college began their annual job survey in Chicago. The information they will gather in their four day visit will be incorporated in a course in vocations at Grinnell through which the fundamentals of getting and keeping jobs will be taught. The students will have interviews with executives of eighty concerns.

The students were told that while business is partial to college students, it has one big criticism of them. They expect too much, and they expect to get it too soon. Banking and advertising were cited as two typical fields in which advancement is necessarily slow.

Miss Margaret Henry of Blairsburg, Ia., elected the glamor girl of the Grinnell campus, is looking for an office job. She is tall and slender, with violet eyes and smoky black hair.

ROOSEVELT HITS USE OF RIDERS IN CONGRESS BILLS

Signs Defense Measure Despite One Clause.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Warm Springs, Ga., April 4.—[Special.]—President Roosevelt this afternoon denounced the congressional practice of tacking irrelevant legislation to appropriation bills as riders.

In a formal statement, he called attention to a rider on the 358 million dollar appropriation bill which he signed last night. The rider extends the disability retirement and pension privilege of the regular army to reserve officers and men who may be injured while on thirty day temporary duty.

Statement Tells His Stand.

The President condemned both the pension privilege and the fact that it was a rider in the emergency defense bill. He said, however, that he did not see fit to veto the bill because of one clause.

Mr. Roosevelt said his condemnation of riders had the approval of leaders of each party in congress. The statement, which he made public at a roadside press conference, follows:

"In signing the bill for an emergency national defense in relation to the air service and the purchase of a large number of additional planes, it is necessary to call attention to a so-called rider which was added to the bill, but has no relation whatsoever to the title or purpose of the bill.

Full Benefit to Civilian.

"This rider gives the same retirement and pension privileges to reserve officers and enlisted men who may become disabled while on temporary thirty day duty as is accorded regular officers and men of the army. In other words, any civilian, under certain circumstances, would get the same disability retirement privileges as those whose whole time is in the government service.

"This suggestion is, of course, open to full and adequate study, but it seems a pity that without this study this clause, which will cost the government a large sum of money, has been tacked on to an emergency defense measure to which it has no relationship whatsoever."

FARMER DIES AFTER AN OPERATION.

WAR OFFICE IS READY TO SIGN CONTRACTS FOR 550 FAST PLANES

Washington, D. C., April 4.—(AP)—The war department announced today that contracts for five types of war planes were ready for signature as soon as congress gave final approval to a 513 million dollar army supply bill. Four engine bombers, single engine pursuit planes, a new type of pursuit interceptor, attack bombers, and a small number of photographic planes will be bought.

Maximum speeds over 350 miles an hour are expected, the war department said, from the interceptor pursuit craft, designed to climb quickly and bring down enemy bombers. Among single engine pursuit or fighter planes to be ordered it was indicated, was the fast Curtiss P-40 which President Roosevelt viewed last fall.

The army appropriation bill includes 50 millions to be available immediately after it is signed by the President. This sum will make possible awarding of contracts for 550 planes—first of 3,000 to be bought under a 358 million dollar army expansion bill signed yesterday by the President.

PLAN DETENTION CAMPS FOR ALIEN CRIMINALS IN U. S.

Act Will Affect All Who Cannot Be Deported.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 4.—[Special.]—Detention camps for certain classes of aliens are authorized in a bill reported favorably today by the house judiciary committee. This committee's recommendations usually are followed on the house floor.

Sponsored by Representative Sam Hobbs, Alabama Democrat, the bill applies to those aliens who cannot be deported from the United States because the countries from which they came refuse to accept them.

The provisions apply to alien criminals, anarchists and communists advocating overthrow of the government, those found guilty of narcotic trafic, and similar crimes, who have been ordered deported by the government.

Great Numbers Affected.

Several thousand of these persons have remained in the United States, Hobbs pointed out, because the consular or diplomatic services of their nationalities have refused to issue passports or other authorizations permitting their return to their own countries.

Under the law, an alien may not be deported unless the country of his origin agrees to accept him. The undesirables referred to are not wanted by any country and perforce must remain in the United States, once they gain entry here, Hobbs explained.

Called Roaming Menace.

"These persons roam about the country, laughing at the government, after they have paid their penalty for any crimes of which they are found guilty," said Hobbs. "They form a menace which should be curbed. They cannot be held in prison after their terms have expired and they cannot be deported because no other country will take them. They ought to be shut up."

The bill authorizes the arrest of such aliens and their transport to a place of detention, to be designated by the secretary of labor. They would be kept in such places, though not at hard labor, until such time as deportation becomes feasible.

Death Probed

[Acme Photo.]

MISS MILDRED STANLEY.

St. Joseph, Mich., April 4.—[Special.]—The deaths of a divorcée and a Michigan City business man were attributed today by authorities to accidental suffocation. Their nude bodies were found yesterday in a tourist cabin at Grand Vista park, a resort operated by the House of David religious colony.

Nathan Rosenberg.

The man was Nathan Rosenberg, 42 years old, former secretary of the Michigan City Chamber of Commerce. His companion was Miss Mildred Stanley, 34, formerly of Hartford, Mich., who went to work a month ago as a waitress in Michigan City.

The couple registered at 4 a. m. Sunday as Mr. and Mrs. N. Rose of South Bend. Their cabin was heated by gas. Police believe that the heater exhausted the oxygen in the cabin while they were asleep. Rosenberg's wife died two years ago.

KILLED BY FALL IN SHAFT.

Kalamazoo, Mich., April 4.—[Special.]—Leslie E. Donahue, 51, of Pekin, Ill., employed as a foreman by the Herlihy Mid-Continent company, Chicago contractors, was killed today when he fell two floors in a hoisting shaft at the Consumers Power company plant at East Comstock, near here.

HIT SETTLEMENT OF U. S. DAMAGES AGAINST MEXICO

Protest Recognition of Red Seizures.

BY WILLARD EDWARDS.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Representative Martin J. Kennedy.

Washington, D. C., April 4.—[Special.]—The house today passed a resolution authorizing an appropriation to pay the expenses of a commission to determine the basis of settlement for the claims of American citizens for expropriated property in Mexico. The resolution previously had passed the senate and now goes to the President.

The Mexican government has agreed to pay $1,000,000 by May 31 and at least $1,000,000 annually thereafter until the total amount of damages determined by the commission to be due shall have been liquidated.

Spirited debate on the entire Mexican question accompanied consideration of the resolution. It was finally approved, however, without a record vote.

New Yorker Leads Attack.

Representative Martin J. Kennedy [D., N. Y.] led the attack upon the measure. He said today's action was intended to mislead the American people into believing that the government was protecting the rights of its nationals whereas it actually was temporizing with a serious situation growing worse every day. He termed the $1,000,000 yearly payments merely "token" payments.

"I maintain that congress, in agreeing to this resolution, confirms the Mexican position rather than the proper American protective obligation that the government owes its citizens," Kennedy told the house. "The communists in control of Mexico can now claim that congress has deserted Americans who have been deprived of their property by the methods of the Mexican Reds.

Deplores Commitment.

"Congress here is committing itself to the Red philosophy whereby private property has no standing before the government and to the Red theory that the capitalistic system should be abolished.

"While the state department as a face saver may suggest this resolution still substantially it is an admission that the Mexican communists are right in their theory of international law, as well as an admission that the Mexican policy of expropriation of private property is acceptable."

Representative Hamilton Fish [R., N. Y.] agreed with Kennedy that the resolution was in effect a concurrence by congress in the "despoliation of American citizens."

MEXICAN MOB STONES CLUB OCCUPIED BY FRANCO FOLLOWERS

MEXICO CITY, April 4.—(AP)—The Spanish Casino, a downtown club building occupied by followers of Generalissimo Francisco Franco, was stoned by a mob of 400 workers today. The attack came after the interior ministry had appealed for public support against foreign political groups.

Windows as high as the third floor were smashed by the mob. Chief of Police Federico Montes said the workers disappeared immediately and there were no arrests. Apparently no one was hurt.

The interior ministry had ordered "all authorities and citizens" to cooperate in "stopping foreign groups of a political-military character." This order followed a demonstration Sunday by the Spanish Falange [Fascist] organization, followers of Franco, Spanish Nationalist chieftain.

"I certainly wish I'd got a LASALLE!"

POLICE RAID NAZI PARTY QUARTERS IN BUENOS AIRES

Press Quiz of Scheme to Seize Patagonia.

BY HAROLD TATAM.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BUENOS AIRES, April 4.—Police intensified their investigation of Nazi propaganda in Argentina today by raiding four places known to be centers of German activity. Large amounts of subversive literature were seized, but no one was arrested.

The raids were the direct result of last week's disclosure of a document which purported to urge Nazi annexation of Patagonia, southern Argentine territory. The document described Patagonia as a "no man's land," to which Argentina had "no right."

Heinrich Jurges, former secretary to Paul Joseph Goebbels, German propaganda minister, was released from jail today.

Nazi Leader Held.

An ardent anti-Nazi now after his dismissal by Goebbels, it was Jurges who gave the document to a newspaper after having first sent it to President Rubio Ortiz.

Alfred Mueller, called Argentina's "little fuehrer," still was under arrest tonight. Jurges' release and the continued detention of Mueller indicated, some thought, that the investigation was substantiating the charges of Nazi designs against Patagonia.

Raid Nazi Headquarters.

Among the places raided today was the Nazi headquarters in the Banco Germanico building. From Mueller's office the police took a card index showing the names and addresses of all anti-Nazi Germans in Argentina. It is charged that these persons are being systematically blackmailed by Nazi agents. Police also impounded the contents of a safety deposit box in the First National bank of Boston.

President Ortiz, who personally ordered the investigation, was maintaining close touch with the police. The Argentine foreign office was working at a high pitch. One official said "we are on the verge of something important."

[Copyright: 1939: By the New York Times.]

BRUSSELS, April 4.—Eleven thousand workers in the coal mines of Charleroi, Liege, and Mons struck today in protest against a wage reduction of 2½ per cent. Under the existing convention between the managements and the men wages vary according to the fluctuations in the cost of living. The present reduction was imposed because the cost of living index had fallen, but the men at certain mines have refused to accept it.

U. S. WINS IN SUIT FOR $1,604,632 IN WAR TIME SEIZURE

New York, April 4.—[Special.]—Federal Judge Alfred C. Coxe today ordered a jury to find for the government in its suit to recover $1,604,632 from the estate of the late Johan Freidrich Hackfield.

Hackfield in 1924 was paid about $4,000,000 for Hawaiian sugar lands seized in 1917 under the trading with the enemy act. He said he was an American citizen. Judge Coxe overruled this claim, accepting the government's contention that ha was a German.

TALKS MARRIAGE 7 YEARS; JILTED, SHOOTS WOMAN

De Kalb, Ill., April 4.—[Special.]—For seven years Miss Rose Krist, 30 years old, and John Luoma, 31, had been sweethearts. They had talked often of getting married, but never quite reached the point. Two weeks ago Miss Krist announced she was going to marry another man.

John Luoma.

Luoma went to her home today to settle the matter. He leveled a revolver and without a word shot her four times. It was not expected she would recover from the wounds, which were in her abdomen.

Police were hurrying to the shooting scene when Luoma strode into the police station a mile away. He told the desk sergeant: "Here is the gun I shot that woman with." Learning that four of his bullets had found their mark, Luoma remarked, airily: "Hell, I'm slipping. I thought I hit her five times." He is an unemployed steel worker.

Rockefeller Museum Head in Jerusalem Wounded

JERUSALEM, April 4.—(AP)—John Iliffe, British keeper of the Rockefeller museum, was shot and seriously wounded last night by unidentified assailants outside his house in the old city of Jerusalem. The Arab quarters of the city are being searched.

ELECTRICIAN DIES AS AUTO LEAVES ROAD, RAMS TREE

L. S. Kirkpatrich, 45 years old, a West Chicago electrician, was injured fatally yesterday when his automobile, out of control, plunged off Roosevelt road a mile west of Wheaton and crashed into a tree. He died in an ambulance en route to a Wheaton hospital.

Samuel Beach, 62 years old, 4245 Wentworth avenue, died in the Mercy hospital yesterday of injuries suffered Sunday when he was struck by an automobile near his home. The driver of the car did not stop and his identity has not been learned.

Frank Kelly, 56 years old, 807 South State street, died in the County hospital yesterday of injuries incurred last Friday when he walked against the side of a moving automobile at Jackson boulevard and Halsted street.

Two executives of the Johns-Manville Products corporation plant at Waukegan were critically injured last night when their car struck a truck that had halted on U. S. highway 41 north of Evanston. They are Arthur F. Miller, chief engineer, of 906 Poplar street, and Richard J. Browne, chief electrician, of 315 Center street, both of Waukegan. State Policeman F. L. Andrews took them and three other men riding with them to Victory Memorial hospital at Waukegan.

Up to 4 p. m. yesterday 227 persons had been killed by automobiles in Cook county since Jan. 1. Of these 177 were killed in Chicago, where 4,675 were injured in the same period.

FLYERS SEEKING DROWNED CHILD INJURED IN CRASH

Janesville, Wis., April 4.—[Special.]—Peter Tumelson and William Bousiane are in a hospital here for treatment for shock and other injuries received today when a plane in which they were flying hit a power line and fell into a creek.

Tumelson, 31 years old, may have a skull fracture and Bousiane, 27, has severe back injuries. The pair were flying low over a creek, searching for the body of Jack Sheridan, 9, who drowned yesterday.

The nose of the plane plunged into four feet of water and the tail caught on the wire. When the flyers crawled out of the cockpit and touched metal parts of the plane they were shocked.

There's a New Way of knowing Who's Who

It started a good three years ago, when you began to notice Buick's name cropping up more and more when the talk turned to automobiles.

It's been going on ever since, not with flash-in-the-pan suddenness, but surely, in the way sound merit wins recognition.

Today you spot these big Buick Limiteds on every hand—it's getting so you know who's who by noting who's in a Buick.

That is specially true because this Buick, lordly as it is, is not the biggest car to be bought, nor yet the most powerful, nor the highest priced.

It's plainly not being selected by those who seek merely to make an impression, but rather for the quality that's in it and its superlative character.

For one thing there's plenty of room in this biggest of the Buicks—legroom, elbowroom, room for tall hats. It's a heavy car, too, with a 9-inch deep frame and a good 4,500-pound roadweight.

But there's nothing stodgy or slow or lumbering about it. Its 141-horsepower Dynaflash engine swings all this bulk into mile-a-minute action in a brief 18.3 seconds from a 10 m.p.h. start; it answers more lightly to its wheel than any car in the large-car field.

It's trimly tailored. It's deeply comfortable. It's steady-rolling, businesslike, brisk. It puts some sparkle and life into your travel with no sacrifice of dignity. It never seems to hurry, yet it gets you there on time!

Such a car is a car to look into. That's easily done by dropping a note to the Buick dealer nearest you, or getting him on the telephone.

He'll have a car at your house or your office for you to try out any time you say.

PARTY FROCKS go with these rich interiors as a white tie goes with tails.

Lack of Bridges Gives Crude Ferries a Job.

BY CAPT. M. M. CORPENING.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BELEM, State of Para, Brazil, March 29 [By Air Mail]. — Traveling north from Recife to Fortaleza, half way to Belem, one may choose between the air route or a motor highway. But, hearing of some of the highway difficulties in northern Brazil, one prefers the plane.

Motoring is a two day, 550 mile trip over a sand clay road which at some points reaches a height of 2,500 feet. There are no tigers or head hunters along the way, and there are soft drink stands and gas stations, but no bridges. Cars are taken across rivers on old-fashioned flat boats with crews of five or six men manning the paddles.

Moreover, one must spend a night in the car or trust to luck to find a hammock in some one's house. A travel agency exhibits a glass jar containing sixteen different colors of sand taken from points along the road.

Blind Flying Inadvisable.

Flying has its difficulties, too. The lack of radio facilities makes night flying and blind flying inadvisable, and bad weather sometimes forces a delay of a day or two. Even so, the air route is preferable to the uncertainties of the road.

Taking off from Recife—called the Venice of South America because of its bridges—the first stop to the north is Natal. The city of 50,000—whose name means Christmas—is the landing and hopping off place of celebrated ocean flyers. Both Germany and France operate ocean air mail services from Natal. Sugar, cotton, and salt are Natal's principal exports.

While the plane is being fueled the airport manager exhibits his pet, a boa constrictor about seven feet long. Its vari-colored skin is brilliant and prettier than one sees in zoos. Natives assert the boas are lazy and quite harmless. Offshore one sees many needle fish playing in the water. They seem like eels.

Salt from Sea Water.

North of Natal the salt industry is in evidence. From the plane one sees mile after mile of salt piles each about the size of a railroad car. The salt is obtained by a natural process. The ocean tides fill large sluice beds with salt water. The sluice gates are closed and the tropical sun evaporates the water, leaving the salt to be scraped up. One of the little towns along the shore has 600,000 tons stored up.

Fortaleza, a modern city of 145,000 population and capital of Ceara state, is an overnight stop. An old fort is the city's chief point of interest. Fortaleza does a large export business in cotton, sugar, rubber, coffee, and wax.

A flight of less than six hours brings one from Fortaleza to Belem, the capital of the state of Para. Its estimated population of 293,000 makes it the sixth largest city of Brazil.

"Paris of the Jungle."

Belem is sometimes called the Paris of the jungle, but that is a misleading term. The comparison probably is derived from the broad Parisian boulevard which divides the old and new sections of the city. The wide cobblestone boulevard is flanked by cement sidewalks 50 or 60 feet wide and rows of large trees.

The city, situated on the south bank of one of the mouths of the Amazon river and near the Atlantic, is the leading port of northern Brazil. It rose to prominence during the great rubber boom which collapsed in 1911. The new port was built during the days of riotous spending.

The old port, or business section, goes back to pioneer days of South American history and has narrow sidewalks and narrow cobblestone streets. Its fish market is interesting. Boats literally jam the water front when the morning tide comes in. When it recedes, the boats are left high and dry until another tide floats them out.

Study in Jungle Life.

The new city has a unique combined zoo, botanical garden and museum. All exhibits come from the state of Para which has an area of 443,789 square miles straddling the Amazon delta. At the park entrance is a large cage of colorful birds.

Inside there is a pool of electric eels—much larger than the ordinary variety of eels. To touch one, the guide says, is like touching a live wire. The zoo has snakes, leopards, tapirs and monkeys. The museum contains Indian relics, stones and samples of minerals. The botanical garden displays specimens of jungle growth.

In the outskirts of the city is the Bosque Rodriguez Alves, a two block square park which was left in its jungle state when the new section of the city was built. Parrots, monkeys and harmless animals have free run of the place. The city operates an orchid garden in the park. The best ones sell for about 50 cents in the Rio de Janeiro market and the poorer ones are sold in Belem for about 15 cents.

Barometer of Economic Life.

The barometer of economic conditions here is the rubber and nut markets. The prices of both at present are low. Since the far east stepped into the rubber market, the going here has been rough. Ironically enough, the rubber plants that put the far east into the industry came from the Amazon basin and an Englishman was knighted for obtaining them.

Roads and civic improvements of Para are decadent from lack of money. The only taxes collectable are the export, sales and consignment duties. Real estate has no value, hence no taxes can be collected from it. The standard of living is low with common labor getting around 20 cents per day, American money.

Tuberculosis and malaria are obstacles to living in the Amazon valley. While the danger isn't so great in towns where there are physicians and drug stores, in the back lands the two diseases are treacherous.

The American consulate here is kept on the alert to detect forged credentials. Ninety per cent of Brazil's immigration quota must be native born. Hence every one claims to be a bona fide Brazilian. Many persons here desire to migrate to the United States.

Boy, 11, Burned Watching Bonfire, Dies of Injuries

Charles Rutledge, 11 years old, 245 West 24th place, died of burns in County hospital yesterday. He was with a group of boys watching a bonfire at Canal and 31st street Monday night. One of them tossed a can believed to have contained kerosene on the fire. Flames shot up and ignited Charles' clothing. Passersby rolled him on the ground to put out the flames, but not soon enough to prevent serious burns.

VATICAN STUDIES AIR RAID SHELTER TO PROTECT POPE

VATICAN CITY, April 4.—(AP)—A Vatican news service today disclosed that Vatican authorities were studying means of protecting Pope Pius XII. and his aids in event of air raids.

Prelates suggestd that an inner room of the great tower of Pope Nicholas V. [A. D. 1447-1455] could be used as a refuge for the pontiff in time of danger. This tower has a metal encased room built to safeguard church treasures and rare documents. The walls are fifteen feet thick at the bottom and nine feet at the top.

The news service said that Vatican authorities were in agreement with the governor of Rome for darkening Vatican City along with Rome during air raid drills, expected soon. Officials, the service added, discussed some time ago the possibility of having persons in Vatican City provided with gas masks.

U. S. SENDS NOTE TO JAPAN OVER MISSION BOMBING

American Priest Reported Wounded in Raid.

PEKING, April 4.—(AP)—The American embassy today sent written representations to the Japanese embassy here regarding the bombing of an American Roman Catholic mission at Loting, West Kwangtung province, on Feb. 25.

Japanese bombs were reported to have unroofed three mission buildings and wounded Father Robert P. Kennelly, a representative of the Catholic foreign mission board in China for twelve years.

[Headquarters of the Catholic Maryknoll mission at Ossining, N. Y., said that Father Kennelly had prepared for missionary work at Maryknoll academy there. No report has been received as to the extent of his injuries.]

Battle on Soviet Frontier.

TOKIO, April 5 [Wednesday].—(AP)—Domei [Japanese news agency] dispatches from Manchukuo today reported that fighting was continuing on the border between Soviet Russia and Japanese dominated Manchukuo, where a three hour battle occurred Sunday.

The outbreak was on the northwest border of Hsingan province, where numerous clashes have occurred this year between Soviet troops and Manchukuan forces.

The Domei reports said the Russians had moved artillery and cavalry to the scene and strengthened their positions with machine guns. Losses were reported on both sides.

Seesaw Battle in South.

HONGKONG, April 4.—(AP)—The seesaw struggle for control of the military and commercially vital West river delta in Kwangtung province today found the Japanese again in the ascendancy after capturing Kongmoon, a key city, for the third time within a week.

Two freshly arrived Chinese divisions from Kwangsi province were reported yesterday to have broken the Japanese spearhead thrust into the district between Macao and Canton, killing and capturing 3,000 Japanese and driving the remnants back to ships in the West river.

Today the Japanese returned to the attack with reënforcements from ships in the West river and, aided by lifting fog, which permitted use of airplanes, retook Kongmoon. Several thousand casualties were reported inflicted on the Chinese. The Chinese retreated toward Sunwui City, but continued to fight back savagely.

Push Drive on Changsha.

SHANGHAI, April 4.—(AP)—Severe fighting was reported west of Kaoan today as Japanese invaders pushed an advance from Nanchang, Kwangsi province capital, deeper into the interior toward Changsha, in Hunan.

The Japanese thrust was directed from Tsingan and Fengsin, thirty-five and thirty miles, respectively, northwest of Nanchang.

France Protests to Tokio.

PARIS, April 4.—(AP)—The French government today sent a formal protest to Japan against the latter's assumption of control over the Spratly Islands in the South China sea, announced in Tokio last Friday.

The Spratly Islands, seven coral reefs important principally as a possible base for seaplanes, submarines, and small naval craft, had been claimed by France in 1933.

Jap Plane Opens Air Line to Saipan Isle Near Guam

TOKIO, April 5 [Wednesday].—(AP)—Japan today inaugurated her long planned air line to the South Seas when the first transport plane reached Saipan Island, one of the Marianne group almost within sight of American owned Guam. On the flight from Japan the plane carried four air line officials and a group of Japanese naval officers besides the crew of four.

FRANCO ORDERS 'BACK TO NORMAL' DRIVE IN INDUSTRY

Wartime Stafs Fired; Soldiers to Get Jobs.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

MADRID, April 4.—Generalissimo Francisco Franco's headquarters in Burgos announced today that the demilitarization and demobilization of private war industries is to begin at once.

Within thirty days factories are to discharge their wartime personnel. Women workers, except widows and women dependent on fallen soldiers, are to be discharged first. In the reorganization, jobs are to be given to demobiliized soldiers. The demilitarized factories are expected to resume peacetime operation within ninety days.

The roundup of persons suspected of "war crimes" continued today in Madrid and elsewhere in occupied former Republican [Loyalist] territory.

Many arrests have been made in Alicante, Mediterranean port to which many Loyalist leaders fled before the fall of Madrid. Among those held is said to be Pedro Perero Villapalos, whom Nationalists accuse as one of the slayers of José Calvo Sotelo. The assassination of Calvo Sotelo, a Fascist leader, in Madrid in July, 1936, was one of the causes of the civil war.

Spaniards were instructed today to pay nightly tribute to the Nationalist war dead. Radio stations will broadcast the Nationalist anthem and words of praise for military heroes at 11 p. m. daily—the hour when war communiques used to be transmitted. Spaniards were told to listen standing and with the right arm outstretched in the Nationalist salute.

BOMBINGS OF CIVILIANS IN SPAIN ONLY KEPT UP MORALE, SAYS BOWERS

New York, April 4.—[Special.]—The bombing of civilian populations in an effort to break down morale behind the lines was a failure in the Spanish civil war, according to Claude G. Bowers, United States ambassador to Spain for the last six years. He will sail tomorrow to close the war-time American embassy he established at St. Jean de Luz, France, in Aug, 1936.

"The apparent purpose of testing aviation as an instrument for the breaking down of morale of the civilian population has resulted in some military disillusionment," said Bowers. "Judging by the events in Spain, instead of breaking down the morale, the effect seemed to be very perceptibly a stiffening of the morale of the people—a rise in their resentment."

Spanish Air Ace, Who Shot Down 40 Planes, Is Killed

MADRID, April 4.—(AP)—Flight Commander Joaquin Garcia Morato, leading Nationalist ace of the Spanish civil war, was killed at Grinon today while stunting for German newsreel cameramen. Morato, 36 years old, was credited with bringing down forty planes, more than any other Nationalist aviator. He met his death flying a Russian built "Rata" pursuit ship which the Republicans had surrendered.

E. K. HUBBARD'S DAUGHTER FILES DIVORCE ACTION

Reno, Nev., April 4.—[Special.]—Suit for divorce was filed here today by Mrs. Helen Hubbard Dodge, socially prominent daughter of E. Kent Hubbard, wealthy business man and clubman of Hartford and Middletown, Conn. Her husband is Washington Dodge II., New York City society man.

Mrs. Dodge charged cruelty. The custody of their children, Jonathan, 5 years old, and Kent, 2, and property rights have been settled by agreement, the complaint said.

Their marriage Aug. 10, 1932, at Camden, Me., was a social event in that fashionable summer resort. Mrs. Dodge is a niece of the late Elisha Dyer Hubbard. Mr. Hubbard was the husband of Muriel McCormick, whose mother is Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick.

More than "changing the number" when you change to OIL-PLATING

MAYBE any station would have oil that's at least of the right Summer grade... let's say No. 20, No. 30 or No. 40.

And possibly anyone would know your right amount—5 or 6 or more quarts.

But it takes the Conoco station—it takes Your Mileage Merchant—to give your engine the oil-change that brings you the plus of OIL-PLATING... at an everyday price.

You must choose patented Conoco Germ Processed oil to know that the engine parts—as if "magnetized"—will attract and hold a shield of OIL-PLATING. This shields and smooths the bearings, piston rings and cylinder walls—bottom to top of your engine. Like the chromium-plating that shields and smooths the bumpers, OIL-PLATING holds ever-fast... it's drain-proof... never leaves a precious part naked to friction, during all your thousands of starts and thousands of miles this Summer. You'll see your heat indicator staying down safely; you'll see your Conoco Germ Processed oil staying up economically. Then see Your Mileage Merchant today for the plus of OIL-PLATING.

HINES RELEASED ON $35,000 BAIL PENDING APPEAL

Judge Moved by 2 Points in Tammany Fixer's Trial.

New York, April 4.—[Special.]—James J. Hines, Tammany district leader, who has been in Tombs prison since March 23, was granted freedom in bail today pending appeal from his conviction as political protector of the Dutch Schultz policy ring.

Justice Peter J. Schmuck.

Hines walked out of Tombs prison this afternoon, six hours after being granted a certificate of reasonable doubt by Supreme Court Justice Peter J. Schmuck. Mathew Kenny, a friend of Hines, supplied collateral for a $35,000 bond furnished by the Peerless Casualty company, which had supplied the $20,000 bond under which Hines was free before his conviction.

The court order makes it virtually certain that Hines will be free until late fall or early winter, because it is considered unlikely that the Appellate division will consider the case before October. Hines is under sentence to serve four to eight years in Sing Sing.

Justice Schmuck's ten page decision emphasized two legal points to justify a certificate of reasonable doubt. One was the question of whether policy gambling should be construed as a felony, and the other was the propriety of the trial judge submitting the question of the statute of limitations to the jury, instead of ruling on this point himself.

Hines emerged from the Tombs surrounded by friends and followers from his Monongahela Democratic club and had to push through a crowd of about 500 well wishers. He appeared pale and tired as he climbed into a limousine.

FAKE POLICE ROB 3 SALESMEN OF $13,000 IN JEWELS

Cicero police last night were investigating the reported holdup of three jewelry salesmen earlier in the day at 57th and Ogden avenues in the suburb. The salesmen told Chief Theodore Svoboda that three bandits posed as policemen and forced their car to the curb.

Louis Lang, head of a jewelry firm at 29 East Madison street, Chicago, was driving. He was ordered into the back seat with Irving Heller and David Dab of New York. Two of the robbers then drove them to a lonely spot near the Hawthorne race track. They took $13,000 in platinum sets and mountings, pushed the salesmen out, and sped away. A third hoodlum followed in the bandit car.

Heller and Dab said they had been covering their territory by bus and had met Lang in several cities en route. In St. Louis, they all decided to come to Chicago together.

U. S. ATTACK TURNED ON CO-DEFENDANTS OF TORRIO IN TAX TRIAL

New York, April 4.—(AP)—The government temporarily shifted its attack from Johnny Torrio to his co-defendants in their income tax evasion trial today, producing testimony of financial transactions in an attempt to link James La Penna and William Slockbower to the one-time Chicago gang leader.

Torrio is accused of defrauding the government of $86,000 in taxes in 1933-'34-'35, while four others are charged with conspiracy to aid him.

The prosecution drew from Andrew Hurley, special investigator for the alcohol tax division of the bureau of internal revenue, details of La Penna's business deals as listed in six La Penna ledgers seized by the government. The defendants, besides Torrio, Slockbower, and La Penna, are John D'Agostino of Egg Harbor City, N. J., and Louis V. La Cava.

GROCER YIELDS TO BANDITS; GETS SHOT, ANYWAY

Despite his submission to robbery, Samuel Rothman, 40 years old, was shot and seriously wounded by a bandit yesterday in his grocery at 3720 South State street. He lives at 6117 Eberhardt avenue.

Two colored men entered the store shortly after Rothman opened for business. Pointing revolvers at him, they searched the cash register and his pockets, getting $30. Rothman was taken to the basement and told to remain there. As they were leaving one of the robbers turned and fired a shot which struck the grocer in the chest.

Twenty minutes later an errand boy, Cecil Thomas, 17, colored, who lives above the store, entered and heard Rothman's groans. The victim was taken to the Michael Reese hospital. The bandits fled in Rothman's automobile.

EXPECT SUBPENA REQUEST SOON IN SKIDMORE CASE

Subpenas will be asked soon from the federal grand jury, it was reported yesterday, for records, hitherto unavailable, for the anticipated prosecution of William R. Skidmore, reputed gambling collector for the Capone syndicate, on income tax evasion charges.

Reports of pending action in the Skidmore case persisted, and District Attorney William J. Campbell promised vigorous prosecution of the case once it reaches his office. Campbell conferred Monday with Attorney General Frank Murphy, who was in Chicago briefly on his way to St. Louis and Kansas City, Mo.

Metropolitan reports to its policyholders—

HIGHLIGHTS OF 1938

The Metropolitan Life Insurance Company is a mutual company. It is operated solely for the benefit of its 29 million policyholders, whose life insurance with this Company totaled over $22,612,000,000 at the end of the past year.

In 1938, more than $566,300,000 was paid to policyholders and beneficiaries, and $176,000,000 was added to statutory reserves for payment of obligations which will accrue in future years under present policies. Dividends paid in 1938 amounted to $103,940,000. A still larger sum—$118,042,000—has been set aside for dividend payments in 1939.

Metropolitan has paid, since 1927, more than $5,000,000,000 to policyholders and beneficiaries.

More than $1,800,000,000 of life insurance protection was provided by the 3,330,151 new policies issued during the past year.

Assets held for the benefit of policyholders and beneficiaries—which include more than 100,000 carefully selected, diversified investments—amount to more than $4,900,000,000.

As part of its welfare program in 1938, Metropolitan distributed 68 million health booklets—an average of 1 every half-second—and published monthly health-education advertisements in magazines whose combined circulation for the year was over 300 million copies.

Metropolitan welcomes every opportunity to provide its policyholders with information that will enable them to have a clearer understanding of how the Company operates. To help accomplish this, the Company is publishing a series of educational advertisements in magazines, and seeks in various other ways to keep its policyholders informed. A booklet, soon to be available, contains a detailed account of Metropolitan's progress in 1938. We shall be glad to send a copy on request.

Foes of Block Booking Refuse to Compromise

Washington, D. C., April 4.—(AP)—A sudden compromise offer from a Hollywood spokesman failed today to halt a senate committee's stormy hearing on legislation to outlaw "block booking" and "blind selling" of motion pictures.

After a series of disputes, C. C. Pettijohn, general counsel for major producers and distributors, announced they would be willing to let "responsible boards" composed of church and school leaders help select the motion pictures for their communities.

This method, the lawyer said, would attain the objectives of the legislation which seeks to permit the public, through local theater managers, to select entertainment it wishes.

"Let's get an agreement quick and lay it on the table," Pettijohn said. "We can save several days' time. Let's have a showdown."

Henry R. Atkinson, representing a Boston chapter of the motion picture research council, quickly rejected the offer for his groups. Atkinson, one of a long procession of civic and school groups favoring the legislation, said he would cite "thirteen broken promises of the motion picture industry."

"Nothing is ever done until we come down to Washington with witnesses," Atkinson said.

A. F. Myers, representing the Allied States Association of Motion Picture Exhibitors, also rejected the compromise, saying it would be impossible for local boards to know what was in the pictures.

Earlier, Atkinson read at length from data to show the influence of motion pictures on children, and said those in charge of motion picture production and distribution were "just as blind to the social value as is possible."

The 'Showoff' Stage Hinders Growing Girls

BY DORIS BLAKE.

[Copyright: 1939: By The Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Syndicate, Inc.]

Teachers, we understand, call it the "showoff stage." It's a period in a high school girl's life when she wants to attract attention at all costs. Because she has no important talent nor skill that would of itself, attract, the showoff knows no other way of attracting attention to herself except by wearing extreme clothes, using too much makeup, distorting her natural line of eyebrow, or by showy mannerisms and doing the latest shag or other dance steps without provocation and far removed from a dance floor.

This type of girl generally is discarded as most unpopular. She is a boring individual because every one recognizes that her mind is on herself and herself only, with her constant devising of ways and means to attract attention.

It's really very childish behavior, reminiful of the little pest who insists upon performing her tricks in front of mamma's callers. The truth of the matter is that girls in high school who resort to these tricks are lonely and have a sense of inferiority, strange as it may seem to you. They would not be begging for attention to their stupid manner, however, if their energies were absorbed in sports, dramatics, or other wholesome activities common to youth. If the showoffs were getting along with boys and other girls and had the good time a happy companionship with their own generation insures, they would quickly cease their showoff struggles.

At the age of which we speak it is important, wholesome and healthful to learn how to be good friends with the boys and have a good time socially. It is wise to develop skill in something, some sport, say, or in some art or hobby, as these activities add valuable experience, besides making a more interesting person of you.

Keep a watch on yourselves, girls, so that critics never can say you talk loudly, or are affected, or that you are too sophisticated for your age. Don't let a copied mannerism grow on you although it was cute or funny the first time it was performed. Let the other girl go in for flashy makeup and clothes, if she must, but don't you do it.

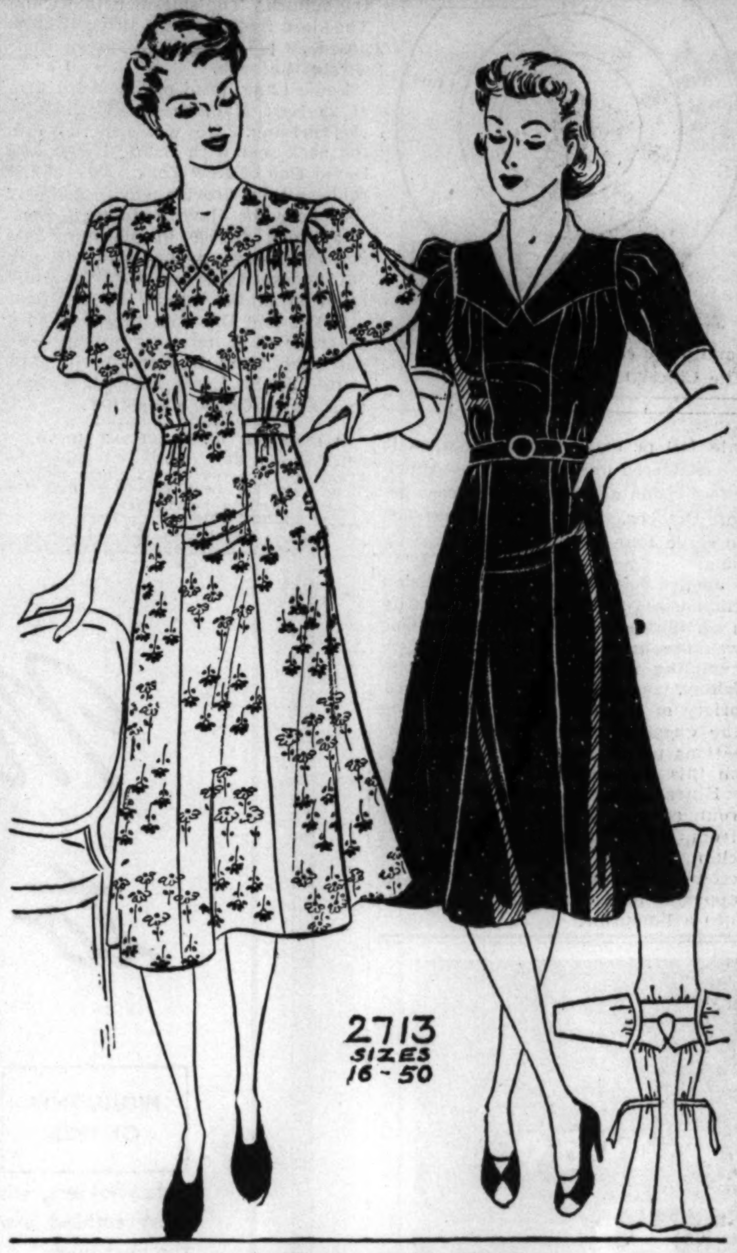
Simple Dress Is Paneled



WOMAN'S AND MISS' FROCK.

Both mature women and misses will like this simple frock with paneling and shirring. It is a type of dress that makes up as well in cottons as it does in silks, and it is sufficiently dressy to go out informally to social occasions.

Older women will like the version with V neckline and full sleeves. It makes up well in floral prints. There is no trimming, unless you prefer to put some tiny buttons on the yoke or to use a bouquet at the base of the neckline.

Younger women and girls will like the other version, because it has a contrasting collar and the puffed sleeves are trimmed with narrow binding of the same contrasting material. Dark colors, prints, and, particularly, polka dotted fabrics make up well in this design.

Style No. 2713 is designed for sizes, 16, 18, and 20, and 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48, and 50 inches bust measurement.

Address orders for Clotilde patterns to Chicago Tribune, P. O. Box 537, Grand Central Station, NEW YORK CITY, inclosing 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred—wrap it carefully) for each pattern ordered. IMPORTANT! Be certain to state clearly the number of the pattern and the size desired, and write your name and address plainly.

Wheresoever the Gospel is preached these alternatives are presented to the unrepentant: "Confess, repent, supplicate the Savior and enter eternal glory, or reject, be silent, and die in sin," said Dr. James E. Congdon of Englewood Presbyterian church in a Lenten address.

"Multitudes will remember this week Christ's sacrifice upon the cross. Many of them, perhaps, have not given it a thought since last Easter," said Dr. Congdon. "God grant that all of us may look behind commercialized pomp and pageantry, the pride and parade which have come to characterize this season, and see with the eye of faith the love and good will toward mankind in the heart of Him who suffered and died for us. Let us look to the cross with faith as Israel looked on the brazen serpent and were saved from the wilderness. Let pomp be replaced with penitence! Let pageantry be replaced with piety!"

Good Morning!

KIND: Russian historical film. Its subject is the story of Novgorod, a Russian city besieged in 1242 by the Mongolians on the east and the Knights of the Teutonic Order on the west. . . . Rich merchants would buy off the invaders, but, led by brilliant young Prince Alexander Nevsky, who had won a great victory over the Swedes some years before, the proletariat shoulder arms, lure the enemy onto the thin ice of Lake Peipus, drown many and capture the rest. . . .

ACTING: Splendid. The hero is a sort of Russian Errol Flynn while a minor brave man will remind you of Preston Foster. There's a pretty and talented young actress in the leading feminine rôle.

DIRECTION: Sergei ["Potemkin" and "Seven Days that Shook the World"] Eisenstein was at the megaphone. Nobody can achieve more magnificent effects than he, and nobody knows less than he does about when to stop. He's just like Tennyson's brook.

PHOTOGRAPHY, SETS, SCENERY, COSTUMES, ETC.: Great!

Evanston Kindergarten Pupils Hunt Easter Eggs

Children from the kindergarten and primary grades of the demonstration school of the National College of Education held their annual egg-rolling yesterday on the campus at 2770 Sheridan road, Evanston. The children all were between 4 and 8 years old and there were plenty of Easter baskets, rabbits, eggs, and candy to make every contestant a winner.

Looking at Hollywood
By Ed Sullivan

By Appointment to Their Majesties, the Public.

Hollywood, Cal., April 4.—If you were not aware of it already, the experience of living with a trainful of movie stars for four days teaches you that stardom carries with it the responsibility of being forever at the beck and call of John Public and his wife, Joan Public.

In comparison to a movie performer the goldfish swimming around in his glass bowl lives a life that is lonely and secluded. . . . It is not all beer and skittles, and when I say that, remember that your reporter is not of the too, too, too divine school of chroniclers.

I was having dinner with Jane Wyman and Gloria Dickson the night we arrived at Dodge City. The Wyman youngster had been suffering all day with a splitting headache. . . . The Dickson girl had been confined to her stateroom all day long because of an appendicitis attack, with ice bags strapped to her side and a nurse in attendance.

Dinner was to have been their first solid meal of the day, and we had to eat it within thirty minutes because of a dash into town for a broadcast.

They were midway through the soup course when a photographer came to the table: "They want you to pose with Hoot Gibson on the observation platform for the local paper," he told them. . . . They left the table immediately and never did get back to eat dinner. . . . After the photograph they signed autographs, met people, did the broadcast, and then made personal appearances at three theaters. . . . After the third theater appearance they loaded Miss Dickson into a car and rushed her back to the train, deathly ill. . . . It was all in a day's work.

Aboard the train was a youthful newspaper woman. . . . Like the disgruntled violinist of the symphony orchestra who didn't like music, this youngster adopted the pose that she didn't like movie actors or actresses and became exceedingly tiresome.

She told several movie actresses that she thought Hollywood people were dull and stupid, so I finally asked Rosemary Lane why some one of them didn't tell the pest that while it was obligatory on the star not to be rude, the obligation was mutual. . . . "You simply don't do that sort of thing, Ed," explained the polite Miss Lane.

I explained to her that newspaper men would not hesitate to tell off one of their own number who became an insulting nuisance, and that this par ticular pest wasn't representative o the press. . . . At last reports, how ever, the young lady was still explain ing to performers unlucky enough t run afoul of her that they were a very low order of humanity, and tha her movie assignments simply bore her to death.

You and you and I can suffer from ailments and get some measure o relief by squawking about them. . . Not so the movie star. . . . He or sh always has to present a shining fac to John Public. . . . Humphrey Bo gart split his left eye on a slamme door on the train and the concussion of the blow left him faint and dizzy You and you and I could get into be and nurse it. . . . But we were com ing to a station stop. . . . Bogar signed hundreds of autographs, pose with the local mayor for pictures . . . When the train pulled out h actually staggered to a chair, done i completely.

Wooing public favor is a twenty four hour a day industry. . . . Some like Col. Lindbergh, prove tempera mentally unsuited to the task and fl off the handle and out of favor. . . A few like Garbo are able to ru away from it all. . . . But for th majority of those before the public they have to keep smiling. . . . A minority, headed by Jack Dempsey Jim Farley, and Gable, find this n problem. . . . Physically and temper amentally, they are suited to the tas of shaking hands with thousands o people, signing thousands of pictures remembering names and faces an carrying on a voluminous correspond ence.

All headliners attain that rank b appointment to his majesty, the pub lic, and his majesty more often tha not is a captious taskmaker. . . Once a person reaches the white, ho glare of the spotlight, let him wal and talk softly. . . . If he is to b paid the homage due a superhuman then let him or her be prepared t accept superhuman penalties.

Because the spotlight serves als as a magnifying glass and venial sin become mortal sins, mistakes becom capital crimes, fallibility is a luxur that can never be indulged. . . The grass that grows in Bagdad-on the-Pacific looks a lot greener tha the grass in your own back yard, bu just remember that they do it wit mirrors. . . . It's only a process sho

Arrange Civic Assembly for Best in High Schools

Maj. John L. Griffith, chairman of the Chicago Youth week committee, announced yesterday that high school principals will select two outstanding students from each graduating class to represent their school at a civic assembly luncheon in the Hotel Sherman on April 21. The luncheon will be under auspices of the Executives' club.

THROUGH THE LOOKING GLASS

The Easter egg remains the very old but always appealing—and now fashionable—symbol of the season. You'll find Easter eggs such as you never dreamed of in the beauty departments these days.

Trifling little remembrances, sweet, attractive, and with lure for the ladies, are some perfume eggs of satin that open up to reveal tiny flacons of scent. These are all in soft pastels and the perfumes they house are varied and beautiful. A particularly appropriate choice, considering the season, is a lush lily fragrance. These aren't expensive and make charming small gifts.

Another little gift, also of the egg school, is the little basket with four blown glass eggs filled with bath oil. After the oil is used the little bottles can be used as bud vases. Scents are lilac, carnation, gardenia, and a blend in the scent of field flowers. The house that offers you these has another gift idea in the basket motif: Tiny ones of wicker, tied with a blithe bow. In these are single eggs, rather larger, also containing bath oil in the fragrances mentioned above. They're lots of fun, and the bath oils are the kind women like. Only a few drops of oil scent the water, the bath, and the user quite delightfully.

As we said last week, you'll find all sorts of Easter whimsies in the shops. And more are coming in every day. We recommend the perfume counters in particular. Perfumes reach a new high in popularity in spring. A new scent is the final perfect accent for new clothes.

The perfume you buy for the one you love will depend pretty much on her tastes and the kind of person she is. There is a trend this year to rather brisk fragrances, not too sweet, that go very well indeed with the crisp clothes with lingerie touches.

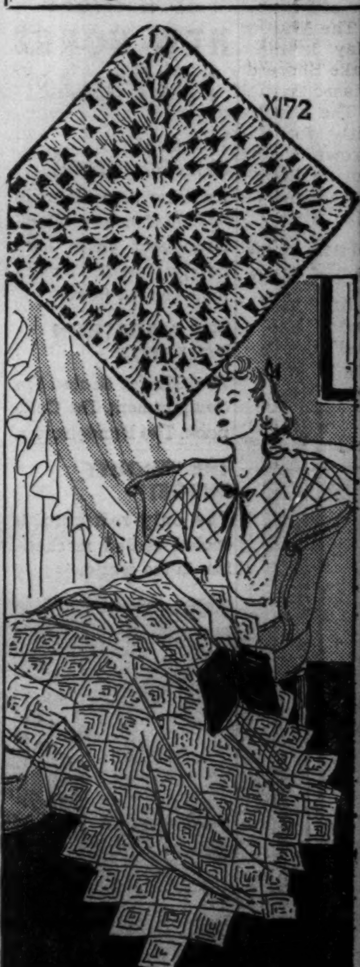
Crochet Design Creates Afghan Light in Weight



BY ELLEN BRUCE.

There are those of us who prefer afghans to be feather light. This pattern lends itself admirably to lightweight wools. The design is one of the simpler double crochet motifs, and is worked into a shell pattern. When the square medallions are set together one can discern a myriad of different designs.

For instructions in crocheting the shell stitch Afghan medallion, No. X-172, send 10 cents in stamps or coin to the Needlework Bureau, Chicago Tribune, 220 Fifth avenue, New York City.

Another Smart Small Hat for Easter

Fashion Experts Add Some Fun to Style Show

BY INDIA MOFFETT.

About two dozen of the five hundred women at the Fashion Group's style show yesterday wore hats that were suitable for a second wedding. The fashion authorities who planned the show had the model who was dressed as a bride for a second wedding wear a tiny white hat with misty pale pink veiling. And little white hats are immensely popular just now, although for ordinary daytime wear a woman is more apt to choose a black or a shocking pink veil than a flesh toned one.

Mrs. Charles S. Dewey Jr. was one of the many wearing white hats, and so was her companion, Mrs. Cyrus H. Adams III. Mrs. Dewey's was a high crowned, narrow brimmed one, with a wide black band encircling the crown, and Mrs. Adams' was a shallow, small sailor, with a red camellia and a flowing black veil trimming it.

Speaking of flowers, several new ways of wearing them were illustrated in the show. One young woman in a simple black evening dress had a sheaf of Easter lilies in the small of her back, and another wore a chevron of red and white carnations and blue bachelor buttons at the top of the breast pocket of her blue suit.

Pictorially, the bride and her attendants always are the highlight of every fashion show, and Miss Charlotte O'Brien in a white piqué bridal gown and four lovely maids in sunny yellow piqué with rust color accessories, were no exception yesterday.

From a style standpoint, however, the peak of the show was the episode "Fun in Fashions" in which all the absurdities and frivolities of this frippery, feminine season were spotlighted. For instance, the lunch basket pocketbook; the "Chamberlain," which is an ornament that hangs on the arm and really isn't intended to be used for rain; a ruffled black chiffon parasol that is supposed to be carried at night; nonmatching gloves; wisps of colored artificial hair that are combined with flowers as hair ornaments for evening wear; bows everywhere, even on streamers of veiling as if they were pig-tails, and black lace pantaloons that show below a black cocktail dress.

The Housewife

Looking for a new mirror to hang above a pretty, feminine dressing table? We've found just the thing. It's smart and different because it is framed, as you'd frame a picture, with a wooden molding that shelves steeply in toward the glass. The frame is box-like in shape.

And one we liked especially was covered in a red and white checked material. You could, of course, use the dressing table flounce fabric, if you wished to create a close harmony between your mirror and your dressing table.

These new accessories are not expensive. EDITH WEIGLE.

Pastel Wools Are Smart for Easter Parade

BY RHEA SEEGER.

It's a frenzied rush for the proper Easter regalia these last few days. Optimists, gambling with the weather, are spending the money on suits. The conservatives are buying costumes, the suits with carefully planned topcoats that repeat either color or fabric of the slim suit.

Enthusiastic shoppers are giving in to the lure of frills and silk suits, but with their fingers crossed, hoping for warm breezes. All the hat shoppers have flung caution to the winds, choosing fetching bits of gay color and pastel blooms without any jittery worries about temperature.

Pastel colored wools and tweed mixtures make some especially spring like finds . . . these are cozily warm, almost windbreakers, yet colorful enough to meet that desire for something light and Easterish.

Shepherd check outfits are going out like mad. The swinging circular skirts are the smartest when topped with brief snug fitting boleros or with frilled sheer white blouses under the jackets or boleros. Combinations of dark monotone and checks are extremely smart. . . . the dark solid color is worn over the slim sheath skirt and the rest of the outfit is black and white, navy and white, or brown and white checks.

Others are choosing wool coats teamed with contrasting colored crêpe dresses or with prints as the basic all purpose outfit as well as the new Easter ensemble. These wool coats are miracles of clever designing . . . soft details, interesting sleeves, nipped in waistlines, and such important details as scroll banding, inset pockets, and the like. New spring coats similar to these costume coats maybe purchased without the dress.

Checked coats and striped coats are unquestionably the spotlight stealers of every showing and slim, younger shoppers are taking the available collections right out of circulation as soon as they were unpacked.

Rostrum Reply.

Richard Tawney, professor from the London School of Economics, who is now lecturing at the University of Chicago, responded to a long introduction the other evening by saying, "I feel very much like the lord of Devonshire, who said he dreamed that he was giving a speech before the house of lords, and when he woke up he was!"

PAVEMENT SONG.

No sweet intrigue nor bold deceit
Lies in the path of urban feet;
They walk with timid, fearful tread—
A cortège of the almost dead
Who follow where no field lies fallow,
Nor where the sea runs slow and shallow,
Nor ever cross where bridge is narrow—
They know but pedestrian arrow.

Sprig Cold.

Miss Katherine H. Müller returned a box of powder to one of the large department stores. The young woman at the perfume counter, who had a very bad head cold, okayed the return and told her to take the article to Eileen Lovett next to the elevators. Miss Müller repeated the instructions. "Eileen Lovett, next to the elevators?" she inquired. "Dess," said the perfume buyer. When she reached the elevators Miss Müller inquired of a floorman the whereabouts of Eileen Lovett.

"Aisle eleven? The other side of the elevators," he answered.

BLUMS-NORTH EVANSTON TOWN & COUNTRY

The Blind Side

By Patricia Wentworth

[Copyright: 1939: By Patricia Wentworth Turnbull.]

SYNOPSIS.

Ross Craddock's father turned Craddock House into flats and installed his old maid cousins, Mary and Lucy Craddock, in a flat apiece, on either side of the one occupied by Ross. After Mary's death Lucy prepares to take a trip, despite an order from Ross to vacate her flat because she objects to his attentions to her foolish young niece, Mavis Grey. Their cousin, Peter Renshaw, is staying in Mary's flat while he settles her estate. Lucy gives her cousin, Lee Fenton, permission to use her flat while she is away. Lee, who is in love with Peter, has just escaped an unpleasant experience with a married man. Rush, the porter, mutters belligerently to Lee against Ross. Mrs. Green, the charwoman, says she is ill and asks Lee for a drink of brandy. That evening Peter prevents Bobby Foster, Mavis suitor, from making a scene in a night club where Mavis is with Ross. Peter is awakened in the night by a crash. He sees Mavis running from Ross' flat and Ross cut and bleeding. Mavis had thrown a decanter at him. Peter lets Mavis stay the rest of the night in his flat. Later he is again awakened and sees Mavis again coming from Ross' flat. She says she went to retrieve her purse. Lee awakens from a nightmare to find herself covered with blood. Her bloody footsteps lead from Ross' door. Lee knows she walks in her sleep. In terror she washes away the bloodstains and goes to tell Peter. Ross' valet arrives and finds Ross has been shot and killed. He summons the police. An old maid tenant tells how she saw Mavis coming from Ross' flat twice. It is learned that Lucy did not go on her trip and that she arrived at the home of a friend at 3 in the morning. Rush turns over to the police a cigaret case he found belonging to Bobby Foster. Lucy admits coming to Craddock House after 2 a. m. and seeing a figure hurrying out of the door and going up to find Ross murdered. She fled after finding Mavis' compact. Lucy tells that Ross was married years before to an actress, that he was never divorced and had lately stopped paying her. Bobby Foster disappears and he is charged with the murder. Mavis also disappears.

INSTALMENT XXXIII.

A LOST KEY.

The funeral took place next day. Since Lucy Craddock insisted on attending, Lee could do no less. The utmost efforts to keep time and place from becoming known had not prevented a crowd from assembling. Lucy wept, Lee looked as if she was going to faint, and Peter wondered when they would all stop living in a nightmare and be able to return to the decencies of private life.

When it was over he went to see Inspector Lamb, and came back from the interview a good deal depressed in spirits.

"I thought I was on the ground floor, but there's a basement, and old Lamb has just let me down into it with a bump."

He cast himself down on the floor beside Lee and laid his head against her knee.

"You don't feel as if you'd like to kiss me and say a few nice womanly things like 'Darling, we've still got each other,' and 'It is always darkest before the dawn'?"

Lee smiled a little wanly.

"Peter, if I kiss you I shall probably begin to cry, and that would be about the last straw, because Lucy never stops, does she?"

"I shall divorce you if you cry."

"You can't divorce me until we are married. What did the Lamb say that cast you down into the basement?"

"He'd had a report from Birmingham—about Aggie, Ross' widow, you know—and it's no good. She's got a room in quite a respectable sort of lodging house—been there about a week—and the police and at least three people are prepared to swear that she was there on Tuesday night, because she was taken ill and waked the landlady up at 2 in the morning, and her husband—the landlady's husband, not Aggie's—went round and woke up a chemist to get some stuff for her. Some kind of a heart attack, and she'd run out of what she takes for it."

"That seems very convenient," said Lee slowly.

Peter twisted round so that he could look at her.

"Do you think it's too convenient?"

She drew a long breath.

"I don't know, but—2 in the morning is such a frightfully difficult time to have an alibi for."

There was a knock on the outer door. Peter got to his feet.

It was Rush in his Sunday suit, and the black tie he had worn for the funeral. He was clothed in dignity and gloom, and had in his hand a small brass tray covered with keys. The minute the door was open he began a speech which bore every sign of having been rehearsed.

"Seeing as you're master here now, Mr. Peter, and the police cleared out, thank 'eavens, I should like to know what about me and what about the keys. All here present and correct except Miss Lemoine's that she's took away with her, No. 4, and the Miss Holdsworths, No. 3, and Mrs. and Miss Tatterley, No. 2. They've taken theirs, though I've always said and always tells them that it's not safe. Suppose there was a fire. But all the others is here. Lady Trent, No. 6, and Potters, 10 and 11, and Connells, No. 5—they left theirs with Mrs. Green for her to clean up after them.

"And that's another thing that didn't ought to be done, and I'd like to get that straight with you here and now, Mr. Peter—keys is my responsibility, and any of these daily women that's got any cleaning to do they can come to me for the key and 'and it back at the end of the day. But Mrs. Green, she got these keys direct, Potters' and Connells'—had them for days and made fuss enough about giving them up. But I would have them, and when I told her I'd mention it to the police she give in. And give me her notice too, and won't be no loss."

"Hadn't you better come in?" said Peter. "And what do you expect me to do with all those keys? I always lose my own."

Rush came as far as the threshold.

"And when you speak about losing keys," he said in his severest voice, "there's a matter that I'll mention. Mr. Ross, he lost one of the keys of his flat a matter of ten days ago. There's three keys to every flat, all Yales, and Mr. Ross, he lost one of his. In my opinion Mr. Ross left that key sticking in his door and some one pinched it. I've found it there before now myself and got sworn at for my pains."

Peter took him by the arm, and pulled him in, and shut the door.

"Look here, Rush, that might be important. Did you tell the police?"

"What's the good of them? No, I didn't tell them, but I'm telling you. And when Mr. Ross forgot himself and as good as said I'd been meddling with his papers I said to him then, 'Mr. Ross,' I said, 'what about that key you left sticking in the door? Some one took that key, and some one took it because they was a-going to use it'—that's what I said. But now I've got something else to say. You find the one that took that key and you'll find the one that shot Mr. Ross."

Peter made a queer sort of a face.

"A bit drastic, Rush. How do you make that out?"

"If I find the cat in the larder lapping up the milk, and come another day there's the fish missing, well, I don't have to make it out that it was the cat took both. You find who wanted a key to Mr. Ross' flat and why they wanted it, and you'll find out who shot him all right."

Peter looked hard at him.

"Ross made a row with you about his papers. What exactly did he say?"

"Plenty. But what it came to was that some one had been turning over the papers in his dispatch box. I'd Peterson's key whilst he had a day off. Mr. Ross was out all day, and he'd left his own bunch of keys lying on the writing table. Mortal careless he was. And next day he had me in and said I'd been at his dispatch box—said his papers had been all turned over. And I reminded him then about the key as he'd lost, but he was past listening to reason, so I just turned my back and walked out.

"And there was that sniveling hen of a Mrs. Green a-listening on the landing, and I'll go bail it was she as told the police I'd been given the sack. And that's what I'd like to know about, Mr. Peter. Thirty years I've been here barring the war, and I'm not taking no notice from no one, but if I'm not going to be trusted I'll be giving you my notice now, and I'll not be responsible for the keys any more."

"Good Lord, Rush!" said Peter. "What do you expect me to do with your keys, or your notice either? Why, I remember your putting me across your knee and giving me half a dozen of the best when I broke Miss Lucy's window with my catapult."

Rush relaxed grimly.

"A proper young rip, you was! And it wasn't the window altogether—you'd got me on the side of the head if I remember rightly, and if it had been my eye where should I have been?"

Peter clapped him on the shoulder.

"Where you are now—porter at Craddock house, I expect. Get along on with you, and take your keys with you!"

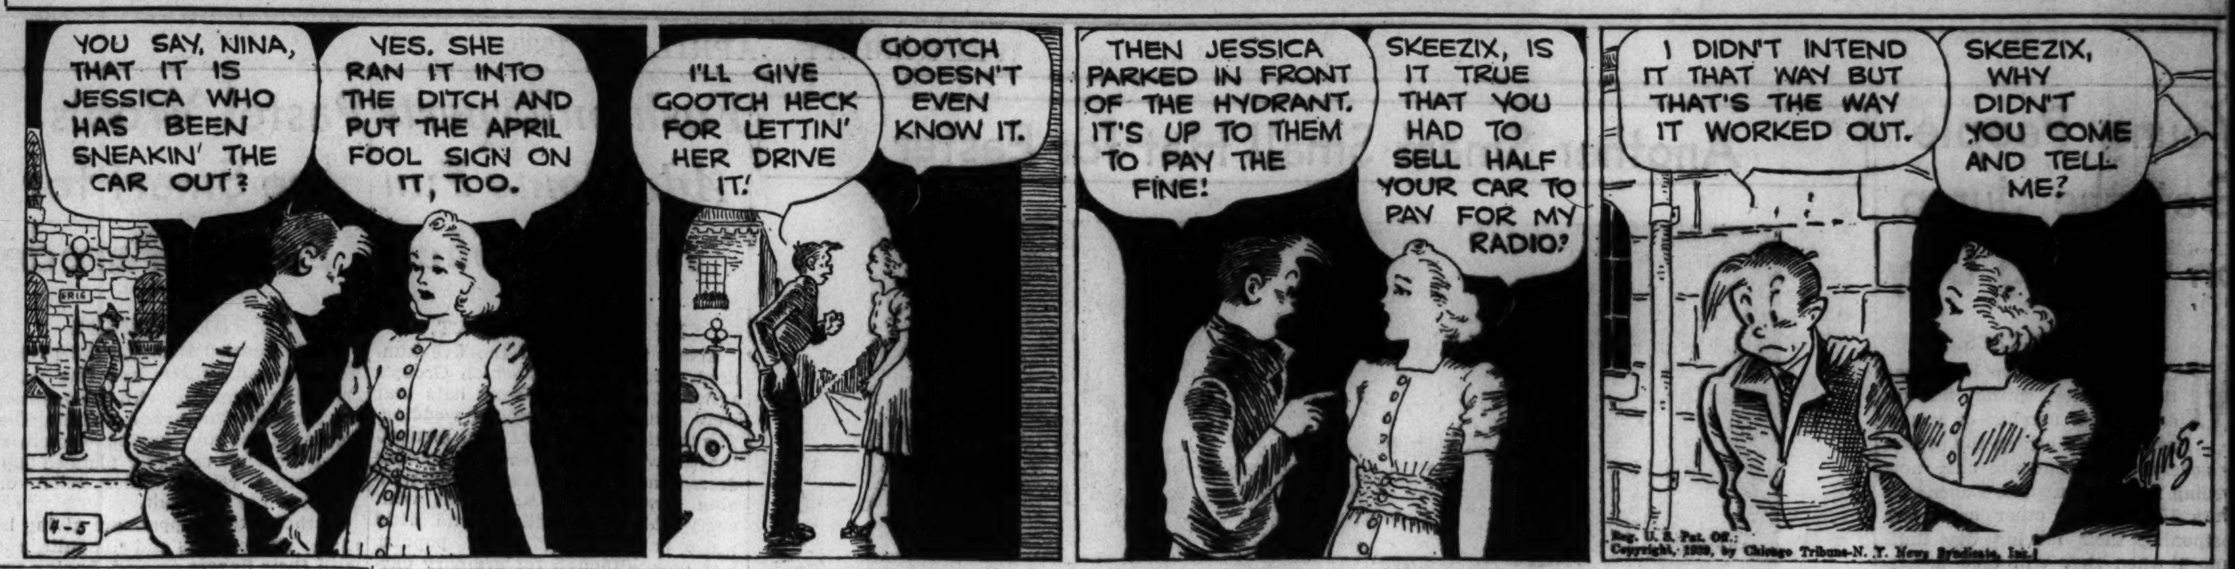
HELP STOMACH DIGEST FOOD

Without Laxatives—and You'll Eat Everything from Soup to Nuts

The stomach should digest two pounds of food daily. When you eat heavy, greasy, coarse or rich foods or when you are nervous, hurried or chew poorly—your stomach often pours out too much fluid. Your food doesn't digest and you have gas, heartburn, nausea, pain or sour stomach. You feel sour, sick and upset all over. Doctors say never take a laxative for stomach pain. It is dangerous and foolish. It takes those little black tablets called Bell-ans for Indigestion to make the excess stomach fluids harmless, relieve distress in no time and put you back on your feet. Relief is so quick it is amazing and one 25c package proves it. Ask for Bell-ans for Indigestion.

GASOLINE ALLEY—INFORMATION, PLEASE



YOU SAY, NINA, THAT IT IS JESSICA WHO HAS BEEN SNEAKIN' THE CAR OUT?
YES. SHE RAN IT INTO THE DITCH AND PUT THE APRIL FOOL SIGN ON IT, TOO.
GOOTCH DOESN'T EVEN KNOW IT.
THEN JESSICA PARKED IN FRONT OF THE HYDRANT. IT'S UP TO THEM TO PAY THE FINE!
SKEEZIX, IS IT TRUE THAT YOU HAD TO SELL HALF YOUR CAR TO PAY FOR MY RADIO?
I DIDN'T INTEND IT THAT WAY BUT THAT'S THE WAY IT WORKED OUT.
SKEEZIX, WHY DIDN'T YOU COME AND TELL ME?

Olives Vary in Type to Please the Epicures

BY MARY MEADE.

[Copyright: 1939: By The Chicago Tribune.]

The people who pack olives in cans and glass jars do not lack originality. They've taught us to like our olives plain and fancy, big and little, ripe, green, and green-ripe.

Green olives come stuffed with pimiento, with celery, with anchovy, with nuts and other edible bits, medium sized and large, for cocktail hour consumption. Ripe olives are truly American, mild in flavor, richer in fat content, and less popular, on the whole, although their flavor is delicate and delicious.

Ripe-green olives are quite new. They have the soft texture and mildness of flavor of the ripe olive, but retain more of the appearance of the green olive. They are green, spotted here and there with ripe olive brownness, and they are the joy and delight of the olive addict.

Big and little olives are equally good to eat. Size has nothing to do with quality. There's more eating in a big olive than in a little one, obviously, and for that reason some persons swear by the fat ones.

Olives have been prized fruit for thousands of years. They first were cultivated in Assyria. From there olive tees were transplanted to Mediterranean regions, and in 1769 Franciscan missionaries introduced them to California. Olive growing is a major industry in that state now.

Olives are served more often whole, as a relish, than in any other way. But they blend excellently with hot dishes of many kinds. Green or ripe olives chopped [and ripe olives may be purchased chopped] may be added to chicken à la king, scalloped chicken, creamed meat or vegetable dishes, meat loaves and similar combinations. They put a zip into innumerable sauces and gravies.

Add a few chopped olives to any white sauce for a creamed vegetable and see if you don't like the flavor. Don't waste the olive juice. Use it as part of the liquid for the sauce. Use it to moisten dressings or to flavor soups. It's a shame ever to pour olive brine down a drain.

In salads and salad dressings olives may play a major part. Jellied fruit or vegetable salads with chopped or sliced olives, and olive brine in the gelatin mixture, have won deserved popularity among party hostesses and party guests, and now they are appearing frequently on plain, nonparty occasions. Chicken, fish, meat and egg salad combinations need the tang of pimiento stuffed green olives, sliced, and a little of the juice in their dressing.

Did you ever try adding sliced green or ripe olives to Waldorf salad, that usual apple, celery, and nut combination? Delicious, utterly delicious!

Now, before I'm through, let me suggest two ways of serving ripe olives as appetizer or meat course accompaniment. 1. Heat them in their own brine and serve hot. 2. Drain and put into a bowl which has been well rubbed with garlic. Sprinkle with olive oil, stir until olives are coated, cover the bowl, and chill thoroughly until ready to serve.

Baking a perfect cake is a science, not an art, and a science that can be easily learned. The information is all there in Mary Meade's booklet, "Baking the Perfect Cake." It's on sale for 20 cents at the Tribune Public Service offices, 1 South Dearborn street and Tribune Tower or will be mailed for 23 cents in stamps.

NEGLECT—or ignorance—about feminine hygiene is one fault most husbands cannot forgive. If there is any doubt in your mind about this important subject, ask your doctor about "Lysol". For more than 50 years it has earned the confidence of so many doctors, nurses, and wives. Probably no other product is so widely used for this important purpose, as "Lysol". On sale at all drug counters.

otel. At the concert hall the Chiago Chamber Music association will e presenting a program of first perormances by four Chicago composers: lizabeth Marshall, David Van Vactor, arrington Shortall, and Florian Mueller. In the hotel Mrs. Irene astle McLaughlin is holding a preiew of the picture "The Story of ernon and Irene Castle" as a benet for Orphans of the Storm.

Mrs. McLaughlin was in Hollywood or several months during the makng of the picture in which Ginger ogers and Fred Astaire take the arts of the dancing Castles. The icture will not be shown until 9:15 'clock, so that diners will not have o rush too much over coffee and randy.

The musical will start at 8:30, so hose who are going to it will have o hasten a bit or miss some of the elicate music that will be played y Leonard Sorkin and Royal Johnon, violinists; Milton Preves, viola layer, and Daniel Saidenberg, viooncellist. Miss Jane Anderson, piant, and Ralph Johnson, flautist, will e assisting artists.

The John C. Murphys, Mrs. Merill Hubbard, the junior William R. dells, and Mrs. Ogden West are mong those who will have dinner uests preceding the musical.

Mrs. Leslie Wheeler and the eorge Richardsons are some of the any Lake Foresters who will give inner parties before the picture. Several of the prettiest young girls on e north shore will usher, wearing ostumes that were worn by the star the picture, and that are copies the gowns worn by Irene Castle a dancer. The ushers will be the isses Sylvia Peter, Phyllis Peter, ary Hale, Tita Johnson, and Judy utler.

Reveal Engagement f Barbara Bentley.

News of romantic interest is brightning the brief Easter holiday and nding color to many vacation time arties. At home for a few days from arah Lawrence college, Miss Barara Bentley gathered some of her ose friends for luncheon at the eorgian hotel in Evanston yesteray to tell them that she is engaged Charles Douglas Kayser, son of rs. Charles Douglas Kayser and e late Dr. Kayser of Mount Vernon, . Y. The announcement is being ade formally today by Miss Benty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur entley of Chicago.

Miss Bentley, who prepared at the oycemore school, will be graduated Sarah Lawrence in June. She and rs. Trevor Cushman Jr. [Rosemary auer] were introduced to society at tea-dance at the Blackstone hotel the 1936-'37 season. The former iss Sauer's marriage took her to elrose, Mass., to live, and Miss Benty's undoubtedly will take her east, o. No plans have been made for e wedding, however. Mr. Kayser is graduate of the University of Pennlvania.

hyllis Stanton Will Be Bride.

Further romantic news comes from r. and Mrs. George Stanton Chaner of Glencoe, who are announcing e engagement of their daughter, hyllis Stanton, to George Nevin eecher Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. eorge Nevin Beecher of Evanston.

Miss Channer, who attended the gontz school, is a newly elected ember of the Evanston Junior eague. Mr. Beecher spent two years Amherst and finished his college ork at Northwestern university. No ate has been set for the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Channer are giving family dinner on Friday night to elebrate the engagement, and Miss hanner and her fiancé will enterin in the Channer home on Sunday vening.

The Art institute is making plans celebrate Easter by having Dudley rafts Watson give "Monsalvat" on unday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. lackstone hall will be especially decrated through the kindness of Mrs. ames Ward Thorne.

"Monsalvat" is the story of the oly mountain in the north of Spain, e traditional biding place of the oly Grail. Dr. Watson will tell of actual pilgrimage up the mounin.

According to CULBERTSON

[Copyright: 1939: By Ely Culbertson.]

Many of the best plays to be found at the bridge table require a complicated technique. Others, however, are essentially simple. Take the hold-up play, for example. It should not be difficult for any experienced player to figure out when a hold-up play is advisable and when it is not.

South, dealer.

NORTH
♠ 8 4 3
♥ A 9 7 6
♦ K 10 7

WEST
♠ A 10 7 5 2
♥ 8 4 3

EAST
♠ Q 9
♥ K 5 2
♦ 6 5 4 3 2
♣ Q 9 4

SOUTH
♥ Q J 10
♦ A Q J
♣ A 7 3 2

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 no trump	Pass	3 no trump	Pass
Pass	Pass

Technically speaking, to justify raising an opening one no trump bid to three, responder should hold two and one-half honor tricks or more, unless he has a long suit with two tricks. In this case, however, North had intermediate cards to bolster his two honor tricks and therefore was correct in his bid.

West opened the five of spades and East played the queen. Right here declarer had to resist the natural impulse to grab the trick. Most players in the South position would jump at the chance to capture the queen with the king and only after doing so would stop to think of their next move. This declarer made no such error. Before playing from his own hand he considered the future course of play. It was immediately obvious that the establishment of either the heart or the club suit would involve finesses into the East hand. If declarer accepted his spade king on the first trick and it later developed that East had the heart king, a spade return through the J-6 might easily be fatal. Declarer could not be sure whether West had started with five spades or with only four, but in either case a play was available by which the danger of losing many spade tricks could be avoided. That play was simply to make East a present of the first trick.

Note that after that it did not matter whether East still had two spades or only one. In the former event West's suit could be only four long, hence not dangerous. In the latter event East could return a spade at the second trick, but later, if he gained the lead with the heart king or club queen, would have no more spades.

East returned the spade nine and West captured declarer's jack with the ace. This play clearly told declarer that East was now out of spades, because if West had opened a four card suit he would have conceded the second trick to declarer in order to leave a spade communication card in the East hand. West shifted to the diamond nine on the theory that this was not likely to do any harm and that it might do good. Declarer won in his own hand and had to consider the relative merits of the finesses in hearts and clubs. After only a moment's thought he properly elected to set up dummy's heart suit. The reason was this: Even if the heart finesse were to lose, three heart tricks would be available and these, with two top clubs, three diamonds, and one spade, would round out the contract. But if the club finesse lost there would be no assurance of three club tricks, since a 3-3 break of the suit still would be required.

The heart queen was led and passed and East won with the king. Declarer won the diamond return, cashed the heart jack, and overtook the ten spot in order to cash the nine. Now, since he still had spades and diamonds safely controled, he could try the club finesse for an extra trick. He returned to his own club ace and led to the jack. When it lost to East's queen the rest of the tricks could be claimed by the declarer.

The Cause of Discontentment May Be Simple

BY GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS.

The discontented children I hear about in my correspondence usually are the very little ones. Very often I can read, either in the facts given in the letter or between the lines, the reason for the discontent. The "why" often is a mother who will not take the time, or isn't interested enough, to live the days through with her little boy or girl, live them in all the details so fascinating to the very young. Their world is so essentially home and you at this period in their lives, that mother must shine on them if they're to be happy.

But occasionally this discontentedness appears a little later. When it does we may have to look for deeper causes. When the child of 7 or 8, or older, shows a chronic discontent or fault-finding attitude about everything we must do some thoughtful scouting around in our search for causes. Being annoyed and blaming it all on an unpleasant disposition is not going to lead us anywhere at all.

In one case a child of 8 was torn [it amounts to that sometimes when a life has been rooted] from the city and house where he was born and the nurse who was part of that life, to surroundings and neighborhood associations different and uncongenial. He began to have weeping spells and his whole digestive tract became disturbed. His school, too, was not the right one for him. After several years of worry his parents were able to manage their lives better. The boy's state of mind and body improved, and they then realized the cause.

So, in a case like this or a less acute one look first for surface causes. Scrutinize health. And then look for deeper origins for the change in behavior.

Lake Geneva Church Opens Celebration of Centennial

Lake Geneva, Wis., April 4.—[Special.]—A three day celebration of the 100th anniversary of the First Congregational church opened tonight with a reception in the newly decorated church parlors. One of the earliest members of the church was Gen. John W. Boyd, father of Miss Florence Boyd of Lake Geneva. He was a senator from this district in 1848, when Wisconsin was admitted to the Union. Gen. Boyd was a teacher in the men's class in the Sunday school. One Sunday soon after the civil war started, not a pupil appeared, all having enlisted.

EASTER BASKET CAKE
VELVETY CAKE AMBROSIA FILLING YUM!
IMAGINE! A FANCY LIGHT CAKE—YET TAKES ONLY 2 EGGS. ANOTHER WONDERFUL CRISCO RECIPE!
THEY SAY I'M A BIG HELP! I MAKE GRAND CAKES SO EASY, SO FAST. I'M THE NEW CREAMIER CRISCO!
CRISCO
NEW GYRO CHURN PROCESS makes Crisco a creamy wonder—so easy to blend!

Want to be sure your white cakes will turn out smooth as velvet—light as a feather? Then see how much a modern shortening can help—try the new creamier Crisco!

You'll be amazed at the wonderful easy-blending texture given to Crisco by the new million-dollar Gyro-Churn Process. Why, just one look and one dip into the new Gyro-Churn Crisco will make you marvel at its glossy creaminess!

Why, now you can make a cake without one stroke of hard creaming! You can add other ingredients right away (instead of little by little in the slow old-fashioned way!). "How easy—how quick—with new Crisco!" women say.

Feel confident of light delicious cakes with Crisco. See how your most critical friends praise the delicate flavor of Crisco cakes. Try the new Crisco today!

EASTER BASKET CAKE
½ cup Crisco
1¼ cups sugar
2 eggs, separated
grated rind 1 orange
½ cup orange juice
1 teaspoon lemon juice
¼ cup water
2¼ cups flour
3 tsps. baking powder
½ tsp. salt

Blend Crisco with sugar, egg yolks, orange rind. Beat till fluffy (so easy with new creamier Crisco.) Mix orange juice, lemon juice and water. Add to Crisco mixture alternately with sifted dry ingredients. Fold in egg whites, beaten stiff but not dry. Bake in a "Criscoed" oblong loaf pan (8" x 4" x 2½") in moderate oven (350° F.) 1 hour and 15 minutes. When cool, hollow out cake to make a shallow basket; save crumbs for—

AMBROSIA FILLING: Add 2 tablespoons sugar to ¾ cup of heavy cream; beat till stiff. Mix in ¾ cup cake crumbs, ⅛ teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon lemon juice. Add an orange cut in pieces, ¼ cup each of grated pineapple, chopped maraschino cherries, shredded cocoanut. Pile into hollowed cake; chill one hour. To make handle: Use gumdrops and gum sticks. Thread gumdrops on medium weight wire, leaving spaces between for gum sticks; split gum sticks lengthwise and press around wire. All Measurements Level.

CUB DOCTOR SAYS REST WILL CURE BARTELL

CHAMACO, NEW STAR, CAPTURES BILLIARD TITLE

Joe Chamaco.

New York, April 4.—(AP)—Joe Chamaco, virtually an unknown contestant when the world's three cushion billiard tournament started last Jan. 16 climaxed his spectacular playing today by winning the title. He clinched it this afternoon by defeating Frank Scoville of Buffalo, N. Y., 50 to 31, in 56 innings, mathematically eliminating Jay Bozeman of Chicago, last of the other eight players to remain in the running.

Chamaco, a Mexican who makes his headquarters in New York, in completely dominating the long drawn out tournament, set a new world's record for a high run two weeks ago when he made eighteen consecutive shots. The new champion was born thirty-eight years ago in Guayamas, Sonora, Mexico.

First Champion Since Cochran.

Clyde Storer of Chicago, president of the National Billiard association, said Chamaco is the first world's champion recognized by the association since Welker Cochran of San Francisco won the title. Cochran and other star three-cushion players withdrew from the association shortly afterward. Chamaco will receive $2,500 of the $10,000 tournament prize money, Storer said. The tournament will end April 14.

Chamaco's afternoon triumph over Scoville was his forty-ninth as against sixteen defeats. Chamaco scored his fiftieth victory by defeating Scoville in the night game, 50 to 25, in 46 innings. All contestants are scheduled to play seventy-two games.. Bozeman has won forty-six and lost twenty-four games.

JACKSON, M'COURT SPLIT.

Cleveland, O., April 4.—(AP)—Clarence Jackson of Detroit and Charles McCourt, Cleveland, split even today in two world's championship billiard tournament matches. Jackson won the afternoon game, 50 to 18, in 39 innings, and McCourt won the evening match 50 to 49 in 47 innings. Jackson had a high run of eight in each match.

HALL WINS TWICE.

Allen Hall of Chicago scored a double victory over Art Thurnblad of Kenosha, Wis., yesterday in the round robin three cushion tourney. Hall beat Thurnblad in the afternoon, 50 to 21, and 50 to 17, in 31 innings at night. Hall's high run was ten in the night match.

NORTHWESTERN WINS, 8 TO 2, FROM LOUISIANA STATE

Baton Rouge, La., April 4.—[Special.]—The Northwestern university baseball team, beaten yesterday, won the second game of the two game series with Louisiana State, 8 to 2, today. John Goldak, Northwestern pitcher, held Louisiana State to four hits, one of which was a home run by Radovich, Louisiana State hurler.

The game was called at the end of seven innings to enable Northwestern to catch a train for Tuscaloosa, Ala., where the Wildcats play the University of Alabama tomorrow. Score:

Northwestern ....012 102 2—8 10 11
Louisiana State..........011 000 0—2 4 5

DARTMOUTH IS VICTOR OVER N. U. FENCERS, 9 TO 8

Northwestern university's fencing team wound up its season last night by losing to Dartmouth, 9 to 8, in Patten gymnasium.

Dartmouth won the foil contests, 5 to 4, and the sabers, 3 to 1. The Wildcats won the epee matches, 3 to 1.

Bill Meyer led Dartmouth with two points in the saber competition and one each in epee and foil. Northwestern's Cliff Groh, No. 2 foil man in the Big Ten, made a clean sweep of his three matches.

In the Wake of the News

BY ARCH WARD.

THE congratulations of amateur boxing fans in the middle west, to which we would like to add our own, are due Johnny Walsh and his remarkable squad at the University of Wisconsin. . . . Undefeated in dual competition with the strongest opponents in the land, the Badgers were the individual stars of the national collegiate tournament, winning four of the eight championships. . . . This is additional evidence that the best fighters in the world come from the central section of the United States. . . . Chicago's Golden Gloves tournaments have established the fact beyond dispute. . . . New York, whose tournament extends up and down the Atlantic coast, has been able to win only three out of 12 intercity matches with Chicago and has had no victory at all since 1934. . . . Our Chicago winners annually meet the pick of Europe's fighting forces. . . . Never have they been defeated and only once have they been tied. . . . Members of the national collegiate boxing rules committee in attendance at the banquet in honor of the Wisconsin team at Madison Monday night dwelled at length on the preparations for the 1940 Olympics. . . . We have Olympic competition every year right here in Chicago and take it as a matter of routine. . . . With rare exceptions the world's amateur boxing talent is limited to Europe and the United States. . . .

Chicago Golden Gloves through its intercity and international competition engages almost every young fighter of consequence in the two continents. . . . The entrants run into hundreds of thousands. . . . You can accept it as fact right now that American representatives in the 1940 Olympics will be substantially the young men you have seen in Golden Gloves. . . . Europe's forces will embrace the glove wielders you have seen and will see in Chicago Stadium. . . . Which leads up to what we are trying to say. . . . The international match this year will be held at the Stadium May 12. . . . The personnel of the European team will be determined in a championship tournament at Dublin April 20 to 22, to which 16 nations are sending their best fighters. . . . It's all as simple as that. . . . We don't need committees from the National Collegiate association, the Amateur Athletic union, or the army and navy. . . . We don't need to spend four years worrying about financing the bouts. . . . All we need is the continued support of Chicago's boxing fans and in return we shall present to you the Olympic boxing games every spring, not once every four years.

And You May Know.

Long, long I called to you across the years
To save you from the pitfalls on your way,
To tell you my anxieties and fears—
But, ah, you were so busy with your play!
Now from the bed of pain on which you lie
You lift your eyes imploringly to me,
And I can fel the anguish of your cry:
"Why have you left me in my misery?"

Some day you, too, may raise a warning hand
To turn a loved one from a thorny lane,
A wayward friend who will not understand
What though you call and call to him again;
And you may know the heartaches that accrue
When from his misery he calls to you.

SYRACUSE BACK STRICKEN AFTER OPERATION; DIES

Syracuse, N. Y., April 4.—[Special.]—Stanley Johnson of Concord, N. H., full back on the Syracuse university football team, died in University hospital early today after several blood transfusions.

Teammates and fraternity brothers volunteered blood when Johnson's condition became serious after he developed pneumonia following an operation on a leg injury. He went to the hospital a week ago for treatment of a calcified muscle in his left thigh.

TWO CANDIDATES FOR DERBY GIVEN MILE WORKOUTS

Louisville, Ky., April 4.—[Special.]—Trainer Roscoe Goose sent two of his Kentucky Derby candidates through a mile workout today at Churchill Downs. Tack Point went the distance in 1:46 4-5 and Lightspur in 1:50 3-5. Lightspur is the property of John Marsch and Tack Point is owned by Mrs. Marsch and Dr. John Klein.

OHIO PAIR ROLLS 1,405 TO LEAD A. B. C. DOUBLES

Team on Earlier Squad Hits 1,394.

Cleveland, O., April 4.—[Special.]—In one of the greatest afternoons of bowling in the history of the American Bowling congress tournament, Phil Icuss and Murray Fowler of Steubenville, O., rolled 1,405 to replace Otto Jensen and Horace Fisbeck of Terre Haute, Ind., as the doubles leaders. Earlier in the afternoon Jensen and Fisbeck had shot 1,394 to set the second highest total in the thirty-nine year old tournament.

Icuss Totals 684.

The Steubenville, O., pair turned in games of 455, 483, 467. A split on top of seven strikes in the second game prevented them from beating the 1,415 record of Gillie Zunker and Frank Benkovic of Milwaukee, made in 1933 in Columbus, O.

Icuss, a 28 year old tanner mill employé, totaled 223, 237, 224 while Fowler hit 232, 246, 243 for 721. Fowler drew the 7-10 split in the eighth frame of the last game.

Fowler, a one armed bowling alley owner, then rolled 589 in the singles and took first place in the all events with 1,973. He hit 663 in the five man competition.

Jensen Bowls 701.

Jensen bowled 254, 224, 223 for 701, while his partner rolled 223, 234, 236 for 693 for the third best doubles score in the tournament's history. An open tenth frame prevented the Hoosiers from establishing an all-time high. Jensen, a veteran of twenty national tournaments, barely hit the No. 1 pin in the tenth frame, leaving the 2, 4, 8 pins standing. He picked off the two front pins and Fisbeck followed with three straight strikes. Had Jensen, a 46 year old bowling alley proprietor, struck on his first ball a new record would have been established.

The old second high score of 1,380 was rolled by the Thoma brothers, Clarence and Harry, of Chicago when they won the tournament in 1924.

LONG ISLAND U. SIGNS KEN STRONG TO COACH BACKS

New York, April 4.—[Special.]—Ken Strong, one of the greatest kickers in football history, will assist Head Coach Clair F. Bee with the Long Island university football team. Strong will be in charge of the kickers and also will coach the back field.

Strong was a back field star at New York university and went on to stardom in the professional ranks with the New York Giants.

Coach Bee will start spring football on April 17. A nine game schedule has been prepared for Long Island, which will make its first appearance on a gridiron this fall since 1931.

Smick, Michigan Star, to Coach at Manistee

Ann Arbor, Mich., April 4.—[Special.]—Danny Smick, who will join Michigan's exclusive group of nine varsity letter winners upon graduation in June, today was named coach at Manistee [Mich.] High school. Smick, who was a three star man in football, basketball, and baseball at Michigan, will coach football, basketball, and track at Manistee.

That's Gehrig! Does He Look Washed Up?

Yanks Roll On; Fort Worth Is Victim, 8 to 2

Fort Worth, Tex., April 4.—[Special.]—Flawless pitching and relentless hammering of the ball, with Joe Di Maggio once more leading the attack, floored another Texas league team today, as the New York Yankees trampled Fort Worth, 8 to 2.

Di Maggio blazed a trail of four hits, one a double against the left field wall, and behind this barrage Monte Pearson and Joe Beggs combined their pitching talents to hurl a flashy three-hitter. Pearson held the Cats to a single in five scoreless innings.

Beggs, going the next four, yielded two hits, but one of these was a homer by Buster Chatham in the eighth. A single behind a two-base wild throw by Babe Dahlgren gave Fort Worth its other run in the ninth.

Lou Gehrig, whose batting has been far off his former average, looked better today. He scored one run.

Making his first definite statement on Gehrig today, Manager Joe McCarthy said:

"Lou will open the pennant season at first base, even if he has to hobble around on only one leg. If by some mischance he is not able to attain his form, Lou will be the first one to recognize that fact and take himself out."

McCarthy added that if this happens, Tommy Henrich would become the first baseman. If Henrich were transferred to the infield, Gallagher would take over the right field job, and a spot would be left open for Selkirk.

Score of Yankees-Fort Worth game:

Fort Worth [T.]......000 000 011—2 3 1

Batteries—Pearson, Beggs and Dickey; Yocke, Scherer and Schang.

Bergner, Navy Football Captain, Leads Wrestlers

Annapolis, Md., April 4.—[Special.]—Alan Bergner of Kankakee, Ill., captain of the Navy football team, also has been named captain of the Navy wrestling team. Bergner, 220 pounds and six feet two inches, is the only holder of four letters now at the academy. He wrestled in the unlimited weight class last winter and won all five bouts in which he engaged.

Bucky Harris to Try Travis at First Base

Orlando, Fla., April 4.—[Special.]—Manager Bucky Harris of the Washington Senators today planned to try Shortstop Cecil Travis at first base. Manager Harris decided on the change because of Jimmy Wasdell's disappointing play at the position. There are two other short stops on the roster, Charley Gelbert and Ossie Bluege.

Fordham Puts Forth Another Mound Phenom

New York, April 4.—(AP)—Fordham, which saw its own Johnny Murphy become one of baseball's best relief pitchers, believes it has another big league prospect in Hank Borowy, blond Polish righthander from Bloomfield, N. J.

Borowy's record, the opinion of Coach Jack Coffey, and the fact that Hank has been watched by half a dozen major league scouts substantiate that belief.

Since he pitched—and won—his first game for Bloomfield High in 1933 the 22 year old junior has won forty-one games and lost only two, each by one run. In college he has won seventeen straight—five as a freshman, ten last season to tie the all-time Fordham record, and two this spring, on nine innings of no hit, no run ball.

"Hank's got a swell fast ball, with plenty of hop, a good curve, and he's working on a change of pace," said the coach, whose own record for seventeen seasons at Fordham shows a winning percentage of .758. "But, like so many college pitchers, he needs to learn better control.

"Since that's chiefly a matter of work, and Borowy is one of the hardest workers on the squad, I haven't any doubt he'll acquire it.

DATE AND SITE OF BAER-NOVA BOUT CHANGED

New York, April 4.—[Special.]—Mike Jacobs, Twentieth Century Sporting club promoter, today announced a change in the date and site of the heavyweight bout between Lou Nova and Max Baer. The match will be held June 1 in the Yankee stadium instead of May 25 in the Madison Square Garden bowl.

Cookie Lavagetto Will Be Given Examination

Clearwater, Fla., April 4.—[Special.]—Infielder Cookie Lavagetto of Brooklyn today was sent to St. Petersburg for an examination of his left hip. Lavagetto was bothered in training and it was first believed to be lumbago.

Fight Decisions

Bisbee Frets as Cubs, Sox Cancel Game

BY EDWARD BURNS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Bisbee, Ariz., April 4.—The Cubs and Sox ran into bad weather today when they came up here, a mile above sea level, for what was to have been the tenth game of their spring series.

At 12:30 o'clock Manager Gabby Hartnett called off the game when a hail and rainstorm gave down on his practicing athletes. He ordered the lads back to the Y. M. C. A. to change their raiment. Back in mufti, the players looked out the window and beheld bright sunshine.

The Sox, who were to have gone to the field later in the day, scattered when the game was called off.

Today: El Paso.

With the sunshine the hot sports of Bisbee began to clamor for a reinstatement of the game and a big round up of ball players ensued. After the posse had brought the players, Managers Hartnett and Dykes agreed to play the game at 3 o'clock if there was no more precipitation. At 1:45 there was another hail and rain storm. The game again was called off and this time the cancelation stuck, though the sun was out again fifteen minutes later.

So the teams were to move on to El Paso early tomorrow morning, where, if the Cubs win tomorrow, they will be assured of at least a tie in the series.

The original calendar of sixteen games has been reduced to fourteen by cancelation in Los Angeles and the one today. Nine games have been played. The Cubs won the first two, the Sox the next three, and the Cubs have taken the four games played since the team left Los Angeles. The teams have five games remaining, one in El Paso and four in Chicago, April 14, 15, 16, and 17, the last being the Monty Stratton game.

Dean Starts This Week.

Thus, if the Cubs win tomorrow they will have won seven out of a possible fourteen. The showing of his boys has left Hartnett in a jubilant mood, though he admits he "isn't through dealing." He says that if he can buy First Baseman Johnny Mize from the Cardinals, Shortstop Arky Vaughan from the Pirates, and Pitcher Hugh Mulcahy from the Phillies he'll guarantee success in the world series against the Yankees next October. Gabby says, however, he may not be able to buy Vaughan.

Gabby says he expects to let Dizzy Dean start a game against the St. Louis Browns in San Antonio, Tex., this coming week-end.

Larry French, who was to have pitched today, will start tomorrow in El Paso according to Hartnett's announcement after today's abandonment.

Expects to Play in Season Opener.

Cubs officials, jubilant over their own physician's optimistic version of Dick Bartell's ankle ailment, last night said their greatest worry is how to keep the fiery shortstop inactive enough to give the ankle a chance to heal.

Dr. John F. Davis, Cubs' physician, who has never been reversed on a diagnosis of a baseball injury, declared after a thorough examination yesterday morning that there were no signs of arthritis or rheumatism in the ankle.

The Cub physician declared there was fluid surrounding the ankle and that it should heal completely if Bartell will only give it a chance. Bartell was sent to Masonic hospital with instructions to remain in bed for two or three days and await developments.

Improves on Train.

When Bartell arrived in Chicago yesterday morning, he showed no trace of a limp and said the swelling had gone down during the time he was en route here from California.

Cub officials classified Bartell in the same category as Dizzy Dean, their famous 1938 cripple, both being high tensioned athletes who find inactivity hard to take. Bartell under no consideration will be allowed to join the Cubs before they arrive here on April 14. His superiors may relent enough to allow him to take light workouts either indoors or outdoors.

During the series of examinations the former New York Giant shortstop, who came to the Cubs last winter in the big three for three deal, was nervous. He kept asking: "How long do you think it will be, doc?" When told he must promise to absolutely rest the ankle or take the alternative of having it placed in a cast, Bartell agreed to the former.

Opening Day Worries Dick.

X-rays of the ankle revealed the joints were "cleaner" than usual for a ball player, Dr. Davis said.

"I've just got to be ready for opening day," Bartell said. "I've never missed one since I've been in the big leagues and I know I'll be ready when the season starts."

Bartell was inclined to believe he reinjured the ankle while working out in Los Angeles last week.

Charles Drake, assistant to Owner P. K. Wrigley, again insisted that the Cubs had established Bartell was sound before they completed the deal for him.

"Before he signed a contract with the Giants sometime before we made the trade he was given every type of examination by physicians for the New York Giants. He passed every one of them," Drake said.

Ailing for Almost a Month.

Bartell's spring woes started on March 12 when the ankle began paining him shortly after he reported to the Cubs' Catalina Island training base. Two days later he was flown from the island and spent three days under observation in a Los Angeles hospital.

He resumed workouts and fell while making a pivot play at second base while practicing in Los Angeles on March 28. Then he was ordered to Chicago last Saturday.

"All this fuss over Bartell mystifies me," said Charles [Boots] Weber, Cubs' vice president. "When the club left a permanent base and started making one night stands the return of Bartell here to get proper and consistent treatment was only logical."

Bartell will be subjected to various treatments calculated to reduce the fluid and stimulate circulation, Dr. Davis said.

DICK FOLK OF WESLEYAN SIGNS WITH DODGERS

Bloomington, Ill., April 4.—[Special.]—Dick Folk of Polo, Ill., captain of the 1938 Illinois Wesleyan football eleven and an all conference selection at fullback, today signed a contract to play professional football with the Brooklyn Dodgers. Folk, a 200 pound blocker and plunger, has been a Titan regular for three years.

Hal Benham Is Named Michigan Swim Captain

Ann Arbor, Mich., April 4.—[Special.]—Hal Benham of Indianapolis, Ind., today was named to captain Michigan's 1939-'40 swimming team.

Benham, who succeeds Tom Haynie of Detroit, was ranked as an outstanding diver and breast stroker while in high school but has concentrated on diving at Michigan. He finished third in both high board and low board events in the recent national collegiate meet.

ARON TO BATTLE A RUMANIAN ON COLISEUM CARD

He's Milo Theodrescu and Claims European Title.

Milo Theodrescu of Rumania, claimant of the European welterweight championship, yesterday accepted a ten round bout with Milt Aron in the Coliseum April 13. In his American debut Milo whipped Quentin Breese on the Henry Armstrong-Davey day 147 pound title card in Madison Square Garden last Friday.

In two other events of ten rounds on the Coliseum program Lem Franklin meets Tony Musto, and Henry Wacker encounters Paul Hartnek. . . . A boxing team from the Madison Athletic club will meet representatives of the Bill Rand A. C. in a series of amateur contests next Wednesday in the Rand gymnasium, 7508 Saginaw avenue. . . .

Dick Kist, Danville welterweight, and Don Espenser of St. Paul, who boxed six rounds to a draw in Marigold Gardens March 27, will meet for eight rounds in the same arena next Monday. Additional matches of eight rounds bring together Buddy Scott, Dallas, Tex., heavyweight, and Frank Androff, Minneapolis, and Al Globe, Los Angeles light heavyweight, and Ernie Valente, West Allis, Wis. A six round supporting contest will involve Tommy Pallatin, South Bend 147 pounder, and Fernie Bacca, El Paso, Tex.

Sam Abruscato and Bill Rand, promotors at White City, have ordered a belt to be given the winner of a bout between Nate Bolden and Oscar Rankin, emblematic of the colored middleweight championship. The match is to be held April 14. . . . Max Baer, former heavyweight titleholder, will arrive on the Overland at Northwestern station at 8:30 this morning for a series of training lessons in Trafton's gymnasium for his elimination bout with Lou Nova. The match has been reset for Yankee stadium June. 1. . . .

Inability to obtain an opponent for Gunnar Barlund has forced a week's postponement of the Finnish 204 pound slugger's scheduled appearance in Minneapolis April 14. Promoter Tomy O'Laughlin has substituted a bout between Dick Demarey, Bismarck, N. D., 145 pound puncher, and Jimmy Collins of Minneapolis as his April 14 headliner.

Johnny Paychek, 1933 Golden Gloves Gloves heavyweight champion, believes his bruised hands will be thoroughly healed in time to go through with a proposed engagement against Carl Vinciquerra of Omaha in Des Moines, Ia., April 24. Max Clayton, Omaha promoter, also is bidding for the encounter. . . .

Sammy Frager, former Navy featherweight champion, will supply the gloves for the ten rounder concerning Fred Apostoli, San Francisco middleweight leader, and Sid Nichols in Houston, Tex., Monday. . . . Frankie Evans, amateur 160 pound boxer from Alabama, will face George Dion of Kankakee in a five round contest in the Madison Athletic club Friday. . . . Buddy Knox, Dayton heavyweight, boxes Al McCoy of Waterville, N. Y., for the fourth time in less than a year in Dayton on Monday. . . .

Tony Bruno Defeats Paul Cortlyn in 10 Rounds

Houston, Tex., April 4.—(AP)—Tony Bruno, 162, took a ten round decision over Paul Cortlyn, 152, in the main event here tonight. Cortlyn substituted for Ken Overlin who suffered a cut over his eye in training.

Two dollar mutuels paid: Short Cake, $59.20 straight, $19.00 place, $7.20 show; Blazing Heat, $4.50 place, $2.80 show; Phara Belle, $3.50 show.

SHORT CAKE rushed into a long early lead, was taken out around turn but went over to the inside in stretch and held on well. BLAZING HEAT was crowded out of all contention just after the start and trailed far back to the middle of the turn then closed with a rush and was catching the winner at every stride.

FIFTH RACE—Halcyon handicap. Purse $1,100 added. Three year olds and up. Class C. Six furlongs. Start good. Won driving, place same. Went to post at 4:31½. Off at 4:37½. Winner, b. h., 6, by Tall Timber-Moncito, by Trap Rock. Owner, H. L. Bowers. Trainer, same. Net value to winner, $865; second, $180; third, $90; fourth, $30. Time, 1:14.

Two dollar mutuels paid: High Hedge, $28.10 straight, $9.30 place, $4.60 show; Irish Moon, $4.20 place, $3.00 show; Unselfish, $3.60 show.

HIGH HEDGE, away fast, opened a long lead in the early part, began to tire in stretch and just lasted to win. IRISH MOON was allowed to drop far out of it soon after the start, closed ground gamely and would have won in another stride.

SIXTH RACE—Purse $1,100. [Claiming prices, $3,500 to $3,000.] Three year olds and up. One mile and one-sixteenth. Start good. Won easily, place same. Went to post at 5:06. Off at 5:07½. EIGHT SOUTH SIDE SOFTBALL TEAMS TO JOIN LEAGUE

The Windy City Softball league is planning on expanding to a sixteen team league this season. It will operate with eight clubs on the south side and an equal number on the north and west sides.

With the introduction of major softball on the south side for the first time, franchises will be awarded to several new entries. Teams desiring a berth in either the south or north sections of the league are asked to communicate with the league president, Harry Hannin, 3026 Belden avenue. A playoff series for the sixteen inch slow pitching title between the north and south leagues is planned.

JOHNNY OROS, 17, OF AURORA, GOES INTO JOCKY LEAD

Passes Meade with 93 Winners.

Bowie, Md., April 4.—(AP)—Johnny Oros today booted home his ninety-second and ninety-third winners since Jan. 1 to take the jocky lead from Don Meade. Meade and Oros were tied at ninety-one winners before the first race.

The 17 year old apprentice rider from Aurora, Ill., where he rode his first winner last May 12, won the national leadership by piloting Nicholas S. to victory in the first event at Bowie race track. Then Oros repeated by bringing in Pascua in the second to the delight of daily double ticket holders who collected $129.90 for the two races.

He almost made it three in a row by riding Mrs. E. A. Sexton's Irish Moon to a photo finish in the feature Halcyon handicap but the decision went to H. L. Bowers' High Hedge.

High Hedge, which failed to win in seven starts last year, ran the six furlongs in 1:14. Eddie Smith, who got the mount after H. S. Takera, the Japanese trainer-jocky, was injured this morning, shot High Hedge to the front at the start and drew into a five lengths lead. On the turn Irish Moon began to move up under the urging of Oros. The filly gained rapidly in the stretch, but couldn't get up in time.

DONNA LEONA WINS AGAIN.

Miami, Fla., April 4.—(AP)—The Snow White stable's consistent Donna Leona, with Chuck Charlton up, marked up her sixth victory in nine starts this season by taking the six furlong Columbus Circle Handicap at Tropical Park today. The 4 year old daughter of Don Leon made the fast time of 1:10 3-5 as she trailed close behind U-Boat most of the way, then drew away in the last sixteenth. J. B. Partridge's Suntime closed fast to take second money over E. P. Bixer's Posterity. The winner paid $6.60 for $2.

BREWER STARS RECOVER FOR MORGAN GAME

The Manhattan Brewers, defeated 3 to 2 Sunday by the Morgan Sport club of Pittsburgh, Pa., in the first game of the National Western soccer playoff, will present a changed lineup for the second game of the series Sunday in Pittsburgh.

Weck Henney, injured several weeks ago in a game with the Cleveland Slavs, will be back in the lineup along with Eddie Begley, Jimmy Lillie, and Fabri Salceco.

The team will leave Saturday afternoon for Pittsburgh on a special train.

College Pitcher Alarms Scout with Prowess at Plate

Dallas, Tex., April 4.—[Special.]—According to Hap Morse, manager of the Dallas Steers, there is a second Schoolboy Rowe being developed on the Southern Methodist university campus, and Hap has plans for the youth but some major league team may cut in ahead of him with a better bid.

This budding pitcher is Billy Dewell, a senior from Kansas. He is 6 feet 4 inches tall, and is a three letter man for the Mustangs.

Last fall he played such a fine game of football at end that Jock Sutherland then Pitt coach, called him one of the best he had ever seen. Roswell Higginbotham is the basball coach who dug up Dewell for the Mustangs.

A New York Giant scout, assigned to watch Dewell pitch against Rice, bumped into the prospective major leaguer ahead of time by accident in a Mexican restaurant in downtown Dallas. He watched with bulging eyes as Dewell tore into a layout of enchilades, and toasted tortillas and then rushed back to tell Manager Bill Terry.

"I saw him," gasped the scout, "and he's one collegian who ought not to need any seasoning at all. He should set the world on fire right now, after the peppery stuff I saw him absorb."

DYKES ADMITS HE'S GUESSING ON GERRY WALKER

Manager Hopes 'Slugger' Will Slug.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Bisbee, Ariz., April 4.—James J. ykes, the White Sox manager, has o tricks up his sleeves. Not unlike man who appreciates he is doomed, ykes insists he is playing his cards n the top of the table. He explained imself in that fashion today as he dmired a mountain deluge which ashed out the game with the Cubs.

Dykes' confession resulted from anther query on how much longer he as going to play Gerald Walker in ft field. He has been asked that uestion for the last week and has ughed it off. But now he admits at his persistence is based purely n hope. The hope is that Walker will t eventually and the only way to alize it is to leave him in there.

Power Is the Thing.

The reporters' anxiety over Walk's daily appearance in left field is asily explained. According to the ading statisticians accompanying e team, Walker has been at bat rty-five times to date and produced ly eleven hits for an average of 44. This isn't enough hitting to urture the expectation that Walker ventually would move himself into e cleanup position. He not only as been backward about coming rough with singles, but also with xtra base hits. Extra base hits are n important item in the repertoire f a cleanup hitter. And the Sox are adly in need of just that type of itter.

If left field were merely a place to ll with an effective bat wielder, the roblem could be solved without dey. Rip Radcliff is available and his kill has been proved through seval seasons of production. But Rip sn't the distance power. Nor is it ossessed in sufficient quantities by ny other prospective regular of the 939 ensemble. That is, except Walk, and the only reason for Dykes' illingness to go the limit with the ississippi lad is that he had the ower when he was a member of etroit's Tigers. It wasn't present st season, his first with the Sox.

Wanted: Two More Kreeviches.

Along with the absence of power, ykes has an outfield peculiar in her respects. The five men he unubtedly will retain for the season's ores are Mike Kreevich, Henry teinbacher, Larry Rosenthal, Radiff and Walker. Kreevich is the nly member of this quintet who does bout everything perfectly. The four thers either hit fairly well or are nreliable as fielders. Rosenthal can n, field, and throw, but he has ever been strong with the bat and shut out of first string consideraon because Dykes has the type of am in which hitting must be condered ahead of defensive skill.

After the Cubs game in El Paso toorrow, the Sox will see some new ew big league faces and the change f scenery may arouse them to acvity not noticeable while they were sing six out of nine to the Cubs. n Thursday and Friday, the Sox ckle the Pirates at Sweetwater and bilene, Tex. On Saturday they meet e Cleveland Indians in New Orans and the next day the Giants Batin Rouge, La. After that they ave four more with the Pirates at arious places and the concluding our with the Cubs at Chicago.

SEWELL PREDICTS YANKS WILL WIN BY WIDER MARGIN

Clearwater, Fla., April 4.—[Special.] -Luke Sewell, who moved over to e National league from the Amerin league last winter when the rooklyn Dodgers bought his release rom the White Sox, doesn't know nough about the Giants, Reds, and ther National league teams to make prediction on the pennant race. The eteran catcher, however, is familiar ith the American league and today ade known his opinions.

"I look for the Yankees to win the ennant by a wider margin than they id last year," said Luke. "I expect hem to show a more powerful batting ttack. Their pitching is the strongt in the league.

"I doubt if the Red Sox will be as trong as last year. They might have olstered their pitching staf, but they acrificed batting strength when they raded Ben Chapman and Pinky Higins.

"I think Cleveland will stay closer the Yankees than any other team. he Tigers do not appear to have ufficient pitching strength to be a hreat.

NALON'S MIDGET AUTO TIME TRIAL MARK APPROVED

Officials of the contest board of the Western Speedway, Inc., yesterday pproved the one lap time trial mark f :13.47 set by Duke Nalon during he auto racing Sunday night in the 24th Field Artillery armory.

It was the second time in two weeks hat Nalon's name was written in the ecord book. On March 26 he set the ime trial mark at :13.54 lowering by -100ths of a second a mark held by Harry MacQuinn, the 1937-'38 midwest ndoor champion.

Nalon's driving in the last two weeks has taken the play away from MacQuinn, who had won five conecutive main events up to the March 6 meeting. MacQuinn, however, is till experimenting with a new car.

Dodgers Whip Tigers, 5-3, on Todd's Homers

Clearwater, Fla., April 4.—[Special.]—When Babe Phelps, fielding a bunt in infield practice just before today's game with the Detroit Tigers, was hit on the nose by a ball thrown in from the outfield, Big Al Todd, the former Pirate catcher, suddenly found himself tossed into the contest and batting in the clean-up spot.

Al's response to this unexpected call to duty with the Brooklyn Dodgers was to hit two successive home runs, both off Southpaw Harry Eisenstat, and win the game for Brooklyn, 5 to 3.

Bang! Bang! Away They Go.

His first homer came in the sixth with nobody on, and still left the Dodgers trailing by 3 to 2. Then after Tuck Stainback lined a pitch over the right field fence to open the eighth and tie the score, the stage was set for Todd's winning hit.

Pete Coscarart got a two-base hit when his twisting fly fell safely among Charley Gehringer, Pete Fox, and Hank Greenberg, and after Fred Sington advanced Pete with a long fly to center, Todd whaled another ball on a line over the right field barrier.

Camilli Tags One.

The other Brooklyn run was off Schoolboy Rowe and was carried home by Dolf Camilli to start the second when he hit his eighth homer of the citrus season. Thus all Dodger runs were driven in by homers.

Detroit [A.] ....001 020 000—3 4 1
Brooklyn [N.] ......010 001 03*—5 9 2

PIRATES BATTER BROWNS.

San Antonio, Tex., April 4.—(AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates whipped the St. Louis Browns, 14 to 1, today behind the hurling of Cy Blanton, who yielded six hits in seven innings. The other Brown hit was a single off Truett Sewell in the ninth.

Ed Cole, Bob Muncrief and Jim Walkup took turns facing the National leaguers, who made sixteen hits. Johnny Rizzo, Floyd Young and Lee Handley hit home runs. Score:

Pittsburgh ....031 223 021—14 16 2
St. Louis ....001 000 000— 1 7 6

Batteries—Blanton, Sewell and Berres, Susce; Cole, Muncrief, Walkup and Sullivan.

ATHLETICS, 9; LONGVIEW, 1.

Longview, Tex., April 4.—(AP)—The Philadelphia Athletics' "A" team smacked doubles and singles all over the field to beat Longview of the East Texas league, 9 to 1, today.

The A's home run swinging was curbed for the first time in several days but they got to Longview early, scoring three runs in the first inning. They scored one each in the second, fourth and fifth, and three in the seventh. Wayne Ambler scored four runs himself.

Jim Reninger, pitching for the A's, allowed one run and six hits in six innings, and Carl Byrd, who finished, yielded only one hit. Score:

Philadelphia ....310 110 300—9 10 0
Longview ....000 010 000—1 7 1

CARDINALS WIN IN NINTH.

Birmingham, Ala., April 4.—(AP)—Pepper Martin hit a home run with the bases full in the ninth inning to save the St. Louis Cardinals a defeat at the hands of Birmingham today. The Cards, trailing by one run when Martin connected, then went on to win, 17 to 11.

Paul Dean, who started on the mound for the Redbirds, was relieved by Morton Cooper after Birmingham scored three runs off him in four innings. Score:

Birmingham ......001 221 320—11 14 4

ATHLETICS' B'S WIN.

Shreveport, La., April 4.—(AP)—Wilson Miles, outfielder from Birmingham, made four hits and four runs in the Philadelphia Athletics' B team's 11 to 4 victory over Shreveport of the Texas league today. Lynn Nelson, who won ten games for the Athletics last year, yielded six hits and all their runs in five innings. In the last four innings, Nelson Potter held the southerners to two hits.

Philadelphia ......010 160 003—11 14 1
Shreveport ....012 010 000— 4 8 2

PHILS, 3; DALLAS, 1.

Dallas, Tex., April 4.—(AP)—Recovered from the grip, Max Butcher pitched and batted the Phillies to a 3 to 1 victory over Dallas of the Texas league today.

The right hander yielded only four hits and one base on balls in the four innings and his single in the third inning scored two men. Three double plays by Shortstop George Scharein and Emmett Mueller, second baseman, lightened Butcher's pitching burden. Score:

Philadelphia ....002 001 000—3 6 0
Dallas ....000 000 001—1 10 1

Batteries—Butcher, Burkart and Atwood, Davis; Overman, Demoran, Uhle and Hayworth.

Churchill Cabinet Five Beats Fischer for Title

The Churchill Cabinet company defeated the Fischer X-Ray company, 25 to 24, last night in the Division Street Y. M. C. A. to win the Northwest Side Industrial Basketball league championship. The winning basket was made by Eugene Gregorski. In the play-off for third place the Wieboldt Stores triumphed over Riddell Athletic Equipment, 29 to 28.

Reds Defeat Red Sox, 18-7; Get 22 Hits

Augusta, Ga., April 4.—(AP)—The Cincinnati Reds started heavy scoring in the fifth inning today and didn't stop until they had routed the Boston Red Sox, 18 to 7. The Reds made 22 hits and were aided by five Boston errors.

Billy Myers paced the Reds with four hits, including a homer in the third inning. Bill Werber got on base five times, twice when Manager Joe Cronin of the Red Sox fumbled his grounders.

The Reds knocked Joe Heving from the mound in the fifth with a six run outburst and wound up the day with seven runs in the ninth, including a homer by Harry Craft. Score:

Cincinnati ....001 062 117—18 22 1
Boston ....210 101 020— 7 13 5

CLEVELAND, 5; PENSACOLA, 1.

Pensacola, Fla., April 4.—(AP)—The Cleveland Indians scored a 5 to 1 victory today over the Pensacola Fliers, defending champions of the southeastern league, who were held to three hits by the tribe rookie pitchers, Tom Drake and Bill Zuber. All three hits were made off Drake who hurled the first five innings. Score:

Pensacola [S.E.]......001 000 000—1 3 3

BEES' YANNIGANS WIN.

Bradenton, Fla., April 4.—(AP)—With Casey Stengel away fishing, the Boston Bees' Yannigans turned savagely on the regulars today and gave them a 14 to 7 pounding in an intra-squad game. Milt Shoffner, veteran southpaw, held the reguars to nine hits in nine innings and Joe Sullivan, another portsider allowed the rookies 14 hits while traveling the full distance.

DURHAM GOLFER IS MEDALIST IN NORTH AND SOUTH

Pinehurst, N. C., April 4.—(AP)—Bill Cozart of Durham, N. C., turned in a card of 35—39—74 today and won the medal in the north and south amateur golf tournament. Seven Yankees and a southerner earlier had tied at 76 for the lead, when the North Carolinian slipped in, just before sundown, with the winning score.

Tied at 76 were George Dunlap Jr. of Pinehurst, Frank Strafaci of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Dick Chapman of Greenwich, Conn.; Frank Allan of Pittston, N. Y.; Bobby Dunkelberger of High Point, N. C.; John P. Burke of Providence, R. I.; Charles Whitehead of South Orange, N. J., and Edward Meister Jr. of Cleveland, O., a Yale student.

Chapman, who has been playing here since he donned long trousers, said he never had seen the course more difficult. Recent rains and an abundance of grass added to the amateurs' troubles. Cozart, a late starter, had a slight advantage in that the wind did not blow quite so hard before sundown as during the greater part of the day.

Match play will start tomorrow.

National A. A. U. Swim Awarded to Detroit

Masker Will Referee N. U., Illinois Game

Champaign, Ill., April 4.—[Special.]—James Masker, Northwestern graduate and veteran Big Ten football official, will referee the Illinois-Northwestern game in Evanston next Oct. 28, announcement from John L. Griffith, Western conference commissioner, said today. Informed that Masker had never officiated at Northwestern and that his friends would appreciate seeing him on the field, Coach Bob Zuppke indorsed the suggestion.

Perry Graves, Illinois graduate, will be head linesman.

Sept. 30—Bradley: Referee, Joe Magidsohn, Michigan; umpire, R. J. Gibbs, Springfield; field judge, L. F. Carlin, Northwestern; head linesman, Al Nelson, Champaign.

Oct. 21—Indiana: Masker, W. D. Knight, Dartmouth; E. C. Krieger, Ohio; See Taylor, Wichita.

Oct. 28—At Northwestern: Masker, H. G. Hedges, Dartmouth; Meyer Morton, Michigan; Graves.

Nov. 4—Michigan: Masker, Hedges; Fred Gardner, Cornell; Taylor.

Nov. 11—Wisconsin: J. S. Getchell, St. Thomas; Knight, H. F. Steger, Michigan; Ernie Vick, Michigan.

Nov. 18—At Ohio State—Frank Lane, Detroit; J. J. Schommer, Chicago; Morton; Lee Daniels, Loyola.

Nov. 25—Chicago: Getchell; Knight, N. E. Kearns, De Paul; Taylor.

Officials for the Southern California game at Los Angeles Oct. 14 will be announced later.

Terry Goes on Experimenting with Giants

Baton Rouge, La., April 4.—[Special.]—Manager Bill Terry revealed today that he is pursuing two important experiments involving his Giants, although he is within a few days of breaking camp and a fortnight of the first rush in the National league championship campaign.

Castleman a Puzzle.

The pitching experiment will be pressed intensively through the rest of the visit here. The outfield experiment is one that seems destined to carry right on to the team's return to New York.

The two experiments will be pursued simultaneously with that which now surrounds Clydell Castleman, whose flinging so far has failed to attract favorable reaction.

Wittig is a pitcher with plenty of stuff who is too true in his calling, contradictory though this may sound. He lacks the all-important essential of concealment, so necessary in a hurler.

Demaree or Seeds?

"Wittig is too true in his delivery," said Terry. "There is not enough deception about him. We are working to correct this fault."

The Seeds-Demaree struggle finds Terry more than ever undecided. It had been popularly supposed he would start the season with the former Cub fly chasing in Hank Leiber's old roosting ground, flanked by the hardy perennial, Melvin Ott, and reliable Jo-Jo Moore.

But Seeds, not to be outdone, is playing bangup ball now. Terry admits ownership of the berth will be determined on developments of the trip north.

Hubbell May Pitch.

Terry also had further plans for Carl Hubbell. If a physician's report shows that Hubbell can stand the work, Terry will send him against Memphis Sunday in the second of two games New York is to play there. Hal Schumacher will pitch the first game, Saturday. The Giants' squad will be divided, part of it going to Memphis to play the Southern association nine and the rest remaining here to meet the Pittsburgh Pirates and Chicago White Sox.

Wittig, Castleman, and Dick Coffman also will go to Memphis as will Infielders Zeke Bonura, George Myatt, Alex Kampouris, and Al Glossop, and Outfielders Seeds, Jim Ripple, and Tom Winsett.

Lawrence Squad Elects Faleide Honorary Captain

Appleton, Wis., April 4.—[Special.]—Norman Faleide, Oak Park, Ill., was elected honorary captain of the 1938-'39 Lawrence college basketball team prior to a banquet in honor of the basketball, swimming, and wrestling squads here tonight. Faleide, a guard, has been in the starting lineups of the Viking team for three years.

Open Play for National Polo Titles Tonight

New York, April 4.—[Special.]—The national indoor polo tournament will start tomorrow night when the champions of the east meet the champions of the west in three divisions in the Squadron A armory. The contests will be the first of the annual two out of three game series.

The Blue Hill farms team of Philadelphia, eastern champion, will ride against the 124th Field Artillery Shamrocks of Chicago in the first game. Pegasus of New Jersey will face the 124th Field Artillery in the junior division. The program will close with the first game for the senior championship between the Chicago Ramblers and Evergreen Farms.

The players worked today at the armory and will practice again tomorrow. The western ponies stood up well under the trip east and worked nicely.

There is particular interest in the senior game, for the west sent east its strongest team in the history of the series, a fifteen goal trio, one more than the eastern trio.

The second games will be played Saturday night at the armory. Where third games are necessary they will be played Tuesday night.

CLEVELAND PLAYS 122D F. A.

The Cleveland Polo club, led by Hank Evinger, will invade the 124th Field Artillery armory Saturday night to battle the 122d field artillery trio.

This contest will supplement the Metropolitan league duel between the Chicago Ramblers and the Fort Sheridan seniors, contenders in the high goal division.

Evinger has competed in Chicago with Cleveland teams which won Metropolitan league, western, and national indoor titles.

According to word from Cleveland, Evinger's teammates will be drawn from W. W. Schaumann, Earl Stone, and Capt. Joseph Ganahl. Two certainties for the 122d field artillery will be Lieut. Cliff Harrison and Lieut. Carl Johnson, who have teamed together for seven years. Battling for the third position in the starting lineup are Lieut. Frank Fritz, Lieut. Arnold Pio, and A. J. [Rosy] Sisler.

SCRIMMAGE WILL END MARQUETTE DRILL FOR A WEEK

Milwaukee, Wis., April 4.—[Special.]—A regulation scrimmage tomorrow will mark the close of spring football practice at Marquette university until classes are resumed April 11, after the Easter holidays.

Coach Paddy Driscoll today concentrated on two all-freshman back fields. One frosh group included Doug Renzel, Milwaukee, full back; Jim Richardson, Milwaukee, and John Goodyear, La Grange, Ill., half backs, and Bob McCahill, Whitefish Bay, Wis., quarter back. The other was composed of Bob Rank, Oak Park, Ill., full back; Vern Anderson, Green Bay, Wis., and Warren Hall, Chicago, half backs, and Walter Leis, Chicago, quarter back.

HOCKY PLAYOFF OFFICIAL NOW—MANAGERS FIGHT

Both Demand Adherence to Equipment Rules.

Boston, Mass., April 4.—(AP)—The bickering that makes a Boston-Toronto hocky playoff official, as far as Managers Art Ross and Connie Smythe are concerned, commenced today when both insisted on equipment changes.

As a result of Smythe's demand that all the Bruins carry sticks within the 53 inch limit in Thursday's opening Stanley cup game at the Boston garden, Ross had every weapon in his players' armory measured before he sent them out for an hour's practice. A few of the sticks were found to be longer than the code permits and they were sawed to legal length.

Ross indicated Smythe's objection was inspired by his insistence that the best four out of seven games series open here Thursday instead of tonight. But Ross refused to allow the argument to drop and countered with a demand that Smythe respect the regulations limiting the width of goalie's leg pads and stick blades to 10 and 3½ inches respectively.

The Bruins appeared almost completely recovered from their seven game series with the New York Rangers as they went through a light drill. Ross excused Defense Man Jack Crawford, who spent the time getting his lame hip baked,

Badgers Drop Meet Because of Racial Ban

Madison, Wis., April 4.—[Special.]—The University of Wisconsin athletic department announced today that the Badger track team had been withdrawn from a meet with the Universities of Notre Dame and Missouri scheduled for April 15 in Columbia, Mo. The reason given for the action was the barring of Ed Smith, Wisconsin Negro hurdler. Coach Tom Jones stated that the withdrawal was made by mutual agreement between Wisconsin and Missouri officials.

Earlier in the day, the Wisconsin faculty had adopted a resolution opposing participation in any intercollegiate event from which an athlete was barred because of his race. The Daily Cardinal, a student publication, also advocated withdrawal.

After passing the resolution, the faculty advised withdrawing from the Missouri meet if it could be done "without breach of faith."

URGE INSPECTION OF ALIEN PLANES BY U. S. BOARD

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 4.—[Special.]—The recent crash of the British flying boat Cavalier has raised the question here of whether foreign planes flying from American ports should not be inspected by the United States the same as foreign ships.

After the Imperial Airways plane was lost on Jan. 21, while flying from New York to Bermuda, with a toll of three dead, officials of the Civil Aeronautics authority said they had no jurisdiction over the craft. They did not inspect it, they explained, because of an agreement with Great Britain under which the airworthiness certificates granted by each government were accepted by the other in international air travel.

However, since a British board of inquiry blamed the crash on ice-clogged carburetors and admitted that American de-icing equipment was superior to that used on the British plane, there have been growing demands that the United States take steps to protect its citizens on foreign transport planes leaving American ports.

Procedures Compared.

Both British and American regulations require heating devices for plane carburetors and they are examined in regular inspections. Capt. G. C. Pirie, air attaché of the British embassy, said today that these requirements are almost identical and that inspection procedure is virtually the same.

He explained, however, that icing trouble is seldom encountered in European flying and that European de-icing equipment probably is not so highly developed as that on American airliners. Any craft sent to replace the Cavalier will have an additional heating device, he said, in accordance with the recommendations of the Cavalier board of inquiry.

CAA Defends Pacts.

CAA officials say that the matter of inspecting foreign planes has been under discussion but nothing definite has resulted. Present arrangements provide for reciprocal acceptance of inspection certificates by twenty leading foreign countries.

In defending these arrangements CAA officials say that if the agreements were not in effect the American owned and operated Yankee Clipper, which will begin regular trans-Atlantic transport service this summer, could be inspected by officials of every country it touches.

American transport planes are subject to a line inspection every day by accredited inspectors employed by the air lines. There must also be a more thorough inspection after each 100 hours of flight. There are also periodic inspections by government representatives at any time.

Day by Day on the FARM

By HOMER NEISZ

Lamb Count Is 72.

SEVENTY-TWO Southdown lambs are romping in the barn lot at the Du Page county farm. Forty-two of them are purebreds and thirty are grades. Eight sets of twins are included.

The flockmaster says they are making the best start of any lambs born on the farm in recent years. All are strong and healthy. The lambs are coming about two months earlier than the lambing schedule followed during the last few years. There still are forty-five ewes in the flock that have not yet dropped lambs.

The lambs are being fed in their own private cafeterias—creep feeding pens where they are separated from their mothers. Feed is kept in the troughs and hay racks so that the lambs may go in and eat whenever they wish.

Eat Red Clover Hay.

Equal parts of cracked corn, whole oats, and linseed oil meal make up the grain ration of the lambs. They eat red clover hay. The lambs usually start nibbling hay when they are about ten days old. Then within a few days they begin eating grain. They learn to eat with their mothers, but soon find out that they can eat in their own pens without being disturbed by the ewes.

So far the lambs have not found out that the world is any bigger than just the barn and barn lot. But they will start kicking up their heels in a near pasture when the weather warms up and the grass gets a better start.

Clean pasture that has not recently been used for sheep will be provided for the ewes and lambs. This is a precaution against having the lambs infested with stomach worms. When the lambs are big enough to be drenched with bluestone solution to protect them against the parasites, they may be put on infested ground. The practice is to start drenching the lambs about the time they are weaned.

The ewes that are nursing lambs are fed a grain mixture and hay. The grain mixture is one part wheat bran and two parts whole oats with a small amount of oil meal. Each ewe gets about one-half pound of the mixture night and morning. They also are given all the hay they will clean up at each feeding—red clover hay in the morning and alsike at night.

Ewes Come in at Night.

Ewes that have not yet dropped their lambs are kept on pasture during the day except when the weather is unfavorable. They are put in the barn lot at night and are given hay night and morning. They will not be fed grain until after their lambs are born.

The practice of keeping ewes out in the open and giving them plenty of exercise previous to lambing time is followed consistently. Feed sometimes is scattered over the pasture to encourage the ewes to take more exercise. This is considered an important safeguard against trouble in lambing and an aid in producing strong lambs.

The flockmaster thinks one reason the lambs are doing better than usual this spring is that most of them are singles. While he prefers a higher percentage of twin lambs, he says that single lambs usually are more uniform in size and that the ewes are able to give them a faster start by providing more milk.

STRANGERS HELP COAT CHECKERS AND THEMSELVES

Six young men of the Ner Tamid Jewish congregation were asked to serve in the checkroom last night at the Passover feast in the hall adjoining the synagogue at 6408 North Fairfield avenue. Eight young men reported. The six supposed the other two were members they had not met.

But the six discovered their mistake when seven of the finest fur coats, worth a total of $7,915, were found to be missing. The two helpers were missing, too. They had passed the coats out to women accomplices, the police believe, and then departed.

Winnetka Gets Six Bids on Rail Safety Project

William B. Moulton, president of the Winnetka village board, announced at the board meeting last night that six bids for excavation work on the $3,500,000 grade separation project had been received. The project will depress the Chicago and North Western and the North Shore tracks through the village. Bids ranged from $1,000,000 to $1,250,000.

COURT UPHOLDS FINES AGAINST 3 IN MAYTAG STRIKE

C. I. O. Union Officials Must Pay or Go to Jail.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Des Moines, Ia., April 4.—[Special.]—The Iowa Supreme court today affirmed, in part, a sentence given three officials of a C. I. O. union on a contempt charge arising out of their activities in the Maytag Washing Machine company strike at Newton last May.

The court affirmed a fine of $500 assessed against each of the men for violation of an injunction, but ruled that a six months' jail sentence given each man should be suspended. Failure to pay the fine will render the men liable to a five months' sentence under the court's ruling.

Two International Officers.

The men to whom the decision applies are James B. Carey of New York City, international president of the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers' union; William Sentner of St. Louis, international vice president, and Hollis Hall, vice president of the Newton local.

The injunction, violation of which the three stand convicted, was obtained by the Maytag company, restraining the men from interfering with the plant or the company's business, and particularly from mass picketing.

The sentences, upheld in part by the Supreme court, were imposed by District Judge Homer A. Fuller of Mount Ayr.

22 C. I. O. Sentences Suspended.

Sioux City, Ia., April 4.—(AP)—Twenty-two criminal cases growing out of disturbances in last fall's C. I. O. strike at the Swift Packing company plant were disposed of this morning when District Judge A. O. Wakefield sentenced the defendants to thirty days each in jail and then suspended the sentences. The men were charged with unlawful assembly.

HARRY HOPKINS TO MAKE LEGAL HOME IN IOWA

Warm Springs, Ga., April 4.—[Special.]—Secretary of Commerce Harry L. Hopkins, the fair haired boy of President Roosevelt, revealed tonight he will establish a legal residence at Grinnell, Ia., his boyhood home.

The announcement was seen as having tremendous political significance in view of his position as Mr. Roosevelt's apparent choice of the moment for the Democratic nomination in 1940. Hopkins, however, insisted that the decision was not actuated by politics, but by a desire to establish a home for his daughter, Diana, 7 years old, whose mother died in 1937.

Hopkins entered social service work upon being graduated from Grinnell college twenty-nine years ago. His election to the board of trustees for six years was announced in Grinnell today.

Wilmette Board Calls Vote on Village Manager Plan

A resolution authorizing a referendum April 18 on whether the village shall continue to employ a village manager was passed last night by the Wilmette board of trustees. It has been asserted that the duties of Adolph Koenig, the acting village manager, overlap those of other departments. Koenig was appointed by the board last August at an annual salary of $4,200.

CONSERVATIVES ELECTED TO HEAD C. I. O. AUTO UNION

Cleveland, O., April 4.—[Special.]—Roland J. Thomas of Detroit was reelected here today as president of the United Automobile Workers union [C. I. O. branch]. He received a vote of 1,233 and two rivals on the first ballot got a total of 462½. George F. Addes, also of Detroit, was reëlected secretary treasurer by acclamation.

The election of officers closed a nine day convention that was torn in its early stages by a fight between communists and more conservative elements. The communists finally surrendered and the conservatives eliminated the five vice presidential jobs that the rabid Reds had expected to reserve for their own candidates.

Thomas, 38 years old, a former student for the ministry and once a welder in the Chrysler plant in Detroit, had the support throughout the convention of the most conservative groups in the union.

Addes, at first pushed by leftist leaders in the convention, disclaimed connection with them and upon this basis received general support.

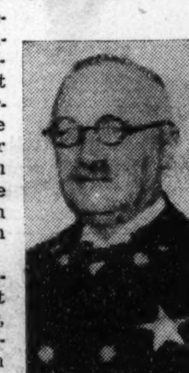
CAPT. HOMER, 70, 2 FISTED POLICE VETERAN, IS DEAD

Capt. Matthew Homer, who twice became a Chicago police captain before his retirement in 1936 under the compulsory age limit law, died yesterday in the home of his mother at 6946 South Union avenue. He would have been 70 years old on April 18.



Capt. Matthew Homer

Joining the police department on Jan. 20, 1890, Capt. Homer advanced through the grades to a captaincy. When the civil service act was passed eight years later, it automatically reduced him to a patrolman's rank. But he again began to climb and was made a sergeant in 1898, a lieutenant in 1915, and a captain on Oct. 6, 1925.

Capt. Homer got his police schooling among the tough river gangs of the old 22d street district, where a policeman often had to use his fists.

His widow, Ann, three sons, his mother, a brother, and two sisters survive. Requiem mass will be said Friday morning in Sacred Heart church.

THOUSANDS PAY LAST TRIBUTE TO GEO. F. HARDING

A crowd of several thousand mourners which filled the house and overflowed into the street yesterday attended funeral services for George F. Harding, Republican national committeeman, in his home at 4853 Lake Park avenue. Members of the Republican state central committee and party leaders from all parts of the state came to pay final respects to the man who was a party leader for more than thirty years.

Mr. Harding, who would have been 71 years old Aug. 16, died Sunday in his home. He was one of the city's foremost art collectors and one of the largest real estate owners in Chicago. He had served as alderman, state senator, city controler, and county treasurer.

The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Von Ogden Vogt of the First Unitarian society. Mr. Harding will be buried this morning near Monmouth, Ill. A daughter, Mrs. John Walker Thompson of Milwaukee, survives.

STOCKS CRASH TO NEW LOWS FOR SIX MONTHS

Foreign News Brings $1 to $4 Losses.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, April 4.—Two selling attacks today drove stock prices to new lows since the "Munich" war scare of last September. Despite a rally toward the close, declines of 1 to 4 points were sprinkled liberally throughout the list. At one time losses ranged to 6 points.

Volume swelled to 1,533,910 shares, from 1,472,610 shares Monday.

Developments in Europe were the chief unsettling factors. The stern British warning to Italy against an Albanian coup, London's hint that the "Stop Hitler" movement would be expanded, and the clamor in the German press against "encirclement" revived war fears, according to observers. Some observers, asserting business was not measuring up to the new year's predictions, gave this as an additional factor in the selling.

Early Rally Fails.

Following the weakness on the London market, stocks opened fractions to more than 1 point lower in New York. Prices continued to fade until a short lived rally near the close of the first hour. A heavy wave of selling then swept over the market. This sent the ticker several minutes behind floor trading and sent prices to their new lows.

The late improvement was attributed to the list's "sold out" condition and to the drying up of offerings.

Action of the Dow-Jones industrial average indicated the market's trend. After reaching a bottom of 127.16 the index rallied to 129.80, for a net loss of 2.45 points. Rails lost 0.56 point on the average to 26.71. The utility group closed at 21.99, off 0.71 point.

Trading embraced 865 issues, of which 634 declined, 88 advanced, and 143 closed unchanged.

Key Industrials Hard Hit.

Key industrial stocks again were most vulnerable to the selling. Chrysler, United States Steel, General Motors, United States Rubber, Bethlehem Steel, Anaconda, General Electric, Republic Steel, and Kennecott Copper closed 1 to about 3 points lower. Rails were weak.

Fractional losses ruled among power and light shares.

Glenn Martin was active and fractionally lower, as were most others in the aircraft group. Douglas and North American Aviation were exceptions, both edging into the plus column in late trading. Sperry and Boeing lost more than a point.

Chemicals showed losses running to 2⅞ points in Allied. In the mail order group, Montgomery Ward and Sears Roebuck both slipped fractionally. Leading oil stocks, notably Texas and Standard of New Jersey, declined fractionally.

Values Fall in March.

The effect on securities markets of the succession of war scares during March was reflected today in New York Stock exchange figures showing a drop of more than five billion dollars in market value of listed shares during the month.

At the end of March the total value of listed shares was $40,921,074,970, compared with $46,270,987,418 at the end of February. This was said to be one of the biggest slumps in a year, as recorded by the monthly figures. A year ago listed shares had a total market value of $31,858,461,871.

FIRM IS ACCUSED ON WAREHOUSE RECEIPT CHARGE

The Securities and Exchange commission, in a complaint filed in the United States District court yesterday, accused A. D. Lowe Associates of trading whisky warehouse receipts, at greatly inflated prices, for valuable securities of their clients.

William McNeil Kennedy, regional SEC administrator, said the commission was determined to stamp out this practice, which he described as switching. His complaint also named Edward A. Sloane and E. P. Tuber, co-partners of the company, which has offices at 105 West Monroe street. They were accused of violating the SEC act by doing business as brokers without registering securities with the SEC.

The SEC complaint asked for an injunction. It charged that the firm since Feb. 1, 1937, had earned 60 per cent of its gross sales of $150,000 by switching security holders in Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin, Michigan, Minnesota, Ohio, and Missouri.

Stockholders Told of Rising Income Trend

Improved earnings as compared with 1938 were reported by the heads of a number of companies yesterday at annual meetings of stockholders. Companies having higher earnings included the American Smelting and Refining company, International Business Machine corporation, Spiegel, Inc., Utah Radio Products corporation, and the Eisler Electric corporation. The president of the Revere Copper and Brass company said the business upturn has been checked.

American Smelting and Refining's earnings in the first two months of 1939 were at an average rate of $3.63 a common share, compared with $2.63 a share in the corresponding 1938 period, F. H. Brownell, chairman, said in New York. If the present pace of business and earnings continues stockholders can look forward to an increased dividend disbursement, he added.

Brownell said metal interests do not expect a war in Europe this year. He added that the Mexican situation is improving and that the outlook in that country is encouraging. The company has mining properties there.

Earnings Rise in Quarter.

International Business Machine's earnings in the first two months of this year were about 7½ per cent above the parallel 1938 months, Thomas J. Watson, president, told stockholders in New York. Sales were about 52 per cent above last year, he said. Watson also asserted he does not look for a war in Europe.

First quarter sales of Spiegel, Inc., Chicago mail order house, totaled $10,477,290, an increase of 25.23 per cent over the $8,366,187 total for the like 1938 period, according to Modie J. Spiegel, chairman. He reported March sales totaled $5,387,129, an increase of 30.55 per cent over the $4,126,489 March, 1938, total.

Stockholders approved an employé incentive plan for each of the years ending Dec. 31, 1939 to 1944, inclusive. Directors elected Modie Spiegel Jr. president. He had been general manager since 1933. He replaces Frederick W. Spiegel, his brother, who was made a vice president. Chairman Spiegel said that in view of the uncertainty of general conditions, it was decided to take no action on the common dividend.

First quarter sales of the Utah Radio Products corporation totaled $629,000, compared with $350,000 in the first quarter of 1938, G. Hamilton Beasley, president, told stockholders in Chicago. J. W. Caswell, general manager of the Caswell-Runyan company, a subsidiary, was elected a vice president of Utah to succeed John A. Snyder.

Raybestos Has Profit.

The Raybestos-Manhattan company, which produces asbestos and rubber products, had a first quarter net profit of $266,530, equal to 42 cents a share, Sumner Simpson, president, said in New York. The company had a loss of $171,448 in the first three months of 1938.

It was announced at the annual meeting in Philadelphia of the Midvale company, manufacturer of a varied line of steel products, that first quarter bookings totaled about $12,500,000, compared with $4,600,000 in the first three months of 1938.

C. Donald Dallas, president of Revere Copper and Brass, told stockholders the present business recovery appears to have been checked, and that the trend is now moderately downward. He said business is being held back by war fears in Europe, the "confusion in our national councils, and the uncertainty as to future legislative action."

TRUST INDENTURE BILL CHANGED BY COMMITTEE VOTE

Washington, D. C., April 4.—(AP)—The senate banking committee today approved a compromise measure regulating the issuance of securities under trust indentures.

The bill, introduced by Senator Barkley [D., Ky.], would bring operations under trust indentures within the scope of Securities and Exchange commission regulations, with specific standards fixed in the law.

The committee approved changes removing some of the arbitrary discretion which would have been given to the SEC under the original measure.

A flat exemption of issues of less than $1,000,000 was written into the bill and approved by the committee's action.

Group of Eight Told to Break Coal Deadlock

New York, April 4.—(AP)—Eight negotiators, after reporting disagreement over a new wage and hour contract for the suspended bituminous coal industry, were ordered today to resume their efforts, with full power to recommend a settlement.

The deadlock came after three weeks of futile effort was reported to the joint conference of Appalachian management and labor, and as 338,000 miners who stopped work Monday awaited word to return to their jobs.

Miners' "Final Proposition."

Philip Murray, vice president of the United Mine Workers of America, told the conference the "miners' final proposition" was renewal of the old agreement for two years and elimination of the penalty clause for illegal strikes.

Murray said elimination of the penalty clauses from district agreements was the stumbling block. He asserted the operators had said "no" to twenty-six proposals the union had made for increased wages, shorter hours, and improvements in working conditions.

He said the miners, to protect the industry against "raids" by other unions, had suggested a union shop and recognition of the UMWA as the exclusive bargaining agency.

Operators Want Penalty Clause.

He reported that the operators advanced not a "single argument" against the union shop proposal, but voted against it in the subcommittee, and said they wanted the penalty clause to remain in the contracts.

This clause is included in each district agreement between the union and coal associations which are parties to the Appalachian conference. Terms of each differ somewhat, but in each instance call for fines of $1 to $2 a day against each miner who strikes in violation of the contract and levies fines on coal companies for lockouts.

Idle Miners Seek Relief.

Pittsburgh, Pa., April 4.—(AP)—Thousands of soft coal miners in Pennsylvania, while apparently optimistic over prospects for an early agreement on a new wage contract, took the precaution today to apply for state unemployment compensation.

A spokesman at the Pittsburgh office said the miners would be entitled to benefits ranging from $7.50 to $15 weekly for thirteen weeks, with the majority drawing the larger amount.

WESTERN ELECTRIC SAYS PENSION FUND EXCEEDS 50 MILLIONS

The Western Electric company's pension fund for employés passed the $50,000,000 mark last year, the company told its workers yesterday. Western Electric is the manufacturing subsidiary of the American Telephone and Telegraph company. One of its largest plants is located half in Chicago and half in Cicero.

The pension fund, which is maintained entirely by the company to provide pensions to retired workers, reached $52,277,636 on Dec. 31, 1938. At that time the company had 30,300 employés. There were 1,280 retired employés receiving service pensions and 118 receiving disability pensions. This compared with 151 service and 43 disability pensions ten years ago.

During 1938 service pensions totaling $952,578 were paid from the pension fund by the trustee. Payments totaling $3,730,840 were made by the company. Under the benefit plan the company paid $914,245 for disability and death benefits and $2,340,920 to the pension fund trustee. It made $475,675 payments outside the benefit plan.

MONTH'S PHONE STATION GAIN IS ABOVE YEAR AGO

A gain of 2,494 in the number of telephones in use in Chicago during March was reported yesterday by the Illinois Bell Telephone company. This compared with a gain of 229 phones in March, 1938.

Telephones in service in the principal subsidiaries of the Bell system throughout the country increased by 81,450 during the month. The gain for the system in March last year totaled 36,700.

At the end of March Chicagoans were using 971,989 telephones against 949,175 last March 31. In the first three months of this year there has been an increase of 9,638 telephones in Chicago. During the same 1938 period the increase amounted to 3,577.

Elevated Reports March Trafic Below Year Ago

The Chicago Rapid Transit company [elevated lines] yesterday reported a decrease of 0.37 per cent in revenue passenger trafic during March as compared with the 1938 month. The Chicago Motor Coach company previously reported a 1.3 per cent gain and the Chicago Surface Lines a 1.41 per cent decrease in March, 1939, as against March, 1938.

Progressive Miners' Chief Demands Pact

A demand for recognition by and negotiation with the bituminous coal operators of the Appalachian region was made last night by Joe Ozanic, president of the Progressive Mine Workers of America, in a telegram sent to the operators. Ozanic claims to have a majority of the workers in 224 mines of the area, and he said last night that "if it weren't for Lewis' sluggers, we'd have ninety per cent representation in the whole field."

The same demand was wired to forty-six operators in the Alabama field, thirty in Arkansas and thirteen in Kansas.

Demand Covers 224 Mines.

Ozanic's telegram read: "Press reports that you are negotiating contract with United Mine Workers. The undersigned, Progressive Mine Workers, represent a majority of the employés in 224 mines, formerly covered by the Appalachian contract, embracing about 54,000 employés, and therefore demand that to the extent authorized you negotiate with us for a contract covering these mines."

The telegram was addressed to Charles O'Neil, who is conducting the negotiations for the operators. It set April 15 as the deadline for the calling of such a conference, and listed the 224 companies.

Ozanic said last night that should the conference refuse to deal with his union he will cite it under the Wagner labor act.

Calls Labor Conditions Bad.

He said his investigators had discovered in every field that the mine operators were working with Lewis' officials and organizers. He said labor conditions were so bad as the result of U. M. W. A. concessions that mine labor is now worse off than it would be if it were not organized at all. He said the operators would rather deal with Lewis than with the Progressives.

On the other hand, Ozanic insisted, the workers would rather be affiliated with his union than Lewis'. Under the C. I. O. setup, he said, the locals cannot make their own district or local laws, cannot elect their own officers, cannot spend their own money, and are constantly at the mercy of Lewis' special assessments.

GERMANY CUTS ITS IMPORTS OF U. S. PRODUCTS

Sells America More than Year Ago.

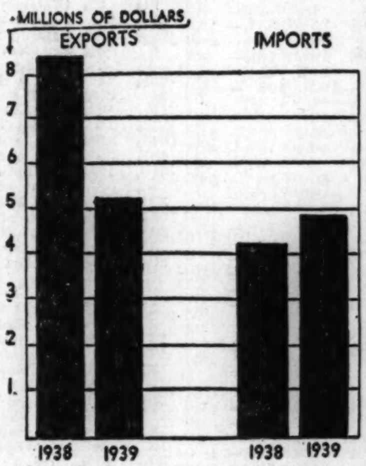
Washington, D. C., April 4.—[Special.]—A breakdown of the February foreign trade figures of the nation, made public today by the department of commerce, disclosed another sharp drop in sales to Germany. England continued to be this country's largest customer. France made heavier purchases of airplanes.

Sales to Germany totaled $5,176,000 in February—a drop of $3,152,000 from the $8,328,000 reported for February, 1938. On the other hand imports from Germany increased by a small amount, the total for the 1939 month being $4,930,000, compared with $4,119,000 in February, 1938.

For the first two months of 1939 sales to Germany totaled $11,571,000—a decrease of about $6,000,000 from the total for the first two months of 1938. Imports from Germany in the first two months totaled $10,161,000, compared with $9,920,000 in the like 1938 period.

U. S. Assailed by Nazi.

Dr. Walther Funk, German economic minister and president of the Reichsbank, some weeks ago assailed the American government's trade policies, under which an additional duty of 25 per cent is imposed on imports from Germany. Funk, who succeeded Dr. Hjalmar Schacht as the No. 1 German economist, threatened to take business away from this country and give it to the Balkans and other parts of the world.



America's trade with Germany last February, compared with February, 1938. Germany bought less United States goods but sold more in this country than a year ago.

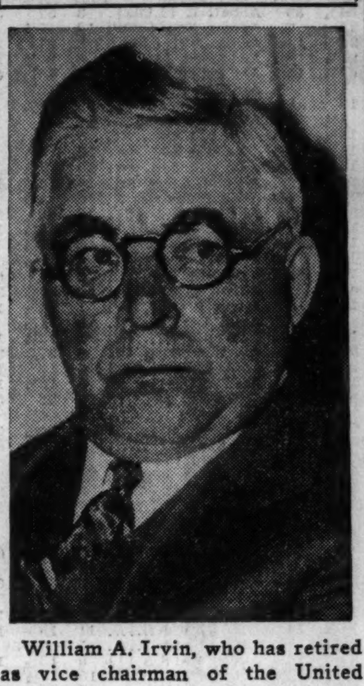
Although the 25 per cent additional duty was imposed on German products by the treasury immediately after the annexation of Czecho-Slovakia by Germany, it was announced at Washington that the additional duty was levied to offset monetary advantages accruing to German exporters under Germany's currency system.

England Buys Less.

England bought $38,678,000 of American products in February, 1939, compared with $49,749,000 in February, 1938. Imports into the United States from the United Kingdom amounted to $10,995,000 in February, 1939, compared with $9,040,000 in February, 1938.

American shipments of airplanes and parts totaled $6,772,182 in February, 1939—an increase of 31 per cent over February, 1938, and an increase of 38 per cent over January, 1939. Of the total England bought forty-three planes valued at $2,064,799 and France bought twenty-nine planes valued at $1,962,503.

Quits U. S. Steel



William A. Irvin, who has retired as vice chairman of the United States Steel corporation after 44 years in its employ.

New York, April 4.—[Special.]—William A. Irvin retired today as vice chairman of the board of the United States Steel corporation and the office was abolished. Irvin will continue as a member of the board and of the finance committee. Last year he expressed his intention to retire after forty-four years of service with the corporation.

Robert C. Stanley, president of International Nickel company, was elected a member of the steel corporation's finance committee. Stanley, who was elected a director at the annual stockholders' meeting, succeeds Walter S. Gifford, resigned.

Irvin started his business career as a telegraph operator. In 1931 he was appointed vice president of United States Steel in charge of manufacturing and the following year was elected president. He was named vice chairman in January, 1938.

GRAIN COMPANY DENIES SCHEME TO MANIPULATE

Simon Mayer, vice president of Continental Grain company, denied yesterday that Continental's transactions with Cargill, Inc., in cash corn and corn futures in August, 1937, were part of a scheme to manipulate grain prices.

Mayer testified before Federal Referee S. Abbott Maginnis at the Hotel Sherman. The hearing is being held by the Commodities Exchange administration on charges brought by Cargill, large Minneapolis grain company, against the Chicago Board of Trade. The questioned transactons, Mayer contended, were of a type normally entered into in the grain trade. The Board of Trade charges that they were made with intention of manipulating grain prices.

EDISON'S SALES IN 1939 GAINING OVER YEAR AGO

Financing Progress Told by Simpson.

In the first two months of this year sales of electricity by the Commonwealth Edison company increased 10.5 per cent over the corresponding 1938 period and electric revenues increased 3.4 per cent, James Simpson, chairman of the board, told stockhelders at their annual meeting yesterday.

Earnings per share for the first two months amounted to 56 cents a share on 8,841,000 shares, he said, compared with 51 cents a share on 7,811,000 shares in the first two months of 1938.

Simpson explained that the rise in electricity sales was largely the result of a sharp upturn in industrial use of this form of power. The earnings increase reflected in part the benefits of lower interest charges and the elimination of a substantial portion of dividend charges on preferred stocks of subsidiaries.

Financial Structure Simplified.

The management in 1938 completed the major part of its plan for financial consolidation and simplification. Under the program approximately $284,000,000 of mortgage bonds and convertible debentures were sold. Shareholders are being mailed subscription warrants for $25,283,300 of 3½ per cent convertible debentures of 1958.

Proceeds from the sale of these debentures will be used to retire all the bonds of the Western United Gas and Electric company, a subsidiary. When this is done there will remain only about $5,000,000 of Western United preferred stock to be retired to achieve the substantial completion of the management's financing program. Out of a total of $13,246,000 of the preferred stock about all but the $5,000,000 mentioned has been converted into Commonwealth Edison stock on a basis of four shares of Commonwealth Edison common for each share of Western United preferred.

May Do More Refunding.

However, Simpson said there is a possibility that the company will refund $85,000,000 of 4 per cent and $29,500,000 of 3¾ per cent Commonwealth Edison bonds.

Simpson said last year's operations made possible the achievement of the three primary objectives of the financial program, as follows:

1. Interest and preferred dividend requirements were further reduced $2,100,000 annually, making the total

One-fifth of the interest due on June 1, 1939, on these Bonds, being fixed interest under the Plan, is payable on June 1, 1939. For the convenience of the bondholders and to save expense, the Company will combine the two, making payment per $1,000 Bond on May 1, as follows:

Series A
Contingent interest to December 31, 1938	$3.33
Fixed interest to June 1, 1939	5.00	$ 8.33
Series C
Contingent interest to December 31, 1938	$4.00
Fixed interest to June 1, 1939	6.00	$10.00

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company
Thirty-Year Convertible Bonds

Contingent interest earned to December 31, 1938, will be payable under the Plan, on May 1, 1939, on Convertible Bonds of The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company. The Company will make payment per $1,000 Bond on May 1, as follows:

Contingent interest earned to December 31, 1938	$6.67

Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh Railway Company
Consolidated Mortgage Bonds

Contingent interest earned to December 31, 1938, will be payable, under the Plan, on May 1, 1939, on Consolidated Mortgage Bonds of Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh Railway Company. Two-thirds of the interest due on May 1, 1939, on these Bonds, being fixed interest under the Plan, is payable on that date. Payment per $1,000 Bond will be made on May 1, on these Bonds as follows:

Contingent interest to December 31, 1938	$ 2.50
Fixed interest to May 1, 1939	15.00	$17.50

The Cincinnati, Indianapolis & Western Railroad Company
First Mortgage Bonds

Contingent interest earned to December 31, 1938, will be payable under the Plan, on May 1, 1939, on First Mortgage Bonds of The Cincinnati, Indianapolis & Western Railroad Company. Three-fifths of the interest due on May 1, 1939, on these Bonds, being fixed interest under the Plan, is payable on that date. Payment per $1,000 Bond will be made on May 1, on these bonds as follows:

Contingent interest to December 31, 1938	$ 3.33
Fixed interest to May 1, 1939	15.00	$18.33

Holders of coupon bonds, in order to receive this interest, should present, on May 1, in the usual way, June 1, 1939, coupons appurtenant to Refunding and General Mortgage Bonds, Series A and Series C; February 1, 1939, coupons appurtenant to Convertible Bonds; May 1, 1939, coupons appurtenant to Consolidated Mortgage Bonds of Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh Railway Company; and May 1, 1939, coupons appurtenant to First Mortgage Bonds of The Cincinnati, Indianapolis & Western Railroad Company. Such coupons will be stamped to show the amount paid thereon and returned.

Holders of record as of April 14, 1939, of registered bonds or certificate of deposit of any of the aforementioned issues will receive checks on May 1, 1939, for this interest payment and need take no action in respect thereof.

Security holders who have not received copies of the Plan or who desire additional information, will please address the Company Grand Central Station, Harrison & Wells Sts.

Stocks, Bonds

New York Bonds.

New York, April 4.—(AP)—Railroad loans were under heavy pressure in a declining bond market today, with losses at the worst extending to 5 points. Supporting orders were uncovered before the close, enabling the list to edge up from the bottom levels.

United States government issues were resistant throughout and ended with gains ranging up to 10-32ds of a point in the majority, more than offsetting a few small declines.

Bond men said liquidation in the corporate group was inspired largely by intensification of the European political turmoil. In the case of the rails it was noted car loadings currently are expected to taper off, and there was some cooling of enthusiasm over prospects for government help to the carriers in the near future.

Especially hard hit were Pennsylvania railroad 3¼s, Pere Marquette 5s, Richfield Oil 4s, Walworth 4s, Missouri Pacific 5s, St. Paul 4¾s, Illinois Central 4¾s, and Alleghany 5s of 1949.

Chicago Stocks.

Prices on the Chicago Stock exchange declined in active trading yesterday. Of 140 issues traded, there were only fourteen advances, against 100 declines. Twenty-six issues remained unchanged. THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE average closed at 9.77, against 9.95 on Monday.

The two most active stocks rose against the trend. Commonwealth Edison, on a turnover of 4,000 shares, advanced ¼ point to 27⅛. Merchants and Manufacturers class A stock rose ⅛ point to 4¼ on 2,200 sales. Others to go against the trend included Heileman Brewing, up ¼ to 8, and Mickelberry Food Products, up ⅛ to 3⅛.

Losses in most stocks ran from fractions to nearly 2 points. General Motors dropped 1⅛ to 41⅜, Marshall Field was off ⅜ to 11, and Great Lakes Dredging declined ¾ to 22¼. Transactions for the day totaled 40,000 shares.

Bank Stocks.

Depressed securities markets weighed down trading in Chicago bank stocks yesterday. Closing bids were nominally $1 to $6 lower. First National shares lost $6, City National $3, Chicago Title and Trust $2, and Continental Illinois $1.

Commodities

Copper futures led commodity prices downward yesterday. Trading was comparatively heavy in copper and cottonseed oil contracts, but remained light in other commodities. The Associated Press index of thirty-five wholesale commodities declined to 65.03 from 65.33 Monday.

The decline in copper futures ranged from .25 to .26 cent a pound. Nervousness among traders was created by slashing of the domestic spot price to 10¾ cents a pound by leading producers Monday night. Other producers held their price at 11¼ cents yesterday. The price of No. 1 scrap copper was reduced by ⅛ cent a pound to 9 cents, and brass ingots were cut ¼ to ½ cent.

Expressing doubt there would be any general cut, some copper producers asserted that low stocks in the hands of fabricators and rapidly increasing armament expenditures throughout the world would soon force large scale buying. Germany and Poland, among other big consumers, extended inquiries for the metal in this market, according to trade rumors. One inquiry for 1,000 tons was reported.

Selling in cottonseed oil contracts was influenced by new seasonal lows in all lard deliveries and continued poor cash demand. The close was .19 to .22 cent lower. Other commodities to decline included rubber, silk, hides, cotton, and sugar.

C. & O. PREPARES TIGHTER GRIP ON PERE MARQUETTE

Will Displace 3 on Board of Subsidiary.

Cleveland, O., April 4.—(AP)—The Chesapeake and Ohio railway moved today to tighten its hold on the board of its subsidiary, the Pere Marquette railway, by displacing three of the present directors.

Proxy statements sent to stockholders for the May 2 annual meeting at Detroit showed Frank B. Bernard, Muncie, Ind., banker; Homer L. Ferguson, Newport News, Va., shipbuilding company head, and John B. Hollister, Cincinnati attorney, would go on the Pere Marquette fourteen man board. All are Chesapeake and Ohio directors. They will replace Michael Gallagher and William H. Wenneman of Cleveland and Seward L. Merriam of Detroit.

Designated by C. & O. Board.

The statement said Ferguson, Hollister, and Bernard were designated as candidates by the Chesapeake and Ohio board, which will add four of its members to the board of the Nickel Plate railroad at the subsidiary's May 3 annual meeting.

The management proxy showed Robert R. Young and all other directors would be reëlected. Young, chairman of Alleghany corporation, nominally the top holding company of the Chesapeake and Ohio system, has been at odds with the Chesapeake and Ohio management.

Pere Marquette's condensed annual report, released today, showed its freight revenues declined 21.30 per cent last year to $22,979,446.

Dividends Impounded.

New York, April 4.—(AP)—The Guaranty Trust company, as trustee for Alleghany corporation bonds, has impounded $312,040 of dividends paid Saturday on 624,080 Chesapeake and Ohio shares held as collateral under the indenture covering the Alleghany 5 per cent bonds maturing 1944, it was disclosed today.

Guaranty, as trustee, also held $273,000 resulting from payment of a 35 cent liquidating dividend on 780,000 shares of Chesapeake corporation stock, also part collateral for the same issue of bonds.

The question of whether to retain the dividend money as collateral, or place it at the disposal of Alleghany corporation for general corporate purposes, will be left for settlement by a new trustee shortly to be elected.

Yield of 20 Cities' Bonds Decline to 2.72 Per Cent

New York, April 4.—[Special.]—As of April 1, the average yield of the bonds of the twenty cities comprising the index of the Bond Buyer was down 2.72 per cent from 2.80 per cent the month before.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK

Hog prices yesterday dipped 10 to 20 cents, with spots down 25 cents. Top loads went over the scales at $7.25, 20 cents below the preceding session.

All droves combined made an average of $6.90, off 15 cents for the day and a new five year low for April. Farmers curtailed shipments in an attempt to halt the downward price swing, but this had little effect because channels were well supplied with pork from last week's big slaughter.

Most other branches of the live stock market were higher.

Advance of 15 to 25 cents were registered in steers and yearlings. Calves, however, slumped 50 to 75 cents.

Slaughter lambs advanced 15 to 30 cents to the highest level in a week. Top loads reached $9.90.

U. S. DEBT TOPS 40 BILLION; NEAR LEGAL 'CEILING'

Washington, D. C., April 4.—(AP)—The treasury made public today its April financial statement showing that the public debt slipped past the forty billion dollar mark on that date.

Accounted for by the usual first-of-the-month transfer of $50,000,000 to the old age reserve account, the debt totaled $40,037,733,224 last Saturday.

The debt, now within $5,000,000,000 of the statutory limit, is $2,872,992,908 larger than it was at the beginning of the fiscal year on July 1.

1938 EARNINGS OF M'WILLIAMS DREDGING FALL

The McWilliams Dredging company yesterday announced 1938 net income of $103,119, equal to 53 cents a common share, against $192,700 in 1937, or 82 cents a share.

Horn & Hardart company was among the few enterprises to report increased 1938 earnings. Net income rose to $1,721,663, from $361,527 in 1937. The company owns a chain of restaurants and bakeries in New York City.

PLACE $24,000,000 EDISON NOTES ON MARKET TODAY

An underwriting group headed by Halsey, Stuart & Co., Inc., is announcing today the offering, subject to prior sale to stockholders, $24,000,000 of 3½ per cent convertible debentures of the Commonwealth Edison company, due July 1, 1958. Although the amount underwritten is $24,000,000, the amount offered stockholders is $25,283,300.

Commonwealth Edison stockholders are being mailed rights to subscribe to the debentures on a basis of $100 of debentures for each thirty-six shares of Commonwealth Edison stock held. The subscription period runs to April 28.

The underwriting group, which consists of 116 investment banking houses, will offer that portion of the debentures not taken by the stockholders. The debentures are convertible into common stock of the Commonwealth Edison company at $25 per share.

Colorado Public Service Files Proposed Issues

The Public Service Company of Colorado yesterday filed with the SEC a registration statement covering a proposed issue of $52,500,000 of bonds and 21,900 shares of $100 par 5 per cent cumulative first preferred stock. The company proposes to issue $40,000,000 of first mortgage 3½ per cent bonds, due 1964, and $12,500,000 of 4 per cent sinking fund debentures, due in 1949. Proceeds will be used to redeem outstanding obligations.

J. S. BROOKES JR. HEADS AMERICAN NEWSPAPERS, INC.

New York, April 4.—(AP)—John S. Brookes Jr., took office here today as president of American Newspapers, Inc., parent company of Hearst properties. The election was announced by Clarence J. Shearn, voting trustee of the company, which controls Hearst corporations and Hearst Consolidated Publications, Inc.

Brookes, a Washington lawyer who has specialized in industrial problems, will have full charge of the financial and business management of the enterprise, Shearn said. It was reported that Brookes would concern himself chiefly with broad financial problems, rather than directly with editorial matters of Hearst publications.

Brookes is well known, through various corporate activities, in the financial communities of Chicago, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Atlanta, New York, and Washington. He is a director of several nationally known companies, including International Paper & Power company.

SEC MAY PUNISH FIRMS RETAINING ITS EX-EMPLOYES

Washington, D. C., April 4.—[Special.]—Any firm which retains former employés of the Securities and Exchange commission for advice on matters with which such persons became familiar while with the commission may lose its right to practice before the SEC. This possibility was announced by Chester T. Lane, general counsel of the SEC, in an opinion today.

The opinion was made public in the form of a letter, real names omitted, in which Lane advised a party who inquired concerning the commission's attitude in such matters.

COTTON

Cotton futures fell 6 to 13 points today under heavy foreign selling. Aggressive liquidation from Bombay and Liverpool swamped professionals in New York and trade accounts, who took some of the offerings but were unable to stem the full selling tide.

Liverpool sales were based on a general belief in the trade, commission men declared, that the export subsidy plan had little chance of revival.

Spot cotton closed .09 to .12 cent lower, with New York, 8.75 cents; New Orleans, 8.48 cents; Houston, 8.30 cents, and Galveston at 8.25 cents a pound. Prices follow:

First Mortgage Gold Bonds, Series A

Holders of Chippewa Power Company First Mortgage Gold Bonds, Series A, dated June 1, 1922, and maturing June 1, 1947, issued under and secured by that certain Indenture dated as of June 1, 1922, between said Chippewa Power Company and The National Shawmut Bank of Boston, and Ralph W. Hill, (to whom Frederick A. Carroll is successor in trust), as Trustees, are hereby notified that Northern States Power Company, a Wisconsin corporation, as successor to said Chippewa Power Company, has elected to redeem and pay off on June 1, 1939, all of said bonds outstanding under said Indenture. On said date there will become and be due and payable upon each bond so to be redeemed, at the office of The National Shawmut Bank of Boston, 40 Water Street, in the City of Boston, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the principal thereof, together with the accrued interest to said date with a premium of four per cent (4%) on said principal, and said bonds should be then presented for payment and redemption at said office. Said bonds must be accompanied by all coupons maturing on and subsequent to June 1, 1939, in the case of coupon bonds, and by duly executed assignments or transfer powers in the case of bonds registered as to principal. Interest on said bonds so to be redeemed will cease on June 1, 1939.

Dated: April 5, 1939.

THE NATIONAL SHAWMUT BANK OF BOSTON, Trustee.

By H. SCHERMERHORN, Assistant Vice President.

The above mentioned bonds will be accepted for payment upon presentation at the above named office at any time prior to June 1, 1939, at one hundred four per cent (104%) of the principal amount thereof and accrued interest thereon to June 1, 1939.

OFFICIALS FAVOR BUYING SIDE IN STOCK DEALINGS

February Purchases Top Sales, SEC Reports.

Corporation officers, directors, and principal stockholders favored the buying side of the stock market during February for the second consecutive month, a Securities and Exchange commission report showed yesterday. Selling had predominated for many months preceding January, and December sales were particularly heavy.

Philip G. Gossler.

While purchases were in the majority during February, a number of substantial sales were reported.

Philip G. Gossler of New York, chairman of the Columbia Gas and Electric company, purchased an additional 10,000 shares of that company's stock, through a holding company, increasing his interest to 91,992 shares.

Loew's Stock Purchased.

Two vice presidents of Loew's, Inc., motion picture company, bought substantial amounts of stock. David Bernstein purchased 22,220 shares, giving him a total of 29,300 shares at the end of February, and J. Robert Rubin bought 20,020, raising his holdings to 34,175. Both are New Yorkers.

The Aviation and Transportation company of Chicago acquired 26,000 shares of New York Shipbuilding corporation founders' stock, giving the Chicago concern holdings totaling 87,800 shares.

Allan Jackson of Chicago, vice president of the Standard Oil company of Indiana, purchased 1,500 shares of the company's stock and held 1,600 at the end of February.

Wetten Buys Edison.

Another Chicagoan, Albert H. Wetten, bought 500 shares of Commonwealth Edison company, of which he is a director, increasing his interest to 4,704 shares.

Elisha Walker of New York, director of Armour & Co., reported the sale of 5,000 shares through a partnership.

Another substantial sale was that reported by R. H. Grant of Detroit, vice president of the General Motors corporation. He sold 5,000 shares.

J. P. Morgan & Co. sold 1,400 shares of Phelps Dodge corporation common, reducing its holdings to 12,600 shares. The Morgan firm also disposed of 813 shares of Kennecott Copper corporation common.

Other Transactions Reported.

NOTICE OF BONDHOLDERS' MEETING

To the Holders of the Six Per Cent. First Mortgage Sinking Fund Gold Bonds of British Columbia Pulp & Paper Company, Limited

NOTICE is hereby given that, pursuant to a request received from British Columbia Pulp & Paper Company, Limited, by the undersigned Trustee, a Meeting of the holders of the Six Per Cent. First Mortgage Sinking Fund Gold Bonds of British Columbia Pulp & Paper Company, Limited, issued under and secured by Deed of Trust and Mortgage dated the 25th day of January, 1926, and Deeds Supplemental thereto dated the 26th day of May, 1933, and 31st day of October, 1935, all in favour of Montreal Trust Company, as Trustee, will be held at the office of Montreal Trust Company, 511 Place d'Armes, in the City of Montreal, on Monday, the 1st day of May, 1939, at the hour of eleven thirty o'clock (D.S.T.) in the forenoon, for the following purposes:

I. To consider and if deemed advisable pass as an Extraordinary Resolution or Extraordinary Resolutions within the meaning of the said Deed of Trust and Mortgage and to the intent that the same shall as such be binding upon all the Bondholders whether or not present or represented at the Meeting or any adjournment or adjournments thereof, one or more resolutions for all or any of the purposes below mentioned, either with or without modification, alteration or omission, that is to say:

[a] To postpone the semi-annual instalments of interest falling due on the said Bonds in the years 1939 and 1940, represented by interest coupons maturing 1st May and 1st November, 1939, and 1st May and 1st November, 1940, and to provide that such instalments of interest shall be payable with interest thereon at the rate of six per centum per annum on the face amount thereof from the respective maturity dates stated thereon on the 1st day of November, 1942; with the right to the Company on thirty days' notice, published in one issue of the Montreal "Gazette" or such other newspaper published in the City of Montreal as the Trustee may approve, from time to time to pay off and discharge the postponed interest coupons of any one or more maturities upon deposit with the coupon paying agent of the face amount of such interest coupons and interest thereon at the rate of six per centum per annum from the respective maturity dates stated thereon to the date fixed for payment in any such notice, which date shall not be later than 1st November, 1942.

[b] To waive and cancel the payments in cash or bonds to the sinking fund which will fall due in the years 1939, 1940, 1941 and 1942;

[c] To amend the covenant by the Company contained in Sub-clause [m] of Clause 19 of the said Deed of Trust and Mortgage by deleting the words "nor purchase additional fixed assets" and the words "or purchase" where they appear in the said sub-clause to the end that the Company may purchase additional fixed assets notwithstanding that its Net Working Capital is less than $750,000 or would be reduced by such purchase below that amount; and to amend Sub-clause [h] of Clause 21 of the said Deed of Trust and Mortgage by deleting therefrom the words "or by the purchase of additional fixed assets" to the end that any such purchase shall not constitute an event of default;

[d] To waive any default which may occur, prior to the passing of such resolution or resolutions;

[e] To sanction the dismantling of the buildings, erections, machinery and plant at Swanson Bay and the disposition by the Company of the proceeds from the sale thereof free from the lien and operation of the said Deed of Trust and Mortgage;

[f] To provide that the covenants of the Company added by the Supplemental Deed of May 26th, 1933, not to declare or pay dividends on shares of capital stock or pay interest on or principal of any other bonds or funded debt while postponed interest coupons remain unpaid shall apply to the interest coupons originally maturing in the years 1939 and 1940 but to delete the prohibition added by the said Supplemental Deed against the issue of additional First Mortgage Bonds while postponed interest coupons remain unpaid.

[g] To sanction and confirm changes in the provisions of the said Deed of Trust and Mortgage and Deeds Supplemental thereto and forms of bonds and coupons to give effect to the foregoing modifications or compromise of the rights of the Bondholders against the Company or against its property and to authorize the Company and the Trustee to do all acts and things and to sign and execute all such deeds or documents as may be necessary or advisable for any or all of the foregoing purposes.

II. To take such further or other action as may be considered advisable in the premises.

III. To adjourn the Meeting from time to time for further consideration of and action on any of the above mentioned purposes.

NOTICE is further given that the following regulations will apply for the purpose of enabling the holders of Bearer Bonds to be present and to vote at the Meeting without producing their Bonds, and of enabling them to vote by proxy:

The holder of a Bearer Bond or Bonds desiring to be present and vote without producing his Bond or Bonds at the Meeting or to vote thereat by proxy, may deposit such Bond or Bonds with any Chartered Bank or Trust Company or other Company or person satisfactory to the Trustee, and any person producing at the meeting a Certificate of Deposit signed by or on behalf of such Bank or Trust Company or other Company or person in a form satisfactory to the Trustee, or producing such a Certificate with a proxy signed by the Bondholder named in such Certificate, shall be entitled to vote at the Meeting in the same manner as though such person produced at the Meeting the Bond or Bonds mentioned in such Certificate.

AND NOTICE is further given that holders of Registered Bonds may, by instrument in writing duly executed, stating the numbers of the Bonds held appoint any person as proxy to vote at the Meeting.

Save as aforesaid, the only persons who shall be recognized at the Meeting as holders of any Bond or Bonds, or as entitled to vote at the Meeting in respect thereof shall be the persons who produce such Bonds at the Meeting, and the Registered Bondholders.

Dated at Montreal, this 4th day of April, 1939.

MONTREAL TRUST COMPANY,
Trustee for the Bondholders,
F. G. DONALDSON,
Vice President and General Manager.

NOTE: Copies of forms of Proxy and Certificate of Deposit may be obtained at the office of Montreal Trust Company, Montreal, Que., or at the office of the Secretary of the Company, Bank of Nova Scotia Building, Vancouver, B. C.

EDISON'S SALES IN 1939 GAINING OVER YEAR AGO

saving since the beginning of 1935 more than $5,000,000 a year.

2. The credit standing of the company and its subsidiaries has been greatly enhanced by the strengthening of the financial structure.

3. The capitalization of the Commonwealth Edison group of companies was simplified by the substitution of three new issues for the twenty issues of bonds and preferred stocks retired.

$18,000,000 Notes Converted.

Simpson said that of the $104,148,100 of convertible debentures issued under the refinancing program, nearly $18,000,000 had been converted into common shares. After the issuance of the final block of convertible debentures and retirement of the Western United bonds and preferred stock, Commonweath Edison's capitalization will consist of 46 per cent mortgage bonds, 17.5 per cent convertible debentures, 0.5 per cent minority interests, and 36 per cent Edison stock.

The ultimate goal is the creation of a capital structure which would consist of 46 per cent mortgage bonds and 54 per cent Edison stock.

Simpson said that since the end of 1937 there has been an increase of 6,000 in the number of stockholders, raising the total to 79,000 — the largest number in the history of the company.

Reviews Progress Made.

Reviewing the progress made in the simplification of the company's capital structure, he said that of the seventy-seven companies which composed the Commonwealth Edison group in 1932, only twenty remained at the time of the 1938 annual meeting. Since then the number has been reduced to twelve, and he hopes to make further reduction this year.

Simpson said that, if the 1932 rates were still in effect, customers, on the basis of 1938 consumption, would have paid $12,000,000 more than the amounts for which they actually were billed. In the same period taxes increased about $13,000,000 annually, dividends increased from $1 per share to $1.60 per share a year, and wage scales of employés receiving $300 or less a month have been increased more than 20 per cent.

Simpson said the company expects to spend about $28,000,000 for construction purposes in 1939. Contracts will be let shortly for an $8,000,000 addition to the generating capacity of the northwest station.

All directors were reëlected. None of the stockholders had any questions to ask.

Investors' Guide

Wednesday, April 5, 1939.

[Copyright: 1939: By The Chicago Tribune.]

IN A MUDDLE.

Investors' Guide: I am in pretty much of a muddle trying to figure just where I stand with regard to some German bonds I hold. They are bonds of a private German company, the Koholyt corporation, which makes paper products. The bonds defaulted on interest in 1934 and a couple of years later I received, instead of interest in cash, some bonds of the Conversion Office for German Foreign Debts. Now I see in the papers that more of the Conversion Office bonds will be issued instead of cash interest.

Is the Koholyt company making profits, and if so why doesn't it pay its bond interest? Just what is the Conversion Office? How closely is either the Conversion Office or the Koholyt corporation connected with the German government?—Mrs. M. T. K.

Answer: Latest available reports from the Feldmuehle company, parent concern to Koholyt, show that profits are being made. Nazi currency restrictions, however, forbid payment of interest in dollars on the dollar bonds such as you hold.

The Conversion Office, or Konversionskasse, is a "public corporation," operating under the supervision of the Reichsbank. It was set up in 1933 for the purpose of issuing its own bonds and scrip to satisfy the claims of foreign holders of German securities that were in default. The Konversionskasse is actually little more than an intermediary for the German government, which guarantees the principal and interest of the bonds, and supervises the accounts of the agency.

The proposed issue of the Konversionskasse which was recently announced will amount to $35,000,000. These bonds will go to pay interest coupons on Koholyt and more than 100 other German bond issues held by foreigners.

The new bonds carry a rate of 3 per cent interest which is to be paid in dollars, and they mature in 1989.

Bonds of the Konversionskasse issued in 1936 at the same interest rate and for a similar purpose are now quoted at around 30 cents on the dollar.

A PLEASANT CHANGE.

Investors' Guide: There must be some mistake, I have a $1,000 bond of the Montana-Dakota Power company that has been paying interest at 5½ per cent and has been listed as a 5½ per cent bond. Lately in the New York bond tables it has been listed as a 6½ per cent bond. Is this a typographical error?—M. T.

Answer: No, the rate of interest on these bonds has been changed. As originally provided, they paid 5½ per cent until the end of last year. From now until maturity in 1944, however, they are to pay 6½ per cent.

EUROPEAN NEWS BRINGS ADVANCE IN GRAIN MARKET

Grain prices on the Chicago Board of Trade held within narrow limits yesterday, but showed a firm undertone due to the less favorable character of European political news. Cash interests bought wheat and corn futures on the dips. Closing wheat trades were ⅛ to ⅜ cent higher. Corn finished ⅜ cent higher.

If the present outlook for the winter wheat crop is maintained to harvest, the yield will be about 539,000,000 bushels, it was estimated by Chicago statisticians. Comparative estimates follow:

NEAR NORTH SIDE

Why spend time commuting when you can live down here

NEAR THE LAKE

and near so many interesting things, with only a short walk to and from your office in the loop? [Perhaps you need that walk.] You will really feel at home if you live in the Cook estate. We have and other things to make you comfortable and we try to take care of you after you do get in. Do you like a huge living room most unusual in design, flooded with both north and south light, with 4 other rooms and 2 baths? Or a little heated 2 bedroom shaggy-roofed house in a little Pomander Walk at the second floor level? Or apartments with bay windows and combination dressing and sleeping rooms? 1 to 6 rooms. All on or near North Michigan-avenue. COOK ESTATE. 161 East Erie-street. Superior 2875. Sunday and evenings. Delaware 5492.

1400 LAKE SHORE-DRIVE.

2 TO 6 ROOMS. Chicago's finest apartment house. Kitchen stainless steel sinks, porcelain cabinets, glass walls, new refrigerators and stoves; all in one glorious assembly done in pastel colors as you might dream about. Gas, electricity and refrigeration free. VERY MODERATE RENTALS. We invite your inspection of the tastefully appointed modern apartments.

"How I Got a Loan of $100 without embarrassment or delay."

"I needed $100 in a hurry. I dreaded to ask friends for a favor. And I had no security for getting a loan at a bank. What was I to do? Fortunately I heard about Household Finance and we went to a nearby office. The manager was courteous and friendly. He merely asked me a few simple questions. The next day I got the money with 20 months to repay. Only my wife and I signed the papers. I was delighted to get a loan so simply and promptly."

Whether you are married or single, if you need a loan of $20 to $300 the manager of the Household office near you will be glad to discuss your problem with you in complete privacy and without obligation. Why not phone or visit him today?

A CORRECTION.

Recently we advertised a 1938 De Soto sedan for $465, stating that the car was equipped with a radio, the motor was perfect, and the upholstery like new.

This was inaccurate as the car was an ex-taxicab and was not equipped with a radio.
